"Seek not to please the world, but your own conscience. The man who has a feeling within him that he has done his duty on every occasion, is far happier than he who hangs upon the smiles of the great, or the still more fickle favors of the multitude."

"We all can set our daily deeds to the music of a grateful heart, and seek to round our lives into a hymn—the melody of which will be recognized by all who come in contact with us, and the power of which shall not be evanescent, like the voice of the singer, but perennial, like the music of the spheres.—*William M.
