It is said a man who squeezes a dollar never squeezes his wife. In looking over our accounts we note that some awful good women we know are not getting the pressure they deserve.

Senator Galloway, of Yamhill county, in nominating C E S Wood for United States senator this morning said that Wood had received the Democratic nomination in the convention for senator and the Democratic vote at the polls, and the people expected the Democrats in the legislature to vote for him, which they would do to the end.

The people expected the Republican members of the legislature to vote for the Republican nominee for Senator, but only God knew what to expect from a Republican majority.

The Democrats voted solid for Wood in both House and Senate.

GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN'S POLICY.

To the Portland Telegram Governor Chamberlain, on the day of his inauguration, gave the following as a policy he will pursue while chief executive of the state:

"My ambition is to give an honest and an economical administration of the affairs of state; protection of the public lands and safeguarding the funds which have been realized therefrom, for the support of schools and colleges. I do not mean to say that the preceding administration has not been economical or well managed; I simply state what is to be my policy.

"I am going into office not as a partisan, with the view of building up a machine in the interest of anybody, but as a servant, to do the will of the people and faithfully execute the laws as I construe them.

"My relations with the secretary of state and state treasurer are of the pleasantest character, and I have no doubt that they will continue to be during my whole term. If we disagree it will be on questions of policy rather than on account of diverging political views."

Care of Thanks.

To those who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and in the death of our beloved husband, son brother and who gave so freely of loving sympathy in our hours of sorrowing, we extend our sincere thanks.

The Salem Statesman, a staunch republican paper, sounds a warning to the legislators of its party which might be well for them to heed. It says:

The republican party of Oregon is approaching the most serious period in its history. Two years ago the representatives of that party put into the form of law the principle of the election of United States senator by direct vote of the people. It was acted upon by nearly 78,000 men of Oregon at the polls last June. Now it is proposed to disregard this vote; in effect to say the people of Oregon do not know what they want; to slap them in the face because the man receiving the highest number of votes—45,000 votes—is not pleasing to a few republican bosses, ambitious themselves and self-keeping. It is not the political fortunes of Mr Geer at stake. It is a principle that is at stake, and a principle dear to the hearts of the people as they indicate their votes. It is not a proposition solely to slap in the face 45,000 republicans of Oregon, who vote for Mr Geer. It is a proposition as well to slap in the face 33,000 democrats who cast their ballots for Mr Wood. It is a dangerous proposition and far-reaching. Do not forget that. The ghost of these 78,000 voters will not down. It will pursue the men making this proposition like a Nemesis, not this year and the next only, but for years to come. Better have a care gentlemen.

The Commoner, Mr Bryan's paper, will be especially interesting and instructive during the present session of congress. The action of this congress will probably determine the issues upon which the next presidential campaign will be fought. The Commoner proposes to carry on a campaign of education and organization to the end that democratic principles may triumph.

In addition to the editorial department, which receives Mr Bryan's personal attention, The Commoner contains a Current Topic Department, The Home department, Mr Maupin's—Whether Common or Not—and other good features, any of which is well worth the subscription price of the paper.

The Commoner as a whole is clean, entertaining and instructive, and its rapid increase in circulation, now amounting to 140,000, is proof of the paper's strength and influence. We have made arrangements with Mr Bryan whereby The Commoner can be supplied with THE LEADER, both papers for one year for $2.00. This offer applies both to new and renewal subscribers if taken advantage of during the month of January. All orders should be sent in to this office.

Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. The Dorf's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original The Dorf's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morven, Ark., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend The Dorf's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.
