Library association of antians THE LEADER.

.... BOHEMIA GOLD MINES

VOL. 7.

COTTAGE GROVE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1895.

NO. 29.

THE LEADER.

Devoted to the Best Interests of Cottage Grove, Lemati and Bohemia Gold Mining District.

LEADER BUILDING

E. P. THORP,

EDITOR and BUSINESS MANAGER

Rates of Subscription.

These rates are strictly in advance.
Subscribers wishing a change in their stoffice address should give their old as well w address.

• ECHO-I.RADER will be sent to subscribers al' arcears are paid and paper ordered to scontinued according to law.

• Any subscriber no receiving his paper
arly will please notify this office imme-

We invite short articles of general in-ticlong ones, as a rule, not published. All cles must be accompanied by the name of writer, not for publication, but as evidence ood faith. We assume no responsibility for minutes, of correspondents. tered at the postoffice of Cottage Grove as declass matter.

Advertising Rates Made Known on Ap-

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Sunday school, 10 a. M. Preaching, 11 a. M and 7 r. M., first and third Sunday in each month. Preyer meeting, each Westnesday a 8 r. M. ("We are journeying unto a place of which the Lord said, I will give it you; come thou with us and we will do thee good."—Numb. 10:29. REV. C. A. WOOLEY, Pastor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—SERVICES AT 11 A. Y. P. S. C. E., each Sunday school at 10 A. N. Y. P. S. C. E., each Sunday at 4 P. M. Midweek prayer and praise services, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Musical renearsal, each Saturday evening at 7 oc'lock.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

Government Laud in Coos County Not remember the time when its great founded. Machinery for a four stamp mill arliest age.

617,460, valued at $3,342,028.65. Of these 433,178 cases were packed on the Oregon side and 184,282 cases on the Washington side; 457,812 cases were Royal Chinnook and 31,500 cases were fall Chinook salmon. On the Oregon coast streams and bays 62,620 cases were put up. About 64 per cent of the catch on the Columbia river was taken with gill nets. Twelve per cent with seines, 19 per cent with traps and 5 per cent with wheels. The number of persons employed in the fisheries and allied industries in this state during the year was 5,349, to whom was paid the enormous sum of $1,236,246 for labor. The pack this year was larger than for any season since the tains, and at a point opposite the great geant saluted and raid:

The ordinance providing for the issue of $1,250,000 warrants for the con- winter, when a mounted messenger arstruction of the water system at Seat- rives over the trail bearing the expected tle was carried, with a light vote and registration. The vote was 2,331 in favor and 1,506 against.

It is said the distillery near Golden-It is said the distillery near Golden-dale will soon be in operation. The operation of the fort. The afternoon wears away, company is now arranging to buy the night comes down, and some of the 1,200 head of hogs and 300 of cattle, soldiers are asleep, when Benton City for winter feeding for the early spring sends in its call, and follows it by a telemarket. The resumption of business gram reading: "The colonel's wife start-by the distillery will be of great bene-ed West four days ago, and ought to be fit to the Klickitat farmers.

they will hackle it and otherwise pre-pare it to show just what can be done in Washington and show its relative value in comparison with other flax. | which enveloped her, shook off the snow,

Judge Hanford, of the United States and said to the sergeant: court has rendered a decision that land "I came through with hardly an hour's court has rendered a decision that land claimed by a railroad under its grant, but for which no patent has been is-amount with the sun already invested in county bonds and the amount drawing interest on the contracts of the purchase of school lands, will make a whole sum for the permanent school fund now drawing interest, about $2,-000,000.

ANTA CLAUS is the children's friend. Who he was we have little walley and roaring around the mountain base, there were wild war whoops and the crack of rifles. In the darkness a score of Indians had crept close upon the camp. Both sentries were shot dead.

326. Tradition has woven many a pretty tale about him, and one runs that he appeared in the night time and secretly made valuable presents to the children of the household. What manner of person St. Nicholas was, seems subject to variation, according to the time, place or mantion, according to the time, place or man-ner of regarding him. Medieval painters represent him as slender, and clad in full episcopal robes with miter and crozier. Modern painters and storytellers in En-gland, Germany and America, give us a jovial, rubicund type of a man, with none of the features of the cleric. Kris Krin-MANUFACTURING ENTERPRISES

AND DEVELOPMENT.

Christmas is children's day; it is the day when as Dickmas area. We should Falls, and from Ager to Klamath Falls, thus doing away with the present pony of Sncke.

It will open like a door. A slit must be cut out about an inch wide and from five to Sncke.

Sncke.

It will open like a door. A slit must be cut out about an inch wide and from five to Sncke.

The $25,000 subsidy required for the chough even to admit the smallest hand was hidden from sight of the Indian sentinels by the blinding whirl of Salem has now been entirely subscrib Salem has now been entirely subscribed. Machinery for a four stamp mill of double the capacity of the former will be erected.

Capital scrapbooks can be made by children. Old railway guides may be the foundation and every illustrated paper a the revolver. will be erected.

It is stated that there is little government land in Coos county worth taking up for farming purposes. Creek bottoms are nearly all settled and so is good bench land except in such places that are too far away from roads or navigable streams. There is considerable vacant land in Curry county.

The samlon pack for the season of 1895 amounted to the following number of cases for the Columbia river: 617,460, valued at $3,342,028.65. Of these 433,178 cases were packed on the

B EGINNING at Benton City, on the Union Pacific road, the telegraph line stretches to the north, graph line stretches to the north, between them. As he peered in the Serorigin of the industry, save two, 1883 and 1884, when the pack was 629,400 and 620,000 cases respectively.

mass of earth and rock and tree called bring you a Christmas present."

And as the Colonel uttered a shout of surprise and rock to sea learning at the same put back to sea learning his mind for it did not be the control of the surprise and rushed forward with out the crew and under their very threat he needn't bother about deliverin' the goods.

Washington.

H. L. Thomas, of Seattle, has a scheme to build an electric road between Tacoma and the Queen city.

A bank is to be established in New Whatcom by a Chicago man, who has already established banks in Colfax, and at Union, Or. He states that the new institution will be capitalized with $60,000.

At the terminus of the line is a rude shanty and a soldier operator. Close by the shanty are tents of soldiers, who along until the fort shall have electric communication with the outside world. It is December now—only two days till she seen. The Colonel's wife may tell you the story—the Sergeant couldn't be conxed to, but he can't conceal the limp.

Then Soar "Is the fusting the first story who limps a bit—a lone grave in which sleeps the soldier-operator—nothing more to be seen. The Colonel's wife may tell you the story—the Sergeant couldn't be conxed to, but he can't conceal the limp.

Then sen soldiers are wondering why they have not been ordered back to the fort for the where she is until spring. When her answer is received the shanty is to be closed there or at the fort now." There is a movement on foot to send Next morning there was an arrival from a ton of flax of Washington growth to the south. The colonel's wife, riding a the Barbour works in Ireland. And horse with a blanket for a saddle, disthe manufacturers have said that cheery, "Howdy but for which no patent has been issued, are not assessable and taxable as the property of the railroad company. This will reduce the assessment of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company in many counties.

The state land commission has invested $160,000 of the permanent school fund in state warrants. This amount with the sun already invested in county bonds and the amount draw.

COTTAGE GROVE

INDOOR CHRISTMAS GAMES.

those engaged must perform some work in the particular trade to which they are assigned by the foreman. In this game on Thanksgiving the boys and girls of an institution in Jersey cut and sewed a lot of carpet rags, made a lote of brushes, and split and bundled several cords of

"The Boy Hunters," in which the children learn the name, habits, and peculiarities of the entire animal kingdom, is another good game, and "Robinson Crusoe" one of the same kind and value. All these games are active ones, require constant movement, and are meant only for the halted, knelt down, and peering into the snow-whirl, opened a fusillade which checked pursuit if it did not wound or that storm-Providence must have shield-ed them from the bullets, but the storm ontinued to rage and the vengeful foe to pursue, till the report of the firearms reached the ears of the sentinel at the fort. No one had yet learned what was happening, when three figures staggered EGINNING at Benton City, on up to the gate, and on into the fort, and leaps across the Laramie moun- between them. As he peered in the Ser-

way, and the skulking bands of Indians stretched arms, the brave little woman fell into them, and the two men sank needn't bother about deliverin' the goods. We'll call it square."—Washington Star. put back to sea, learning at the same time he was losing his mind, for it did so unreasonable that when they could get into harbor that night they "Is the fuse laid?" inquired the landshould put back to sea. But they put back to sea, and Capt. Pendleton said to his mate: "You call me at 10 o'clock at night." At 12 o'clock at night the Captain was aroused and said: "What does this mean? I thought I told you to call "Yes, madame, the powder had no me at 10 o'clock, and here it is 12."

"Why," said the mate, "I did call you at "Then send for some dynamite, and 10 o'clock, and you got up, looked around and told me to keep right on this same course for two hours, and then to call you at 12 o'clock." Said the Captain: "Is it possible? I have no remembrance of that." At 12 o'clock the captain went on deck, and through the rift of the cloud the moonlight fell upon the sea and showed him a shipwreck with one hundred struggling passengers. He helped them off. Had he been any earlier or any later at that point of the sea he would have been of no service to those drowning people. On board the captain's vessel, they tegan to band together as to what uld pay for the rescue, and what they should pay for the provisions. "Ah," says the captain, "my lads, you can't pay me anything; all I have on board is yours; I feel too greatly honored of God in hav ing saved you to take any pay." Just ing like twins!" Oh, that the old sea captain's God might be my God and yours. Amid the stormy seas of this life may we have always some one as tenderly to take care of us as the captain took care of the drowning crew and the passengers. And may we come into the harbor with as little physical pain and with as bright a hope as he had; and if it should happen to be a Christmas rorning, when the presents are being distributed and we are celebrating the birth of Him who came to save our shipwrecked world, all the better, for what grander, brighter Christmas present could we have than heaven? Now comes the glad New Year; Though fate may do her worst, She cannot blot that legend clear: "All bills due on the first!"

Mrs. Gazzam—I're got a box of cigars for my husband's Christmas present, which will surprise him.

Mrs. Maddox—Women don't know how to buy cigars for men.

Mrs. Gazzam—I know that, so I got Brother Jack to get them for me.—

Brother Jack to get them for me.—

Judga.

It was drawing near to a very interesting season of the year. Willy was getting ready for bed. His mother looked happy.

"My dear," she said, "I am glad to see that you do not hurry through your prayers as you used to do."

"No, ma'am," said Willy; "Christmas is week after next, and I have a good many things to ask for." "You haven't got $5 about you, Jones?"
"No, I haven't. Wife borrowed the last to buy my Christmas present."—Atlanta

Not all who desire a Christmas-tree for armed with a hatchet, and hew from their own acres. Therefore at each Christmas mpossible to work the brakes. This objection was overruled, and the sweet-smelling freight was allowed to proceed

Told by Talmage.

I don't hustle there won't be any Christ-mas tree at our house. I'll take a lickin' when he was about to go into New York any day fur 50 cents." any day fur 50 cents."

"Sonny," said the market man. in a he was suddenly impressed that he ought voice that was remarkably husky, "here's to put back to sea. Under the protest of

While all the world is praying:
They are bealing, swelling, telling

They are bealing, swelling, telling, And this is what the bells are saying:

We are the tengues of prophet and priest:
We are the libs of the sibilant sleepers.
Who dreamed of a star in the burble east:
What the gates of the mystical morn
When the (hrist was born.

We are the prayers of the wandering Magi,
On Syrian descrits all level and lone;
We are the chorus of Judean Shepherds;
We are the notes that from Heaven were bloom from the golden throat of an Angels horn
When the Christ was born.

We are the teardrops of grief and of sorrow; We are the echoes of Yesterday's pain; We are the jubilant voice of tomorrow- Ito; Peace on Larth; let Thy good will reign our lips break silence on (histmas morn.) When the (hrist is born.)

The Boarding-House Turkey.

"But the turkey is still whole."

It was drawing near to a very interest

many things to ask for."

"It is, madame."
"Then fire it."

"BOTH MEN STOOD AT ATTENTION." and is proud of the extra stripes he has | tell the boarders the turkey is so tender worn on his sleeves ever since that Christ- it takes time to carve it.

He Was Surprised.

"I have, madame,"

We are the voices of vedas and sagas;

AND

Years, like men, most come and go. We are fast with promises, With fulfillments we are slow.

book store.

A Financial Trans.ction.
"Say, mister," said a boy who had just overtaken a market wagon after pursuing it for four or five blocks, "do you wanter know who hit you in the neck with that hard snowball?"
"You bet I do," replied the man, slackening speed.
"Will ye gimme a quarter of I ketch him and bring him here?"
"Yep."
"Yep."
"Yes," said the driver, lifting his whip from the socket; "but I don't give you any more'n that."
"Well, git the money ready."
"You haven't got the boy that threw

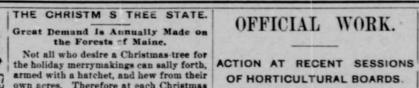

But what matters that to us?

Learning from experience, I have promised much, like you. When another year has flown People will condemn me, too.

I never like a Christmas season to pass trees, without telling a thrilling incident which four.

LEMATI.

own acres. Therefore at each Christmas season great demand is made on the forests of Maine for young spruces.

No tree but an evergreen will do, and no evergreen but the spruce presents the delicate, feather-flat, clean-limbed branches of dark perennial shade, which throw out by contrast the brightness of the suspended presents and favors.

On Sunday, the fifth of December, 1891, ten car-loads of Christmas trees for New York were detained in the Portland yard

York were detained in the Portland yard because they were loaded so that it was to its destination. How the cars were loaded can easily be described, but the fragrance of twenty-five thousand fresh-ly cut evergreen trees must be left to the crates of 24 boxes, 25 pounds.

lies at the head of one of the numerous bays on the coast of Maine.

head bridges on the road.

Each car held about twenty-five hundred trees, large and small, tied in bundles of four. From six hundred and fifty to telligently and keep posted on the markets. The condition of membership is twices stretched across, to which may be fastened small hemlock boughs, thus forming a solid mass of green. The framework should, of course, be wound with evergreen, the whole placed about twice the trom the wall, so that behind it may be hung the Caristmas bells of red and yellow immortelles at different and yellow immortely. At mind the tragic event. At midnight the tragic event. At midnight the tragic event and yellow in the vicinity, waiting on the tragic event and yellow immortely. At mind the parent provided and yellow in the yel If the platform of a church or Sunday seem to ring out their own song of "Glory o God in the highest."

A Christmas Church Idea.

For a Sunday school festival, a post-office where each child upon inquiring might find an envelop addressed and sealed, containing a pretty Christmas card, is a unique feature. Then there is the huge snowball made of cotton, be-sprinkled with diamond dust and filled with gifts for the infant class, which may be rolled through the window with an appropriate letter from Santa Claus. A Race Track Fiend Cured. The following story is told by one who for years was an inveterate better on horses: "It was Christmas eve. My 4year-old stood by my knee in his 'nighty' just before being tucked in his crib, and in his infantile manner was praying to Santa Claus to bring him the treasure uphe had finished I asked the master of the house what should old Santa Claus bring papa? He bowed his little head on my knee again and innocently pleaded: 'And, dear Santa Claus, please bring papa a was his mother's work, I suppose, but it went. I bought a tree that night, loaded it down with toys the boy had asked for, and then trimmed it with the tickets that hadn't won in the races. The unique festooning represented hundreds of hard dollars that had been scattered in the ave made up my mind that I never will again. It's a delusion and a snare."

Johnny's Wor. Curly headed Johnny had a tear drop in his curly-headed Johnny couldn't speak without with is the financial one, but the most And the Christmas preparations that were round him everywhere Had not the least effect upon his melan. Palmer's discreetness and good judga sigh.

ing," he would say;
"There's nothing to look forward to for me on Christmas Day; He'll scratch us off his program when he hitches up his team.

For Santy needs a freplace, and they heat our flat by steam." -Washington Star.

Uncle William was talking with Lucy, his best little niece, about Christmas. He ner, "if I were going to buy a doll for a little girl, what kind of a one do you think she would like?" "O. Uncle William," answered Lucy with undisguised interest, "there is noth!

Nothing Slow About Johnnie.

OFFICIAL WORK.

OF HORTICULTURAL BOARDS.

Schedule of Weights in Fruit Packing-A Sure Kemedy for San Jose Scale-Poultry Shows Next Month-Inspection Rules in Oregon.

The third annual session of the Northwestern Fruit Growers' Associa-Having considered the adoption of a uniform schedule of weights for the various standards of fruit packages, the committee recommended as follows:

Christmas trees which might have done duty at the Castle De Blunderbore. These rose to the top of the load, which was lim-rose to the top of the load, which was lim-request them to take favorable action rose to the top of the load, which was limited to a height that would clear all overon the various recommendations above; In this space the trees were packed that the transportation committees lengthwise, butts to the front and rear meet not later than sixty days from Has the Z Stamp in red on wrapper. tops to the center, so compactly that the loaded car was one solid block of green.

Freeh car held about twenty five hundred. recommendations."

J. M. Hickson, commission mer- HAYWARD EXECUTED without telling a thrilling incident which happened, at my house just eleven years ago this coming Christmas, writes Dr. Talmage. We had just distributed the family presents Christmas morning when family presents Christmas morning when hall.

The marketing of Christmas trees is a The marketing of with evergreen, the whole placed about two feet from the wall, so that behind it may be hung the Christmas bells of red and yellow immortelles at different lengths by ropes of evergreen. These bells may be made to hang at different McCroskey, Garfield; Emile Schanno, and the summons of the condemned man, but in case that at the last moment a wish might be expressed by the unrependant man for a spiritual adviser. In the evening Hayward had holding the next annual meeting, to be into the alley, Harry noticed him and held the second Tuesday in December, shouted:

Official Work in British Columbia The semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Board of Horticulture, which was in session at Victoria, adjourned to meet again during the next sitting of the legislature. Monday was devoted to the consideration of correspondence, coming from the different Australasian colonies, South Africa, the eastern provinces, and several of the American states. Agricultural reports and bulletins are received from all these sources, containing the best information available. The second day's session, was taken up with quarantine matters and the comparing of notes on the progress of horticulture in British al compliance with the horticultural of those engaged in the industry, and, therefore, no changes in them were considered to be necessary. The five lish purser or killed the negroes will wake of a race-track 'skate.' I have not played a horse since that time, and I having been mapped out, it was decided that in each of these meetings should Dr Price's Cream Baking Powder. be held, at which lectures will be given on fruitgrowing, with particular attention to planting and pruning. The only difficulty the board has to contend possible is made of the provincial govment the board attributes the harmony choly air.

"Oh, what's the use of hanging up my stockof feeling among the fruit growers of the province. The inspector they regard as a most valuable officer, wel-

The third day's session of the board was spent discussing the varieites of fruit best adapted to the country lying east of the Cascades - where the There comes a time once in every year, when children may without impropriety give their loving friends a hint in season.

hardiest varieties are required—and that lying west of the same great landmark. General business came up for mark. General business came up for transaction at the fourth day's session, wished to know her mind upon a certain highly interesting object, but preferred pointed to consider legislation and to get at it indirectly.

"Now, Lucy," said he, in a casual manMembers of the provincial executive

The Outrages at Seoul.

New York, Dec. 12.-A dispatch to the Herald from St. Petersburg says: A special dispatch from Vladivostock

Almost everybody takes some laxative ommittee recommended as follows:

Four basket crates, 25 pounds: stanliver Regulator (liquid or powder) dard peach box, 20 pounds pear box, 45 get all the benefits of a mild and pleasant pounds; cherry box, 150 pounds; berry laxative and tonic that purifies the blood lagrance of twenty-ave thousand treally cut evergreen trees must be left to the reader's imagination.

The ten cars, all "flats," or platform cars, were each thirty-four feet long loaded eight feet high, and all came from the small station of Wiscasset, which lies at the head of one of the numerous bays on the coast of Maine.

At regular intervals about each car, four on each side and two at each end, four on each side and two at each end.

The committee recommended that the minimum number of cars required for a special fruit train be fixed at fifteen; also that transportation companies be requested to reduce the minimum weights on all kinds of green the minimum number of cars required for a special fruit train be fixed at fifteen; also that transportation companies be requested to reduce the minimum weights on all kinds of green that worn out and debilitated feeling.

The following resolution was adopted:

The following resolution was adopted: At regular intervals about each car. fruits from 24,000 to 20,000 pounds. These are all caused by a single-stream four on each side and two at each end. The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the committee on is properly at work. If troubled with any > 28 EVERY PACKAGE 150 J. H. Zeilin & Co., Phila., Pa.

rousing With Friends-On the Seaffold He Said He Roped God Would

Forgive Him for All Harm Done. road men, with a view to securing was hanged at 2:05 this morning. He specially low rates on fruit to Eastern | made a statement of five minutes' duration, and, while not making a con-A committee of five was appointed fession, said he hoped God would for-

"Well, git the money ready."

"You haven't got the boy that threw the snowball yet."

"Yes, I have. That boy is me. Dad's sick, and me mother can't get work. The twins is too little ter earn anything, an' if mas tree at our house. I'll take a licking when he was about to go into Now Yest.

"Well, git the money ready."

ship from being run down by a great occan steamer, he had made his peace purchased on the street, in the city of Portland, at from twenty-five to fifty cents each, while in other parts of the side of heaven.

He had often talked to me of the good-twins is too little ter earn anything, an' if mas tree at our house. I'll take a licking when he was about to go into Now Yest."

The same quality of tree can be purchased on the street, in the city of Portland, at from twenty-five to fifty cents each, while in other parts of the state boys who wish for Christmas trees sally forth and cut them for themselves.

He had often talked to me of the good-twenty for the committee on bureau of information was instructed to take up the matter of exposing dishonest commission merchants.

He had often talked to me of the good-twenty for the committee on the bureau of incommittee of five was appointed to revise the constitution and by-laws, and the committee on bureau of information was instructed to take up the matter of exposing dishonest commission merchants.

He had often talked to me of the good-twenty for the constitution and by-laws, and the committee on bureau of information was instructed to take up the matter of exposing dishonest commission merchants.

He had often talked to me of the good-twenty for the city of the constitution and by-laws, and the committee on bureau of information was instructed to take up the matter of exposing dishonest commission merchants.

He had often talked to me of the good-twenty for the constitution and by-laws, and the committee on the constitution and the committee on the constitution and the committee on the city of the part of the proving for the constitution and the commi formation made its report, recommend- casional opening of the heavy doors to ing that a bureau be established for the admit some official, yet they lingered angles by using fine picture wire. Let The Dalles; H. A. Russell, Kendick, a talk with his attendants and laughed each bell be worded, so that they may Idaho. and joked on his approaching execu-After quite a spirited contest, North tion. As Captain Sandberg was cover-Yakima was chosen as the place for ing the windows of the jail looking

"That's right; block out the gaping crowd. People wishing to see me will have to call at the morgue, as I intend to change my quarters," and he laughed as he said it. To a newspaper man he said: "I would like to see the account of how this thing came out and my actions on the scaffold," and again he laughed as if he were going to a picnic instead of to death.

The New Orleans Riots. New Orleans, Dec. 13.-Great Britain is making an issue with the United States over the wounding of the purser, James H. Baney, of a British steamship during the levee riots here Columbia. It was found that fruit ceived a communication from Secredear Santa Claus, please bring page a growing had received a great impetus ceived a communication from Secretace horse that can win sometimes. That growing had received a great impetus tary of State Olney asking for a report of late, and that there had been generand quarantine regulations on the part the offenders to trial. It is said that, steps have been taken toward bringing owing to political combinations, World's Fair Highest Award.

Address DAVOL MEDICINE CO., P. O. Box 2076, San Francisco, Cal. For Sole by J. A. BENSON, Agent.

