SHORT WEIGHT BUTTER.—C M Elpass, proprietor of the Eugene Creamery, was fined $25 and costs amounting to $31.95, this week for selling short weight butter.

W C T U MEETING.—At the reading room Tuesday the W C T U held a very interesting meeting. Mrs Wheeler gave her report of the State Convention which she attended at Astoria sometime ago. About 20 members were present and many questions of interest were discussed. The dues of the Union was reduced from $1.00 to 50c per year. After the business had all been transacted luncheon was served.

BADLY SCALDED.—The little 12 month's old daughter of Mr and Mrs Frank Jordan was badly scalded last Monday. Mrs Hopkins the deaf and dumb lady who lives next door to Mr Jordan's was taking care of the child at her home and in some way let it tip over a cup of boiling water. Its neck, entire back right arm and side were severely scalded. Dr Wall was called by phone and was soon on hand to administer relief to the little sufferer. At the present writing the child is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

THEN AND NOW.—The Benson Drug Co this week has on exhibition in their show windows the busts of "John Bull" and "Uncle Sam" 100 years ago, and now. Don't fail to see them. And while you are at the store it will be a good time to select your Christmas presents, for at no other place in town can be found such an assortment to select from. Everything is of the latest patterns. No old goods at our store. The show windows are for your inspection. Our line of Stationery Dressing Cases Manicure Sets, Work Boxes and Celluloid goods are by far the finest ever exhibited in Cottage Grove. Prices are right.

THE REVIVAL.—The revival meetings at the Christian church are attracting large audiences. A deep religious interest is manifested at every service. On last Sunday afternoon Mr Rose addressed the children on the subject "Christ and the Children."

By his pleasing and instructive illustrations he held the close attention of every child present.

Mr Rose is a close and rapid thinker and a speaker of marvelous power. There have been a number of accessions to the church already and the great religious awakening assures many more. Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock will be held a meeting for women only. Mr Rose will address them on the subject; "Woman's Work in the World's Crises."

BOHEMIA TELEPHONE COMPLETED.—The Cottage Grove-Bohemia Telephone is completed and the first message over the wire from Bohemia was transmitted Sunday. Some little difficulties have already been encountered beyond the Helena No 2, but this is hoped to be remedied within a few days and then communication can be had with Bohemia's friends at any time. The work has been rushed as rapidly as possible in order that it may be completed before the snow got too deep in the mountains. From the time the contract was let until the line was completed was only about 30 days. Mr Perkins, who is one of the contractors and who worked from the mines out came in town Sunday evening. Mr Jordan the other contractor with Mr A Nelson the electrician is still at the mines, but will be out in a few days.

The line will be connected with the long distance line at Cottage Grove.

C M A's GO TO ROSEBURG.—The C M A foot ball team leaves this afternoon for Roseburg where they go to play the Roseburg High School team tomorrow. If Roseburg plays a team anything like equal weight, which is the agreement, they will "have to hurry just a little" or our boys are going to succeed in making a few touchdowns "that will be about all."

BRINGS SATISFACTORY RESULT.—One day last week we dropped into one of our prominent stores and the proprietor asked: "Can I chance my ad this week, it has brought all the trade I can handle in the line I was advertising. I am sold out entirely." Just remember this when you have any advertising to do and place your ad in a paper that is read by the entire community.

A BAD BREAK.—One day last week a young Jackson street salesman, a part of whose business it is to take orders for "tailor made" suits took a gentleman's measure for a pair of pants. Forgetting one item of measurement, he called the customer up by phone and sang out, "How large do you like your pants at the knees?" Now it happened that at this particular moment the gentleman who ordered the trousers was out and his wife had answered the phone. Consternation, no explanation of course followed.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

SCHUBERTS SYMPHONY CLUB.—The audience was one of the most demonstrative in the history of the Ladies' Matinee Musicale, and every number was applauded to the echo. The feature of the evening was the Schubert Lady Quartette, through the instrumental selections were given exquisite shading and rendered with spirit and dash.—The Spokesman Review.

On Dec 31 this company will appear at the Opera House under the auspices of the public schools. If you fail to hear them you will miss a rare treat.

A DRUNKEN WOMAN.—Last Friday night about 12:30 one of the most disgusting scenes that ever occurred in Cottage Grove took place. At this hour of the night there were very few people on the streets and the disgraceful scene was only witnessed by two or three persons, and perhaps the parties implicated did not know that any one saw them. A young woman in a drunken condition came staggering out of one of the saloons by the assistance of two of the "young sports" of town and started down the street reeling from one side of the walk to the other, and at times she was almost, beyond the control of her escorts. Twice she fell, but by assistance she arose and was hurried along. The parties implicated are all known.
