FRIDAY, - - - - MARCH 14 1902.

It is always proper for a gentleman to ask permission of a lady to walk home with her. It may save the expense of buying a new hat to replace one that has been smashed with an umbrella. Hum!

Gentlemen who liken the annexation of the Philippines to the annexation of the territory embraced in the Louisiana Purchase never read and understood the treaty ratifying the Louisiana Purchase.

Medford is to have a new paper, the Southern Oregonian. The publishers announce that it will be strictly independent. Now if it takes the cue from Portland namesake it will be any thing else than independent though the Portland publication lays great claim to that virtue.

The civil service commission announces that it is not opposed to government employes contributing to campaign funds, but is opposed to coercing the employes into contributing. This position will please the gentlemen whose duty it is to secure contributions. Of course contributions will be "voluntary."

There seems to be an unnecessary amount of toadyism going on in this country at present, and President Roosevelt seems to lead the band. Courtesy is proper to every foreign dignitary, but slobbering over them is disgusting, especially in a country where royalty does not exist by birth. No wonder the heads of millionaire daughters are turned when they have such examples set before them.

The Oregonian has a hard time in its "reform" business. Four years ago it could see nothing but ruin in the success of the Mitchell machine in this county, and now nothing can save the county from the bad place except the success of the Mitchell machine. The only virtue that has been added to that machine is the editor of the Oregonian, which is hardly enough to purify its dirty waters.

FELL DOWN BEFORE THE TRUSTS.

Vice-President Roosevelt has this to say about the trusts during his visit to Minneapolis in the early fall of 1891:

We shall find it necessary in the future to shackle cunning as in the past we have shackled force.

The vast individual and corporate fortunes, the vast combinations of capital which have marked the development of our industrial system, create new conditions and necessitate a change from the old attitude of the state and nation toward property.

President Roosevelt now refers to the individuals who have created trusts and combinations as "captains of industry." There has been a falling down and worship before the new idol

A great many business men look at advertising as an expense. They say it is just giving the newspaper man the money when we put an ad in his paper, and we can't afford to it: our expenses are already so big we can hardly meet them. Those are just the kind of men who kill a town, and the very fellows who will in time have their business advertised for them (by the sheriff.) If you want to know who are the up to date and progressive business men in a town just pick up the local newspaper and see who is advertising through its columns. Many will say I would advertise but I can't write an ad that is readable. To this class we wish to say that the Leader will assist you in preparing your ads and will give you a typographical display in its columns, second to no other paper in Lane Co. Our advertising columns contains the names of more business men than any other paper in Cottage Grove. Why? Because the up-to-date and progressive business men such as those whose names appear in our columns look at advertising as an investment, not an expense. They figure on $20 spent for advertising, bringing them so many customers, and they usually get them, by placing their ad with us.

Lockjaw From Cobwebs
Cobwebs put on a cut lately gave a woman lockjaw. Millions know that the best thing to put on a cut is Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the infallible healer of Wounds, Ulcers, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Burns, Scalds and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Curin's drug store.

For a long time the need of a hospital accommodations have been badly needed in Cottage Grove. Dr H C Schief realizing this fact has according fitted up a suit of five nice rooms in his residence. The Leader representative was shown through the apartments this week and we find everything to be first class in every respect. The rooms are all large and commodious, well provided for heating and ventilation; and as the floors are hard oiled and walls hard finished plastered the entire apartment can be made antiseptic on short notice. All these rooms are nicely furnished and such accommodations would be a credit to any hospital in the large cities. In connection is a fine bath so arranged that the heating may be done during the summer months by gas and thus dispense any unnecessary heat about the building.

Both the doctor and his wife are practicing physicians and are prepared to treat any and all diseases and administer the best of care to their patients. The doctor is deserving of much credit for his enterprise in fitting up these rooms at a big expense and people should bear in mind that first class hospital accommodations can be had at home. Persons who meet with accidents while working in the mines or logging camps can find a comfortable home at this place.

The Meneley Quarett, of Chicago who are to entertain Cottage Grove music lovers in the near future is not compared to any other company traveling for they are the only one of the kind in the country.

Of course they can sing what is called "classical" more commonly called "highfalutin" but they don't. They sing heart searching words to soul stirring music and level headed logic sit to catchy strains that makes the combination irresistible.

Their work is all of the highest moral character and their entertainments are often given under the auspices and for the benefit of Christian Endeavor societies as will be the case here.

Words fail us to describe Mr Eugene Knox in his incomparable impersonations. It is said there he has but one equal in his line in the United States. Certain it is that for clean, wholesome, laughter, provoking humor, comical character sketches as well as in pathetic scenes so vividly portrayed as to start the tears to falling, he leaves nothing to be desired but more of the same kind.

DO YOU READ THE LEADER?

Cottage Grove Or March 11, 1902
To the Editor of the Leader:—

I wish to say in regard to the article published in the last issue of the Nugget and in the behalf of myself that report has been groundlessly represented. It is an "outrageous falsehood," and I feel grossly insulted by such a "baseless" and unaccountable "lie." I have been wrongly accused and I defy the accuser to prove said offence. I honestly say that I remain "guiltless" of said "offence"

Very Respectfully

On Friday night, Mrs Mary E. Teats addressed a vast audience, who listened with rapt attention to the close of the soul stirring address. Sunday night, the tabernacle was crowded to its utmost capacity, and people were turned away by the scores, not being able to obtain admission, she handled the delicate subject of Purity without wounding the sensibilities of the most refined. The Evangelist is of the Holy Spirit and of her subject. Her earnestness lucidity of expression and a matchless oratory, enables her to make a profound impression. This community is awakened as never before on the subject of Purity.—REV CHESSMAN, Central City Nebraska.
