

PRESIDENT HOUSE—The special car carrying President House of the cloth and Iron Range railroad, with his family and other officials of the road was in Cottage Grove during the day, Wednesday. The trip was made here owing to the wreck at the Divide.

PARALYSED—Harry Wentworth was paralysed at Shoshone, Idaho, about 2 months ago, arrived here on the overland, Wednesday morning. He is entirely helpless and was taken to his old home at Cottage Grove where he expects to remain until death comes to relieve him of his unpleasant condition. Rev Chas Wentworth of Illinois, his brother accompanied him, to administer to his wants while on his way home. He is a large man; weighing about 200 pounds and a person who apparently would never be subject to such an attack as came upon him. He was taken over to Lorane by private conveyance Wednesday.

FORESTERS SMOKER AND GOOSE SUPPER—On Tuesday evening we had the pleasure of accepting a kind invitation to attend the smoker and goose supper given by the Foresters of America. Upon entering the hall about 8:30 we found one of the largest crowds that it has ever been a pleasure to mingle with in Cottage Grove. Every body had laid aside business cares and just came to have a good time, and if there is any class of people in Cottage Grove who know how to have a good time and show their guests a good time it is the Foresters. A couple of hours was spent in social and card games and the enjoyment of the elegant Havana, after which an elegant lunch was served. Two ice, fat geese were baked with dressing, by E A Willson for the occasion which were simply superb. An informal program was rendered after lunch in which almost every one who was called on responded with either a speech or a song. At 2 o'clock the jolly crowd began to leave each feeling that a very enjoyable time had been spent and hoping it will soon be their pleasure to attend another such gathering.

"THE DEACON"—The home talent act in the production of the comedy drama "The Deacon" at the Opera House, last Friday evening won the admiration of the large audience that greeted them. Although it was a very cold night and snowing the Opera House was crowded to the doors, many being unable to secure seats and had to stand up during the entire play.

The entire cast did excellent work and not a noticeable error was made. Mr Harry Brehaut as the "Deacon" and Miss Laura Newland as Miss Melia Fawcett, and old maid were very strong. Their courtship caused many loud applause. Mr Thomas Ledley in the heavy roll of George Darrah alias Mr Wheeler handled his part very creditably and won many deserving compliments Mrs Wheeler, the part of Mrs Thornton was good while the part of Helen her daughter was very pleasingly rendered by Miss Mary Currin. Pete, a negro character personated by Mr B K Lawson and Orville Taylor as Billy, the "Deacon's" boy were well sustained characters. Their hunt for Pete's missionary pot of gold brought down the house. The roll of Geo Graef, the hero was handled by C W Wallace, while Mr A G Young doubled as the parts of Read, Wheeler's friend, Parson Brownlow and Pedro joining honor to each of the rolls. Miss Blanche Johnson as Mrs Darrah and Miss Ruth Blair as her child were deserving. And last but not least the house servant, Daisy was very cleverly handled by Miss Lucia Newland. The management of the play was left to Mr Thomas Jennings who is hard to beat when it comes to shifting scenes. Much of the credit for the success of the play is also due Mr J C Johnson who "made up" the entire company.

The door receipts at the small admission of 25 and 35 cents were $66. The play was given for the benefit of the Free Reading Room and there was a dept of 24.80 hanging in the room which has all been REVIVAL MEETINGS—Sunday morning Bev Marshall the evangelist from Oakland, Calif. opened a series of meetings at the Methodist church. He is a very interesting and fluent speaker and is drawing large congregations, both afternoon and evenings. The meetings are expected to continue several weeks.

SKATING—Sunday morning it was discovered that the ice had formed thick enough to skate on, consequently the old rusty skates were dug up and the ponds near town were soon a lively scene of merry skaters. The sport was kept up all day, although the ice became so weak about noon that occasionally some one would break through.

LECTURE—Mr Henry Landess of Co. C, O N G, who was in the Philippines during the Spanish-American war delivered a very interesting lecture on that country to the public school pupils, one day the past week. His lecture treated principally of the manners and customs of the natives and the geography of the country. Mr Landess is a very interesting talker and has his subject well in mind.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE—A local teachers' institute will be held here today and tomorrow. On this evening Dr Strong of the State University will deliver a lecture at the C P church. Tomorrow the exercises will be held at the school house during the day which will be very interesting. A number of very interesting papers by prominent teachers will be read, and on tomorrow evening State Superintendent Ackerman will deliver a lecture at the C P church. You are invited to attend.

SUDDEN DEATH—Mr Ruegger of the firm of Zinneker & Ruegger cheese makers died suddenly at his home 2 miles west of Creswell, Monday, Jan 27, at noon. Mr Ruegger had not been feeling very well and had sent to the doctor for medicine, which was furnished him promptly. After taking one dose of the medicine he felt much relieved and went out for a walk on the hillside. When he returned to the house he sat down on the sofa and expired without a moments warning. The deceased leaves a wife and family of seven children to mourn the untimely death of a kind and loving husband and an affectionate father.

FREIGHT WRECK—The south bound through freight was wrecked just a short distance above the divide, about 2 o'clock, Wednesday morning. A number of cars, some loaded with lumber, and some empty left the track and went into the ditch. The truck was badly torn up making it impossible for trains to pass. The overlands transferred and the south bound which passed through here at 2:06 a m came back about 11:40 a m and went through to Portland. The day trains also had to transfer and the 3 o'clock local passed here on its way back at 5:30 p m. A wrecking train went to the scene of the pileup in the morning.
