ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
 by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.
 Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
 About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
 I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
 I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
 Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
 Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

WANTED THE CHEST AND GOT IT.

Trials of a Detroit Man Who Thought He'd Cut His Wisdom Teeth.

"I thought I had cut my wisdom teeth a good many years ago," said a Detroitier the other day, "but a little thing happened in Chicago the last week to make me doubt it. In wandering about I entered an auction-room on State street, while some 'family effects,' as the auctioneer termed them, were being sold. There was one old chest which caught my eye, as it appeared to be of ancient make, and must have knocked about a good bit. I looked into it to find a lot of deeds and bonds, and my curiosity was at once aroused. Who could tell what wealth that old chest might hold. If nothing more, there must be deeds to at least 1,000 acres of land in California. I was sawing wood and saying nothing, but expecting to bid on that trunk, when a man beckoned me aside and said:

"I hope you won't bid against me on that chest. The family owed me a debt of $90, and perhaps the contents will help me to get even."

"I didn't say whether I would or not, and he continued:

"If you'll stand clear and let me bid it in I'll make you a present of $25 in cash."

"That was enough for me," continued the story teller with a long-drawn sigh. "I shook the man off and started the bidding at $5. He looked reproachfully at me and went a dollar better. We had the bidding all to ourselves and the auctioneer sized me up as a man who never let go of a good thing and encouraged me from time to time. I thought I had the other fellow downed several times, but he came back at me, and the result was that the chest was knocked down to me for $85. I hired a cab and had it driven to my hotel with me and I lost no time in going through it."

"And the deeds and bonds?" was asked.

"Just 10 pounds altogether, and worth a cent a pound! It was a 'plant,' of course. They were looking for a sucker, and they found one."

"But you—you—"

"Oh, you try to make out that I'm not the biggest ass in the world, but if you'll take the trouble to go up to my house my wife will soon convince you that I lead the procession. Eighty-five of the long green, and my eyes were wide open all the time!"—Detroit Free Press.

A WOMAN'S CURE FOR DIVORCE.

Advocates Plan Separation Matter of Choice.

Dr. Frances Dickinson, president of the Social Economics Club of Chicago, has found, or professes to have found, a solution for the divorce evil. It is an interesting solution, but one which we believe few persons can accept.

 "When people marry," says this twentieth century sage, "they should have two contracts—one to satisfy the demands of the church, and the other a contract just among themselves. In it each should agree to release the other whenever called upon to do so."

By some process of involved thinking Dr. Dickinson argues that such a contract would have the tendency to make each of the parties to the marriage contract more desirous of retaining the other's affections. "There would be," she adds, "less carelessness, less taking things for granted and less indifference in dress and manner among married folk."

Dr. Dickinson is unmarried, and thus finds it as easy to solve problems for other people as the beggar does to advise the millionaire how to spend his money or the childless person to direct parents how to rear their children. She would have people enter into a contract with the church, with a mental reservation attached—the letter of the law without its spirit. The private agreement, according to her, would be in certain contingencies superior to the public contract—the latter for show, the former for use. Such a scheme would make a hollow mockery out of the most sacred relations of life and place the married state on a level with the conditions which prevail among savages. Divorce, as it is, is too easy. To render the married state less binding is to invite disaster to the home and the state.—Utica Globe.

A Cough

"I have made a most thorough trial of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and am prepared to say that for all diseases of the lungs it never disappoints."
 J. Early Finley, Ironton, O.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral won't cure rheumatism; we never said it would. It won't cure dyspepsia; we never claimed it. But it will cure coughs and colds of all kinds. We first said this sixty years ago; we've been saying it ever since.
