

Sale $2.50 From This Office.

Last Saturday evening a low down good-for-nothing scamp who has been laying around the saloons for the past two weeks and who is a printer by trade, entered the Lumber office during the absence of the proprietors and appropriated $2.50 which was in a ladies pocket-book that had been left in the office to his own use. Miss Wooley met him leaving the office door on her return and when the money was missed at once reported the matter to Marshal Underwood who placed the party under arrest. His person was searched but no money could be found, however later in the evening he was seen to have several half-dollars. The marshal ordered him to leave town which he did.

Only A Horse.

Train No 15, the south bound overland due in the Grove at 2:06 was delayed about 30 minutes Sunday night on account of a queer incident with a horse. Just before rounding the curve between Sarginaw and the Grove, the alert engineer spied a loose horse running along the road about 150 yards ahead of the train, just before reaching the long trestle north of the bridge, the horse thought that he would try the track a while, and started to cross the trestle, when about midway across, his feet slipped through leaving his body direct between the rails and protruding above the trestle. The engineer being on a sharp lookout brought his train to a standstill before any damage was done. If it had not been for the watchful eye of the engineer, it might of resulted in a very disastrous wreck. Awakening a farmer that lives near by they procured about 60 yards of rope and set at work to release the badly frightened animal, after about 20 minutes of hard labor, they succeeded in removing the animal without any injuries, with the exception of a few slight bruises on the legs. And then the train proceeded on to its destination. Mr Sam Veatch, the well known and worthy conductor had charge of the train.

The boys here should be ready to go down and carry back all the honors with them. Let the good work go on. A meeting should be called and the team reorganized.

Laundry Hints.

A little salt added to the water in which green, blue or black prints are rinsed is useful to set the color. If red, green or pink use a little vinegar; if lilac add a little ammonia. For figured lawns of different color or gull should be used. It sets, brightens and will not injure any color. Always turn dresses of print, lawn, etc, before drying them and bring in the moment they are dry. Never put blankets or blankets in hot water. Make a good soda of tepid water and the best soap, wash gently, lifting and squeezing the flannel and rinse in water of same temperature. Do not hang out doors to dry when the air is cold. To remove mildew, an application of a paste of soft soap and chalk is good. If the stains is not too bad lemon juice and buttermilk is used with effect.—The Homestead.
