In loving memory of Leona Francis, daughter of Mr and Mrs T J Calloway who died at her home near Eugene Oct 6 of abcess aged 6 yr and 3 days.

"There's a vacant place in the house-hold
And an empty chair and bed.
And a sweet loving face is missing.
For dear little Leona is dead.

There's a vacant place at the table
And the eyes so bright and fair
And the form so loved and cherished Is missed at the evening prayer.

There's a vacant place at the window
And a winning voice is gone
And the laugh, the smile and the footstep
And the bird like warbling down.

There's a vacant place in the house-hold
But far in the realms above Little Leona, with a choir of angels Is warbling the Savior's love.

There's a vacant place in the household
There's a vacant place up there A place by the side of our darling
"And a crown of glory to wear

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. Benson Drug Store.
