Robbed a Sick Man. doubtedly the meanest man on is in Cottage Grove. There be some hopes for a man who take his revolver and "hold up" fellow man on the highway and him of his money. It takes n with nerve and courage to nit a deed of that kind, but the who would go through a sick s pockets and take his belong-is to be classed with the man would "steal the coin off of his mother's eyes."

st such a case occurred in this this week. Dr E T Anderson been quite sick for some time last Saturday morning the K of dge, of which the doctor is a ber, decided to move him from oom in Willson's Lodging House office, when it was discovered his pants pockets had been and that a purse containing $12.50 had been taken.

Leader reporter interviewed

Anderson and we learn that he a clue to the robbery and that court evidence will soon be col- to warrant an arrest.

The Animal Parade.
ar people were afforded amusement last Friday afternoon by the blishments had constructed two ant and giraffe to represent their active business houses and gave rade in the afternoon. Hundreds ople thronged the streets to see the sight and they were ded much amusement by the l boys and others who took part.

Easter Sunday Services

What promises to be one of the best entertainments ever rendered in Cottage Grove, is being prepared for Easter Sunday at the C P church.

A splendid chorus of over 25 voices with organ and cornet accompaniment will furnish excellent music.

There will be a number of recitations, duets, and solos rendered.

Plenty of time has been taken in preparing the program and every thing promises to move along smoothly so that there will not be any long and tiresome waits between numbers on the program. The songs by the children are very fine.

Great pains have been taken in the training of the little tots and their efforts are sure to please.

Purchased an Interest

This week Mrs S E Wynne purchased the interest of Mr V D White in the hardware business with her son H F Wynne. Hereafter the business will be conducted under the firm name of Wynne Hardware Co, and Mr A A Wynne will represent his mother in the business.

The date of primaries was set for March 29 and the County Convention for April 5. More interest was manifested in the committee meeting than is usual and a large and enthusiastic convention is assured. No candidates appeared and the total absence of the appearance of a ready made-up slate augers well for the convention. This is as it should be.

Let the office seek the man. When that becomes the rule in politics we will have better officers and officers of the people's choosing and not of cliques and bosses.
