Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife.

W WILLIAMS.

Drs Hosmer and Anderson performed a neat surgical operation upon Mr Al Churchill of this city Tuesday by removing a diseased piece of bone from the back of his head that was causing a defective hearing. The operation while quite painful was successfully performed and Mr Churchill is getting along fine.

Band Concert.

Wednesday night the C. M. A. Band boys gave their first anniversary concert. The audience was diminutive to a degree that should put the people of this city to blush. The boys have worked hard to perfect their organization and make their band a musical success and they are deserving of much credit and better patronage. It won't hurt anybody to help keep up the musical procession in this city along with the other progressive elements that go to build up a live up-to-date town. The boys have done well and will continue to do the same if any encouragement is offered them.
