

It is related of Emerson and Theodore Parker that a great many years ago they were walking through the streets of Concord, when an adventist or Millerite rushed up to them and in an excited manner said, "The world ceases at midnight!" Parker coolly replied: "Well, I am not concerned, I live in Boston." Emerson said: "As for me, I can get along without it."

Do not pity yourself. Self-complacency is a morbid luxury, a caricature of self-respect. Do not nurse your grief and brood over it. Do not feed it with thought till it grows big. Forget yourself. Think of the world with its want and woe. Think of God and his help. Fling yourself, sorrow and all, upon the distress of man, and you shall find how God comforts those that mourn.

Mr. John Miller, of 54 West Fifth St., tells us that he was cured by the use of St. Jacobs Oil of a complicated case of rheumatism of ten years standing.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the tumors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
