ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
 Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1907.
 Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
 About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
 I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
 I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
 Very truly yours,
 F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
 Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

JOHNNY CANUCK IN WAR.

The Canadian Soldier in Africa Exhibited Some Boer Traits.
 To South Africa Great Britain sent Tommy Atkins, Australia forwarded Tommy Cornstalk and Canada dispatched Johnny Canuck. Much has been said regarding the merits of the fighting material raised by the empire and nothing save praise has come our way. We are, therefore, not in search of compliments, nor do we wish to draw any invidious distinctions. That Canada did its duty and did it well is sufficient for the average Canadian. In other quarters, however, the part taken in the war by Johnny Canuck and other Britons is still a subject of comment.

A story of the war, written by an Australian, Corporal Adams, gives the impression of a man in the ranks. The writer, who speaks highly of the work of the Australians, concedes that the empire produced two kinds of soldiers that were even better. The best, in his judgment, were the Canadians, and next came the New Zealanders. Of the Canadians Mr. Adams speaks in this wise: "Their dashing actions, cool ferocity, quiet 'slimness' and guileless 'verneukery' of the Boers themselves—and their pure hard cheek—rendered them famous and fascinating wherever they went." As an illustration of the "verneukery" of the Canadians, an incident in which they trapped the tricky zaps, or Johannesburg police, by adopting the Boer tactics, is cited.

The Canadians held a strong position on the edge of a ridge which the zaps were trying to capture. After a desultory engagement the Canadians rose and ostentatiously retired. They galloped past a gap in the ridge, through which the Boers could see them in full retreat, but under cover of the hill they returned to their old positions, where they silently awaited the pursuing Boers. It was not often that the countrymen of slippery Dewet were caught by such a ruse, says the Toronto Mail and Empire, but we are informed that in this instance it was entirely successful. The Boers advanced until at 200 yards the Canadians opened a deadly and effective fire, before which the supposed victors retired with heavy loss and in havoc. Thus they were, in the vernacular of the veldt, "verneuked" by the Canadians, for whom, as they have subsequently testified, they acquired a wholesome dread.

ABOUT THE TIPPING EVIL.

Americans Have Increased Cost of Travel in Orient.
 "Wherever Americans have traveled in the Orient they seem to have exerted a bad influence over the natives in the way of raising prices," said Mr. Hofel, as he boarded the dongkong Maru just prior to her sailing for San Francisco. "Go to India, Singapore, Hongkong, Manila and Japanese cities and you will find that the Americans have turned things topsy-turvy."
 Mr. Hofel is returning to St. Louis after a year in the Orient. His one complaint is the manner in which American tourists have caused prices to soar skyward. The fault with Americans is that wherever they go they attempt to "show off" and their habit of tipping far in excess of benefits received has increased even that bane of traveling. Europeans generally do not exceed a tip of one-tenth of their bill in cafes and other places of service. On the other hand, Americans tip entirely out of all proportion to the cost of things received. When an American goes into a cafe and his bill amounts to 50 or 75 cents in American money, he tells the waiter to keep the change of a dollar. People following in the wake of these extravagant tipsters usually find out to their sorrow that they must pay equally well or put up with poor service.

The ricksha runners even have made up their minds that when an American appears among them he must be unletted. They raise the price and then expect tips as well. In Manila the cocheros, instead of being the obsequious Jehus of the old Spanish days, have now become independent beings, and they feel that they will not get more than the regulation fare, refuse to accept a passenger on the ground that they are engaged.
 "To say that one is an American," said Mr. Hofel, according to the Honolulu Advertiser, "is to announce that you are to stand and be robbed in broad daylight. The servile people which we used to know in the Orient are not so now in the case of Americans. European travelers, however, escape from this condition of affairs, and they are treated with as much respect as formerly."

Maxims of Tammany.

Tammany lived in the seventeenth century. He was a native of Delaware, but settled on the banks of the Ohio River. He was chief sachem of his tribe, and his reign was discreet and peaceful. His great maxim was: "Unite. In peace unite for peaceful happiness; in war, unite for mutual defense."

Extensive Hilarity.

"Did he smile when you offered him the chance?"
 "Smile? Why he was an entire farce-comedy."—New York Times.

Wanted a Year's Guaranty.
 "It's almost impossible, dear, to lease a house for a shorter term than one year, nowadays," he said, "so, to protect myself, I must ask you—"
 "Ask me what?" interrupted his bride-to-be.
 "To agree not to seek a divorce until the expiration of the first year's lease."—Catholic Standard.

Quite Consistent.
 Miss Mainchantz—I suppose you've heard of my engagement to Mr. Jenks?
 Miss Ascott—Yes, and I confess I was surprised. You told me once that you wouldn't marry him for a million dollars.
 Miss Mainchantz—I know, dear, but I discovered later that he had two millions.

Their Only Hope.
 "I believe," said Mrs. Olden, sharply, "that there should be a law against bachelors."
 "Nonsense!" exclaimed Peppery; "why, the only hope of some women are the bachelors, for the widowers are too particular."—Philadelphia Record.

How the Fall Has Fallen.
 Patience—I understand Mr. and Mrs. Styles are just going away now for their vacation.
 Patrice—Yes; they remind one of Adam and Eve when they were leaving the garden of Eden, don't they?
 "What an idea?"
 "Well, you see, they, too, are going away for the fall."—Yonkers Statesman.

For forty year's Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured coughs and colds. At druggists. Price 25 cents.

One Explanation.
 Judge—Winters are not so cold as they used to be.
 Fudge—Oh, yes, they are. Only now chronic flars have such a variety of things, like auto, records, etc., to lie about, that they can't devote so much attention to the weather any more.—Baltimore Herald.

Exactly Alike.
 First Rooter (shivering on bleachers)—Why is a football "fan" like one of the palm-leaf varieties?
 Second Rooter—"Cause it never shuts up."—New York Times.

Mother

"My mother was troubled with consumption for many years. At last she was given up to die. Then she tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was speedily cured."
 D. P. Jolly, Avoca, N. Y.

No matter how hard your cough or how long you have had it, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best thing you can take. It's too risky to wait until you have consumption. If you are coughing today, get a bottle of Cherry Pectoral at once.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing.
 J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Doting Dotage.
 Miss De Spite—I just dot of George, I understand he threw you over.
 Miss De Sweet—Yes; in dotage one is liable to do almost anything.

Tough On Him.
 "Miss Strong is exceedingly masculine, isn't she?" remarked Miss Ascum.
 "Most atrociously so," remarked young Mr. Sissy, with some heat.
 "You seem to speak from experience?"
 "Yaas, I do. She got into the elevator with me in the Skyscraper building one day and when she saw me she deliberately removed her hat and held it in her hand until I got off."

Didn't Wait to Hear.
 Hewitt—Gruett says that you are afraid of him.
 Jewett—Afraid of him! Why, it was only yesterday that I called him everything that I could think of.
 Hewitt—What did he say?
 Jewett—I came away from the telephone as soon as I said all I had to say.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
