

ANOTHER.—Another freight occurred at Alea Thursday night. Four or five freight cars ran into the ditch and the track badly torn up. The day trains transfer.

ENGAGE IN BUSINESS.—C B Lint has purchased a large lot of men's clothing and furnishings from a Eugene merchant shipping them to Cottage Grove where he will open a new store—Guard.

WOODMEN RALLY.—The Woodmen world had a grand time in Eugene, Tuesday night, in honor of Consul Falkenburg who led them on that date. A large number of Woodmen from here in attendance.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—Last Sunday Anderson and Job performed a surgical operation upon Mrs Ivan in this city. At last reports she was getting along nicely and doctors think there are hopes permanent recovery.

ROOF IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr Albert is at work this week making repairs on the C P church. The shingles have been removed and new doors put in their stead. The improvements are commended and the church will present a fine appearance on the inside.

OPERATION.—Monday Dr Wall performed a very delicate operation upon Mrs Katie Medley. Mrs Medley has been in very poor health for some time and many thought she would never stand an operation, but she most successfully performed and the patient is getting along very well. Dr Harris of Eugene administered the ether.

OTHER WRECK.—The south bound freight was wrecked at Alea about seven miles south of this city last night. The south bound train was held at Cottage Grove about 7:30 Monday morning before the wreck was cleared until they could pass. Three freight cars left on track. The North bound over was also delayed on account of a slide near Leland.

COTTAGE GROVE BOY.—This week we handed as a copy of the Iowa News, of which Mr E F Lint formerly of this place is the owner. Mr Wood was born and raised in this community, graduated at the Cottage Grove high school with honors and afterward attended Portland University where he began his newspaper work, as editor of the school paper. His friends here will be glad to hear of his success and will join with the Leader in wishing the Iowa News well. Here is our shake!

LECTURE COURSE.—Prof A L Briggs arranged for a course of three lectures to be delivered in Cottage Grove in the interest of the public schools. President W C Hawley of Willamette University has been invited for February 15. His subject will be "Powers of the Speaker in the House of Representatives" On March 15, Prof R C French of the mouth training school will lecture on Europe. His lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views. W C Kentner of Salem, on April will deliver an address, the subject which is "A Knight of the 20th Century." The Admission for the course of lectures is 50 cents. Tickets are on sale at the New Era Drug Store.

WHO HAS AN OLDER ONE?—Mrs V Gowdy of this city, has an old watch that is indeed a curiosity. It is in Barran make and was made in London, England, in 1473. It is a rare case, open face, key wind. The number of the case and works are the same, which would evidently prove that there has never been new works put in the old case or a new case on the old works. The key to the watch was gold with a very fine all diamond set in it but Mrs Gowdy has lost it.

The watch has been in the Vanper family for 90 years, her first husband's grand father having carried it during the war of 1812 and up to about 4 years ago it had kept good time.

MARRIED.

FINERTY-M'KIBBEN.—At the home of the bride's parents in this city, Friday, Feb 12 1902, Mr Chas Finerty to Miss Minnie McKibben, Rev Eugene Zimmerman officiating. The contracting parties are both well and favorably known here and have a host of friends who will join with the Leader in congratulating. They will make Cottage Grove their home.

LUNDY-JONES.—At the home of the bride's brother Mr J Isaac Jones in this city, Wednesday Feb 12, 1902, Miss Laura E Jones to Mr W Emerson Lundy, Rev Eugene Zimmerman officiating. At 10 o'clock in the evening after the guests had arrived and been seated in the beautifully decorated parlor, Mrs W H Abrams was seated at the piano. She played as the wedding party entered the parlor sweet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The party were preceded by Master Frank Jones and the bride's little niece, Lelah Lewis carrying the ring and gloves on beautiful satin cushions. Then came the bride escorted by Miss Laura Spaulding as bridesmaid, followed by the groom and Mr C Huling, of Myrtle Point, who acted in the capacity of best man. The party assumed their position under the wedding arch where Rev Zimmerman, of the M E church by a most eloquent ceremony pronounced them man and wife. During the ceremony "Oh, Promise Me" was played very softly on the piano.

The bride looked very beautiful in white silk crepe de chine, over white taffeta and she carried in her left hand a beautiful bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid, who is one of Roseburg's most charming young ladies wore an attire of white silk organde and white chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom and best man were both attired in conventional black. After the ceremony and usual congratulations a superb lunch was served.

The bride is an accomplished lady and the daughter of Mr O H Jones of this place. She has for a number of years been engaged in newspaper work. Lately she has been connected with the Roseburg Plaindealer in the capacity of city editor. The groom is a prominent business man of Myrtle Point and is a pleasing gentleman.

Mr and Mrs Lundy were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. They departed on the 2:06 a m overland, for San Francisco Calif, where they will make their future home. Mr Lundy will engage in business in that city.

Oh me, Oh my—
How this boy did cry,
And all day long did pine.
He tried to get—
His pa to buy him
A great big valentine.

But now he laughs,
And is growing fat,
And is certainly feeling fine—
For his pa went down
To the New Era Drug Store
And got him his valentine.
