

The sweetest life is to be ever making sacrifices; the hardest life a man can lead on earth, the most full of misery, is to be always doing his own will and seeking to please himself.

Everybody that has tried Ammen's Cough Syrup continues its use: besides they tell their neighbors of it. We were in a drug store the other day when a customer asked for a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup, saying "I do not know anything about it myself, but my neighbor advised me to buy it for my cold, and tells me that the use of three bottles has entirely cured his cough of two years standing, in fact he says 'It is the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds and lung complaints,' and that a one dollar bottle did him more good than all the prescriptions he had from the doctors."

THE CHRISTIAN HERALD

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY FROM

PORTLAND and MONMOUTH, OREGON.

THE HERALD IS THE ONLY WEEKLY on the Pacific coast published by Disciples of Christ, and is of special interest to all who desire a paper devoted to pure, primitive Christianity, unadorned by human creeds or traditions. As successor to the Pacific Christian Messenger it is in its

is on a permanent basis, with good building, power presses and steam power, an abundance of good material for running such a paper. The HERALD contains each week eight large six-column pages, pasted and trimmed, so as to turn like the leaves of a book, with only a limited amount of advertising, and that of the most select kind. All advertising not trustworthy is refused. As now published it is one of the by our brethren. It is conducted by a strong editorial corps, assisted by the contributions of the best writers among us on this coast. We feel safe in saying it is one of

OUR BEST PAPERS.

Every Disciple on this coast should take it. Every one in the East who desires to know all that takes place of general interest on this coast.

GREEN'S "LIFE OF GARFIELD."

The publishers are glad to announce that this long-expected work by F. M. Green is now ready. The publishers believe that in many of its features this "Life of Garfield" is superior to any similar work published. Its author was well acquainted with Mr. Garfield for nearly twenty-eight years—a time covering the entire period of his public life. He writes, therefore, from the standpoint of one who knew him as student, educator, teacher, soldier, statesman, and Christian. There are eighteen chapters. These chapters discuss in logical order the various phases of the royal life which they represent. The following are the titles of the successive chapters:

The Western Reserve.—The Foundation.—Birth and Boyhood.—The Period of Change.—The Canal and the Sea.—The Young Student.—The Hiram Teacher and Principal.—The Home and Family Life.—The Brightness of his Rising.—A Chapter Thrown In.—From Sun-Rising until Noon.—The Pillar of a People's Hope.—The Shot that was Heard Round the World.—From Elberon to the Grave.—The World's Sympathy and Sorrow.—The Present Estimate and the Final Conclusion.—A Tribute of Friendship.

While these chapters present the history in logical outline, yet each chapter is complete in itself. For instance, the student life of Garfield is discussed in one chapter, and not in parts of several chapters. So of his educational life and work. So of his religious faith and standing, etc., etc.
