New Addition.
 E Ostrander the barber is having an addition built to the rear of his shop. He will make some needed improvements about the place and add another chair. Mr Ostrander is a rustler and is deserving of the success he is meeting with in business.

Colar Bone Broken.

A Fine Colt.
 On election day Felix Currin was in town with one of his fine colts. The animal is less than one year old and tips the scales at 1025 lbs. Mr Currin is one of our progressive and successful farmers and resides on Row River about 5 miles from town. He takes great pride in his fine horses and colts.

At the Sash and Door Factory.
 Mr Abrams who recently purchased the sash and door factory at Cottage Grove, Monday morning. Mr J I Jones has been secured as foreman. Mr James Fox who has held a position in the mill ever since it has been in operation here is still on the force. Mr Abrams expects to have a dry kiln soon and will endeavor to keep a large supply of lumber, sash and door etc. on hand.

The C M A Band Concert.
 The last Saturday evening the C M A Band gave their second concert at the very small house. A fine program was rendered and those who attended missed a rare musical treat. Miss Daisy Gilbert of Cottage Grove sang "Ave Marias," mezzo solo in E by H Millard and in response to a hearty encore rendered "The Song of the Lark" by Sir William Davenant. Miss Gilbert is a very pretty singer and her appearance on the stage at Cottage Grove is always greeted with applause. Mr Chas Cochran directed the "Centinial Poolks" by Ed. Cornet solo and responded with an encore with Auld Lang Syne in the most pleasing manner. The quartette by Wallace, Wallace, Lewis and Cochran, "The Scout" was well rendered. Miss Daisy Gilbert of Eugene, rendered a solo piano solo which was greatly appreciated. The selections by the band were good, well rendered and shows the marks of fine training.

It is to be regretted very much that such a small audience was present. Everybody wants a band but they don't seem to want to help it up. The C M A boys are making a strenuous effort to maintain organization and keep Mr Cochran with them as instructor and are giving of a hearty support from the citizens.

Base Ball Suits.
 The uniforms for the Cottage Grove Base Ball Team arrived Thursday morning from Portland. They are dark gray and were made by Charles Cooper, military and civilian tailor at Portland at a cost of $57. The boys have selected yellow and purple for their colors, which will be greatly in evidence at Salem Sunday.

Excursion to Salem.
 Next Sunday will be the day for the 11th annual Conductors excursion to Salem. The train will start from Cottage Grove, at 6:30 a m and arrive at Salem at 10 o'clock. The Cottage Grove base ball team will play the "Fidelities" of East Portland at the fair grounds on that day. This event will attract many people from this end of the county. It is estimated that about 400 people will go from Cottage Grove.

Prohibition Alliance Meeting.
 Permanent organization of the local Alliance will be completed at the meeting next Tuesday evening at the C P Church and a program will be rendered as following:

Piano Recital.
 Mrs L D Beck's piano recital at the Opera house Wednesday evening was largely attended and a splendid program was rendered. Mrs Beck has a class of 23 music pupils and each one took a part in the program. Lack of space forbids a personal mention of all the numbers, but the classical selections by the advanced pupils, Misses Ermine Veatch, Lillie and Celia Lurch, Greta Bristow, Cleo Lewis and Ethel Downing were superb. Each and every one in the class acquitted themselves very creditably indeed. Mrs Beck's opening and closing numbers were splendid, well executed and well selected. The opening address by Mayor B R Job was to the point and very ably delivered. The pantomimes were all good. "Mother Goose Melodies" motion song, by twenty little girls received a hearty encore.

Mrs Beck is to be congratulated upon the meritorious entertainment rendered. Her ability as a teacher of the piano forte is rarely excelled.

Three Cent-a-Mile Rate.
 From now on local travel will be heavier on the Southern Pacific Co's lines, because of the reduction in the fare from 4 cents to 3 cent per mile.

President Harriman's action in reducing the rate of fare on the company's lines in Oregon meets with the hearty approbation of all and is something that has long been wished for.

For the benefit of the public the Leader has compiled a table of fares from Cottage Grove to all stations inside the county, and principal points outside giving both the old and new rates for comparison as follows:
