DIED.

Oct 31, Mrs S G Lockwood, age 55 years.

Death was due to dropsy and heart trouble and though not unexpected by her many friends was a terrible shock as the end was not expected so suddenly.

Mrs Lockwood was one of the best known and most universally loved ladies in this neighborhood. None knew her but to love her. A sweet sunny disposition, her hand was ever open to the poor or needy. Her brother, I W Petrie, passed through her room at midnight and asked her how she was resting. She replied in her ever cheerful manner that she was very comfortable and chatted a few moments evidently in the best of spirits, but the dark messenger entered before dawn and took her life so quietly that no one was aware of his presence.

Besides her husband, S G Lockwood, she leaves her father and mother, Mr and Mrs J D Petrie, and seven children, Watkin P of Victoria B. C., Ernest C., of Bohemia, Gertrude, Mildred, Flossie, Stanley and Ursula all of Lorane, three brothers E C Petrie, of Rome Wis., I W Petrie, of Lorane, and Dr H H Petrie, of Cottage Grove. Her friends are numbered legion.

Funeral services were conducted by Capt Jno O'Brien assisted by Suialaw Grange No 54. She was laid to rest in the I O O F cemetery. A remarkable coincidence was that her death occurred on her 37 wedding anniversary.

MORGAN—At her home in this city, Saturday morning, Nov 1st, Mrs Dell Morgan, aged 22 yrs.

Mrs Morgan has only lived among our people a little over one year but her gentleness and kindly disposition has served to endear her to the hearts of all who knew her and during the family's brief stay has made many friends who feel that they have sustained a personal loss. Mr and Mrs Morgan has only been married about thirteen months and the entire community sympathizes with him in his sad bereavement.
