Long & Bingham's new saw mill has made a few short runs and the frame work of the mill is now completed and as soon as the material for the roofing is sawed the roof will be put on. The mill is a dandy and the gentlemen are justly proud of it.

Mr R W Newland, one of our most prominent business men, has leased the Rankin block opposite the Guard office in Eugene, and intends to soon open up a large general merchandise store. Mr Newland will continue to run his store at this place also and hence we will not lose the gentleman entirely as he will be compelled to at least partly divide his time with us and our sister city. Mr Newland is a veteran in the merchandise business and success will continue to follow him.

Mr and Mrs J W Glass left Thursday, for Brownsville, where they will reside during the coming winter. Mr Glass has been among our most prominent business men for the past two years and has made many substantial friends here who are sorry to lose them as neighbors even temporarily. Mr Glass has considerable business interests in Brownsville and also at the Blue river mines which demands his attention for the present. They have just finished their elegant new residence on First street and no doubt regret to have to move away so soon.

Mr Art Young returned home last Friday, from the East, accompanied by his accomplished bride. Although its a little late in the day we extend them our hearty congratulations and hope Art will now be content to remain in the Grove for a while. Tuesday evening a host of his young friends succeeded in locating them for the first time since their arrival and to the music of the usual western orchestra of tin pans, cow bells, and other harmonious instruments proceeded to give them a first class Oregonian serenade. It is rumored that the happy young couple were at first so badly frightened that they sought concealment behind a closed and locked closet door, and there abided until the last sweet strains of the music had died away. They did well however in giving the serenaders the slip for so long.

Elastic Money

Hot weather makes the railroad irons stretch and the telegraph wires grow sager. If you've any money to spend, you'll find when you get Newlands that it has stretched fully ten per cent, so that a dollar will buy more than a dollars worth.

Some Very Interesting Prices

We have made special prices on Shirtwaists in white and colors, summer dress goods, all remnant goods and we are putting out about two hundred pairs of shoes of all sizes and kinds at greatly reduced prices. These are good serviceable shoes. They are a little off as to style and we have to make room for new goods. A pair of this lot will be sold for 50c a pair. You'll find a price shrinkage in every other part of the store, too.
