GREEN'S "LIFE OF GARFIELD."

The publishers are glad to announce that this long-expected work by F. M. Green is now ready. The publishers believe that in many of its features this "Life of Garfield" is superior to any similar work published.

The Western Reserve.—The Foundation.—Birth and Boyhood.—The Period of Change.—The Canal and the Sea.—The Young Student.—The Hiram Teacher and Principal.—True Manhood.—Home and Family Life.—The Brightness of his Rising.—A Chapter Thrown In.—From Sun-Rising until Noon.—The Pillar of a People's Hope.—The Shot that was Heard Round the World.—From Elberon to the Grave.—The World's Sympathy and Sorrow.—The Present Estimate and the Final Conclusion.—A Tribute of Friendship.

While these chapters present the history in logical outline, yet each chapter is complete in itself. For instance, the student life of Garfield is discussed in one chapter, and not in parts of several chapters. So of his educational life and work. So of his religious faith and standing, etc., etc.
