

CAUGHT BY THE GRIP. RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

Congressman Geo. H. White's Case. A Noted Sculptress Cured.

The world of medicine recognizes Grip as epidemic Catarrh.—Medical Talk.

La grippe is epidemic catarrh. It spares no class or nationality. The cultured and the ignorant, the aristocrat and the pauper, the masses and the classes, are alike subject to la grippe. None are exempt—all are liable.

Have you the grip? Or, rather, has the grip got you? Grip is well named. The original French term, la grippe, has been shortened by the busy American to read "grip." Without intending to do so a new word has been coined that exactly describes the case. As if some hideous giant with awful grip had clutched us in its fatal clasp. Men, women, children, whole towns and cities are caught in the baneful grip of a terrible monster.

Peruna for Grip.
Mrs. Theophile Schmitt, wife of the Ex-Secretary of the German consulate, writes as follows:
"I suffered this winter with a severe attack of la grippe. After using three bottles of Peruna I found the grip had disappeared."—Mrs. T. Schmitt.
Mrs. Celeste Covell writes from 219 N. avenue, Aurora, Ill.:
"Only those who have suffered with la grippe and been cured can appreciate how grateful I feel that such a splendid medicine as Peruna has been placed at the door of every suffering person."—Mrs. C. Covell.

Noted Sculptress Cured of Grip.
Mrs. M. C. Cooper, of the Royal Academy of Arts, of London, England, now residing in Washington, D. C., is one of the greatest living sculptors and painters of the world. She says:
"I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh and la grippe. I have suffered for months, and after the use of one bottle of Peruna I am entirely well."—Mrs. M. C. Cooper.

D. L. Wallace, a charter member of the International Barbers' Union, writes from 15 Western avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.:

"Following a severe attack of la grippe I seemed to be affected badly all over.

"One of my customers who was greatly helped by Peruna advised me to try it, and I procured a bottle the same day. Now my head is clear, my nerves are steady, I enjoy food and rest well. Peruna has been worth a dollar a dose to me."—D. L. Wallace.

Lieutenant Clarice Hunt, of the Salt Lake City barracks of the Salvation Army, writes from Ogden, Utah:

"Two months ago I was suffering with so severe a cold that I could hardly speak.

"Our captain advised me to try Peruna and procured a bottle for me, and truly it worked wonders. Within two weeks I was entirely well."—Clarice Hunt.

Congressman White's Letter.

Tarboro, N. C.
Gentlemen—I am more than satisfied with Peruna and find it to be an excellent remedy for the Grip and catarrh. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it as an excellent remedy."—George H. White, Member of Congress.

Mrs. T. W. Collins, treasurer Independent Order Good Templars, of Everett, Wash., writes:

"After having a severe attack of la grippe I continued in a feeble condition even after the doctors called me cured. My blood seemed poisoned. Peruna cured me."—Mrs. T. W. Collins.
Satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Congestion in British City.
Birmingham, England, has upward of 40,000 back-to-back houses and 6,000 courts, which are entered by tunnels from the street, states the city's medical officer.

Memory Freaks.
It is instanced as one of the curiosities of the memory that people who know long pieces of verse by heart frequently cannot remember their telephone number.

Good Profit on Monopoly
Last year the French government made a profit of over $70,000,000 on its monopoly of the sale of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and matches.

Prof. Dolbear's Career.
Prof. A. E. Dolbear of Tufts college, has just celebrated his sixty-fifth birthday. For over twenty-eight years he has been a professor at Tufts. He was born in the same house in which Benedict Arnold was born.

Electrical Manufacturing Widespread.
While electrical manufacturing is shown to be chiefly concentrated in some six Eastern and two Middle states, the industry is fairly widespread, its data being furnished by no fewer than nineteen states.

HEADACHE

"Both my wife and myself have been using CASCARETS and they are the best medicine we have ever had in the house. Last week my wife was frantic with headache for two days, she tried some of your CASCARETS, and they relieved the pain in her head almost immediately. We both recommend Cascarets."

"Miss Ginx," began young Gaboy, "—or may I call you Ginevra—"
"Call me what you like," she said, with a bright smile.
"Well, I like Gin," he whispered.
And then he realized, as she turned her phiz from him, that he had blundered.—Chicago Tribune.

Nature Improved.
That looks like an extravagant statement, but we believe you will agree with us that it can be done after you have tried in your home a can of Monopole peaches, or pears or cherries or other fruits. Monopole fruits all retain their natural flavor and are packed where grown in the heaviest and sweetest of syrups. If you want to be convinced that all we say of them is true, buy a can from your dealer. Most dealers carry Monopole. Wadhams & Kerr Bros., Monopole grocers, Portland.

Salt.
Salt is one of the greatest of natural remedies and antiseptics. A weak solution—an even tablespoonful in a glass of water, cold or hot—is excellent for indigestion. A solution of about the same strength will often relieve a cold in the head if snuffed up through the nose.

PROGRESSIVE DENTISTS.
Wise Brothers Always on the Alert to Have the Latest in Dental Science.

Dr. Thomas P. Wise, junior member of the firm of Wise Bros., has been in the East for the purpose of informing himself regarding the latest discoveries in dental science, and has made himself familiar with all details of the most up-to-date methods. He has visited the factories of dental goods and the laboratories of advanced practitioners. It has been his purpose to become familiar with all that is best in American dentistry, which is the recognized standard of the world. Wise Bros. realize that new discoveries are constantly being made in dentistry, and, in order to give their patrons the best attention they could receive anywhere in the world, they have adopted the policy of sending a member of the firm East each year. Moral: Go to Wise Bros., dentists, failing building, Portland, Oregon, for the best dental work.

Creaking Hinges.
These can be quickly cured by dropping a little oil on the hinges, or a tiny bit of vaseline does equally well. Black lead is another excellent remedy, and places that cannot be got at with an ordinary brush can generally be reached by a black lead pencil.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Might Not Bother Him.
"Well," said the cheerful wife, who thought she had a soprano voice. "If the worst comes to the worst I could keep the wolf from the door by singing."
"I don't doubt that would do it," replied her pessimistic husband, "but suppose the wolf should be deaf?"—Philadelphia Press.

Piso's Cure is a good cough medicine. It has cured coughs and colds for forty years. At druggists, 25 cents.

The Marriage Record.
"Why did you decide upon such a sudden marriage?"
"Well, you see, Arthur got one of those French automobiles, and I got to thinking that a husband in the harness might be worth a good deal more than a lover in the wreck."—Chicago Record-Herald.

$100 REWARD $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address

Standing Up for His Rights.
"Get out of here," growled the larvae in the cheese rind as the weevil sought to make an entrance.
"But why," protested the weevil, "There is plenty of room for both."
"But where's your skipper's license?" asked the larvae haughtily.—Judges.

"Were you ever up before me?" asked a magistrate. "Shure, I don't know, yer anner. What time does yer anner get up?"

Pat—An' so yez shtruck fer shorter hours? Mike—Yis. We want each wan to consist av for-ty minutes, be-gorry!—Puck.

"Didn't you hear the doorbell, Bridget?" "Yes, mum." "Well, why didn't you answer it?" "I did answer it; I said 'Oh, fudge!' mum."

Mistress—Can you draw this fowl, Bridget? Bridget (who has been brought up on prattles and buttermilk)—No, mum! Oi can't write, let alone draw!

Stella—I came near missing a proposal last night. Bella—You did? Stella—Yes. He got down on his knees, and I thought he was merely looking for a ping-pong ball.—Harper's Bazar.

Magistrate—Rastus, I see you are here again. I believe you have been tried and convicted seven times for stealing. Rastus—Yes, Judge, it seems to be nuttin' but trials and temptations wid me in dis life.

"Mamma," cried little Willie from the bathroom, "please get me another sponge." "Why, what's the matter with the one you have?" asked the mother. "It's full of holes, and leaks awfully," was the reply.

Borem—"I'm something of a mind-reader." Miss Hittem—"Indeed!" Borem—"Yes; I can usually tell at a glance what a person thinks of me." Miss Hittem—"Wonderful! But don't you find it awfully embarrassing?"

Tommy has been making a study of etiquette. When his little sister was opening the door to leave the nursery he pulled her back by the hair and elbowed her out of the way. "Don't you know, you ignorant little thing," he said, indignantly, "that it's a gentleman's place to open the door for a lady?"

Miss Mug—I don't understand how your sister failed to find me at the station. You said you would describe me to her. Infatuated Lover (who sees a good deal more in Miss Mug than other folks can)—Yes, I told her to look for a beautiful girl, with the face of a Madonna and the form of a sylph. It's queer she missed you.

ing among the rocks back of the hotel, "here is 'Lover's Lane.' Let's go through." "That deep place there, where it is so dark, with the steep, rocky sides?" "Yes. Come on." "I'm afraid you would kiss me if we were down there alone together." "No, honest!" "Well then we may as well remain up here."

Mrs. Winks—A peddler was here today, and I got the greatest bargain—a whole pound of insect powder for only ten cents. It looks just like dirt, but it's awfully effective, I tried it. Mr. Winks—Worked, eh? Mrs. Winks—Yes, indeed. The peddler said I should put a little in water and apply it boiling hot, and I did, and it killed every insect it touched.—New York Weekly.

Johnny (who is jealous of mamma)—"Mamma likes me better than she does you!" Evelyn (who enjoys teasing)—"Why, no, Johnny, of course she loves Betty and me best! Just think, she was our mother long before she was yours!" Johnny (scornfully)—"Huh, what of that? You are nothing but a sample copy, anyhow! And Betty's only a trial subscription! But I'm the real thing!"—Life.

"Have you seen Mrs. Connyshaw's wonderful collection of old china?" "Yes," replied Mrs. Fusslove. "I have; and I can't say that it gives me a good opinion of the Connyshaws' social position." "Dear me!" said the other lady. "How is that?" "Well, you see," explained Mrs. Fusslove, "they can't ever have kept many servants, or they would never have had all that china unbroken!"

"You, boy," exclaimed the colored woman, "what is you gwinter do wif dat watermillon?" The urchin looked surprised for a moment, then grieved and then scornful. Placing his burden of sweetness on the curbstone, he replied: "I's gwinter git a can o' vahnish an' vahnish it; den I's gwinter git a yahd o' red ribbon an' tie aroun' it an' hang it to de chandelier in de pahlor foh a ornament so's we kin look at it an' enjoy ourself's while we's eat-an' habd-tack."

Poetical and pedantic young lady walking in the wood with elderly and learned professor. "Oh, Mr. Bookworm, look at that magnificent oak! Let us stop one minute. I must tell him how the sight of such beautiful trees raises keen emotions in my soul; because, you know, I'm sure they can bear us and enjoy a compliment as well as you do. You superb oak, what would you say if you could talk?" "I believe I can be his interpreter, dear Miss Hopkins. He would most likely say, 'Beg your pardon, miss; I'm a beech.'"—

STILL ANOTHER PIANO CLUB.

Good Pianos at Wholesale Prices and on Terms Equal to Small Piano Rent—Eilers Piano House Has Organized Another Co-operative Club — Terms $5 Down and $6 Monthly.

Having received another large shipment of fine pianos, we are now able to accede to the numerous applications we have received from persons desiring to purchase pianos on the co-operative club plan, which was so popular some time ago. This plan, owing to the exceedingly low prices and easy terms it offered, created such a sensation and widespread discussion at the time it was originally inaugurated, that further explanation seems unnecessary. Many maintained then that it was simply impossible for us to sell such fine pianos at the prices asked. Investigation, however, proved the absolute truth of every one of our statements, and our clubs became so immensely popular that in five weeks we had a membership of four hundred. Three delivery teams and six men could not deliver the pianos fast enough to buyers. The present club is organized upon the same principle as the former ones, which is the wholesale principle applied to retail buyers, who join a club of 100, the club standing in the same relation to us that a wholesale purchaser or large dealer does.

The pianos are the finest, high grade, brand new regular $350 instruments, and will go to members of this new club—"F"—at $167, $196 and $237, according to works, style and design. There are no dues, no extras, nor any liability on the part of members for any possible failure or shortcoming on the part of the others or any of them.

ONLY ONE CLUB.

This being, as we have stated, an accommodation club, organized for the purpose of accommodating the many persons who applied for membership in our former ones after it was too late to secure a piano, we shall have but this one club, so all those desiring to take advantage of this rare opportunity had better make application at once. We will take especial pains during this sale to see that inquiries reaching us through the mail or by telephone receive immediate attention, in order to give out-of-town buyers every advantage in securing membership. All instruments. Money back if not satisfactory. Eilers Piano House, Park and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon. Other large houses at Spokane, San Francisco and Sacramento.
