We are not responsible for the opinions and sentiments expressed by our contributors, but for our own writing alone. Hence our readers must judge for themselves. We intend to give space for the free expression of opinion, within the limits of sound discretion, and the good of the cause; but not to be held as indorsing what others may write.

All matter intended for publication in this paper should be written:

1. On one side of the sheet only.
2. In a plain legible hand.
3. Let there be plenty of space between the lines.
4. Write with a pen instead of a pencil, so that it may not be defaced in transit.
5. Write brief articles.

When you send money for the paper, please be sure and state whether the name for which it is sent is now on our list or not.

Expect no attention to articles, notices, or queries not accompanied by your name.

If any subscriber fails to get the HERALD in due time, or fails to get it regularly, we will take it as a great favor if he will notify us at once. We are very anxious that the paper should reach every subscriber regularly.

DEATH OF J. A. MANG—This old soldier of the cross died June 12, 1882. He had for many years been an able defender of pure Christianity, both by tongue and pen. We never knew him except through his writings, but indeed a good man and a strong man in Israel has fallen.

The Christian is publishing a list of druggists who neither buy nor sell liquors for wholesale nor retail trade. That's right. Give such men publicity and let the people know where they can deal with practically temperance men.

A large amount of correspondence is compelled to lie over. A number of interesting reports from annual meetings are in hand, and will appear as soon as space will allow.

It is said that the M. E. Church rears on an average fourteen new churches every week.

A synopsis of the debate between Bro. C. J. Wright and Eld. Jones, will be found on pages two and three. The brethren seem well satisfied with the manner in which Bro. Wright sustained himself and maintained the cause of truth.

We notice that the name of our old friend and able brother, Benj. H. Smith, is placed as the head of the editorial page of the Faithful Witness as one of the associate editors.

Brethren, don't be backward about dropping us a card asking for extra copies of the paper when you can use them to advantage in getting new names for the paper. We hope none will relax the zeal with which they are now working, so that the paper may be on a good business basis by the close of this year.

Bro. I. H. Smith speaks of some preachers giving their audiences the Gospel on ice. Wonder if any of our Pacific coast preachers keep their audiences so cool over a congealed sermon, as that!

The Review thinks that if there is a right reverend in the church there ought also to be a left reverend. Well, the left reverend is the reverend who is left without a salary.—Messenger.

PIERCE CHRISTIAN COLLEGE.—We are just in receipt of the Catalogue of this institution located at College City, Cal. The school appears to be well organized with Classical, Scientific and Bible Departments. The number of matriculates for the past year in all departments, was 137. The Faculty is composed of the following professors and teachers. James C. Keith, A. B., President, Professor of Biblical Literature and Ancient Languages. Judge Durham, A. M., Professor of English Literature and Natural Science. David E. Hughes, B. C., Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy. Mrs. H. W. Kennedy, Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music. Gano Kennedy, Teacher of Penmanship and Vocal Music. Mrs. H. W. Kennedy, Teacher of Drawing and Painting. Miss Lilian G. Ford, Teacher of Primary Department.

The P. C. Advocate is trying to prove that "The Lord's Day is the Christian Sabbath." It may accomplish the feat of proving that the day was changed from the Seventh to the First by divine authority to its satisfaction, but it can not be shown to the satisfaction of thoughtful people generally. It is the effort to do this and the consequent failure that has given Sabbatism a footing on which to stand Teaching people to speak of the Christian Sabbath has forced many into Sabbatism. It is a serious mistake and the sooner those who keep the First day find it out, the better.

We have received from the Publishers, H. C. Hall & Co., Cincinnati, Albertypes of Gen. Garfield, O. A. Burgess, Isaac Errett, and J. M. McGarvey. These albertypes look exactly like photographs, but are printed in ink. They are excellent pictures, size 8x10 inches. Price 20 cents each, three for 50 cents.

And now we are called upon to chronicle the fact that Miss Fannie L. Dickinson has gained the $10 award for the best bread. This prize was offered to the graduates of the High School by Mr. Geo. W. Himes. Six contested with the above result. Miss Gibbs secured the second prize.

Several strange brethren met with the Portland congregation on last Sunday. Among them, Bro. Landrum, of Goldendale, W. T., Bro. Zollers from Arkansas, Bro. Blackstone from Pittsburg, Pa., and Bro. Gaddis from Illinois. And we are happy to hear from some of these that they propose to locate in Portland. Among the many coming to our port a goodly number are disciples of Christ, and we trust their presence will materially strengthen our forces here and throughout the coast.

Revised Hymnals have arrived. Send orders to Herald Office, 105 First St., Portland. Price 90 cents per copy, $9 per dozen.

We are occasionally receiving letters from prominent preaching brethren in the East who are desirous of making their home on the coast, and of engaging in a work for the Master. We also hear of vacant fields where such proclaimers seem to be needed. Now as we do not feel at liberty to mention these names through the HERALD, except where request is made, we will say that we shall be happy to accommodate both preachers and churches by putting them in correspondence that these vacant fields may be occupied, and preaching brethren accommodated.

Mrs. J. C. Beebe, of Portland, has in her possession, quite a curiosity in the shape of a dollar in currency issued in the year 1777, by the United Colonies. Her father, Noah Drake, who served in the Revolutionary war, as a volunteer from the State of New York, was paid in this currency. So greatly had it depreciated at that time it was not worth ten per cent. of its par value.

"Watch and pray." Note the method. Without watching there is little prayer. Prayer is the outflow of the soul, feeling deeply its needs. Watching brings prayer. Prayer brings blessing.

Southern California Annual Meeting.

Downey City, Cal.,
June 23, 1882.

Bro. Stanley:

The Annual Meeting for Southern California is to commence Aug. 18, 1882, at 10 A. M., near this place. All are invited, but especially all who desire to worship God as the first Christians worshipped him. Programme in a few days. Some extra tents will be prepared, a restaurant, hay yard and fruit stand. Come to the Downey depot and look for the committee. Affectionately,
C. KENDRICK.
