

GOSPEL SUCCESS.

Reported by our correspondents and gleaned from our exchanges.

OREGON.

One added to the Monmouth congregation last Lord's day by baptism. Bro. Waller preacher. The present place for baptisms is inconvenient on account of distance and the brethren think of putting a baptistry in the church soon.

MISSOURI.

NEW HARMONY, Aug. 31.—I closed a ten days' meeting at Hematite Aug. 29, with the brethren greatly revived and 2 additions: 1 from the Baptists and 1 from the world. Praise the Lord.—H. A. Branstetter.

BELTON, Sept. 4.—Four additions here by letter and $68.50 raised in cash for India Mission. Fraternally,—J. H. Hughes.

PARIS, Sept. 2.—Held a five days' meeting at Oak Ridge, beginning Aug. 20 and closing Aug. 24, with 6 confessions and baptisms. Fraternally,—J. P. Furnish.

RIDGELEY, Sept. 2.—Bro. J. H. Duncan closed a meeting at Fairview, Clinton county, last Lord's day, resulting in 36 additions to the church: 5 restored, 2 who had previously made the confession took membership, 2 by letter and 27 by confession and baptism. An auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. was also organized.—J. W. Perkins.

HATFIELD.—There were 7 immersed at Hatfield and 1 at Martinsville, Harrison county lately. Fraternally,—J. D. Oxford.

SALEM, Sept. 4.—My meeting at Evening Shade, Ark., closed on Monday morning Aug. 28, at the water after a continuance of ten days, with unabated interest. There were 25 additions: 1 reclaimed and 24 by confession and baptism: 1 of these from the Baptists and 5 of them from the Methodists.—Adam S. Wright.

WELLSVILLE, Sept. 4.—I am just home from Miller county, where I have been in a meeting with the brethren at Old Salem church: 26 were added, 13 by confession and baptism, 1 from the Baptists, 1 from the Methodists, 1 from what is called the Church of God.—W. T. Sallee.

BLUE EAGLE, Sept. 6.—I closed my meeting at Woodland last Wednesday night after 12 days' continuance: 8 were baptized and 4 otherwise, added to the congregation. I am preaching near here this week at Ebenezer Church, good audiences at night.—B. C. Stephens.

ILLINOIS.

NORMAL, Sept. 6.—Like many other "big" preachers, I was compelled to rest during the "heated term" of August. The first two weeks I "rested" at Manchester, Scott county, Ill., where 14 were added to the church: 9 by confession and baptism.—A. P. Cobb.

HERMON, Sept. 7.—Bro. J. B. Foster closed a three weeks meeting with us at Hermon, Aug. 31. The immediate results of which was 5 additions to the church, all by confession and baptism.—Geo. Haver.

ARROWSMITH, Sept. 4.—Two were added to the church at this place yesterday.

day. Good audiences and a good interest.—J. F. Ghormley.

ARKANSAS.

OKOLONA, Sept. 5.—Bro. G. W. Williams, of Texas, is with me in a meeting at Prescott. Our audiences are small: 2 confessions last night, 1 from the Baptists, 1 by relation, that is one who had been baptized, but had not united with any congregation.—J. C. Mason.

OKOLONA, Sept. 8.—Two more confessions at Prescott Wednesday night. Will commence a meeting at our new church house five miles northwest of Prescott, Saturday before the first Sunday in October.—J. C. Mason.

KANSAS.

BELOIT, Sept. 1.—The brethren in northwest Kansas are determined to make a general move all along the line. The cause has languished during the last season, owing to a partial failure of crops, but we are determined to work more.—J. W. Garner.

TEXAS.

MILLSAP, Sept. 4.—Four added to the congregation at Whitt last Lord's day.—J. J. Lane.

IOWA.

TINGLEY, Sept. 8.—We to-day closed a two weeks' meeting at Tingley, Ringgold county. There were 11 confessions. We also adopted measures and raised the money necessary for the building of a house of worship. The brethren will proceed at once to build. Tingley is a bright, new town, on a new railroad. This is our third successful protracted meeting in the community, and we are happy at these results. Yours,—Simpson Ely.

OHIO.

NORTH FAIRFIELD, Aug. 30.—Our church is prospering finely, and the best feature is that our prayer-meetings are largely attended: 1 addition last Lord's day.—H. N. Allen.

ENGLAND.

CHESTER, Aug. 28.—We find our new building much more convenient and comfortable than we anticipated. The outside is of galvanized iron, one-story high, 89 feet long and 40 feet wide. The audience room will seat 500 people. At the back are several class-rooms, which with the large class-room in front for the infant department, may be thrown into the auditorium by means of movable partitions. When this is done we have a room capable of holding about 800 persons. The entire cost of the building is a little over £900. We have still £300 to pay, but this, the brethren have promised to raise, and I am sure they will, if they only have time given them.—Mrs. J. M. Van Horn.

As for the comfort we lose through unbelief, that is simply beyond our power of calculation. Who has not made himself miserable in thinking of the things that the future hides? The burdens of to-morrow crush many a sensitive soul, although the Master's words stand firm, and "the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself."

Obituary.

Died, near North Yamhill, Or., Sept. 13, 1882, after nine days illness, of cholera infantum, Wilmer, youngest child of Charles W. and Melinda E. Eitelgeorge, aged 11 months and 28 days.

Mrs. M. EITELGEORGE.

A Request.

Let every sick person—man or woman—who reads this, send for new pamphlet, question list, references, etc., to Mrs. Dr. Smith, author of the "New Process Cure Treatment."

She has cured a great many on the Pacific Coast, and has a great many patients there now. The Readers of the HERALD have read many testimonies from persons she has cured.

She cures the sick at their homes—see "ad." in this paper. Write to her at once for particulars, and learn about the New Process Cure Treatment. You will never regret it. Inclose stamp, and address, Mrs. DR. AUGUSTA SMITH, Springfield, Missouri.

If you are seeking the comforts of religion rather than the glory of our Lord, you are on the wrong track. The Comforter meets us unsought in the path of duty.

*We are persuaded that the ancient Hermes with all the subtle art and natural resources of the Alchemists, was a very poor doctor compared with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass. Hermes may have been after all only a clever practitioner of the Black Art; but we know there is no humbug in the pharmaceutical chemistry of Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Life is divided into three terms—that which was, which is, and which will be. Let us learn from the past to profit by the present, and from the present to live better for the future.—Guiding Star.

'Twill cure your cold.

We had a friend to say to us a few days ago: "I never do anything for a cold; just wear it off." That is exceedingly dangerous; one might do that 19 times and the 20th time the cold would settle on the lungs and lead to consumption, and thus cut one's life short many years. Is it not better, and more sensible, to go to your druggist and get a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup than run any risk at all?

Mrs. Lockwood, the woman lawyer of Washington, had opposed to her in a case recently a witty attorney, who was somewhat puzzled as to how he should refer to her. He could not address her as "my learned brother," and "my learned sister" seemed rather out of place. So he accordingly extricated himself from his dilemma and produced a roar of laughter from judge, jury and spectators, by alluding to her as "my learned sister-in-law."

Explicit directions for every use are given with the Diamond Dyes. For dyeing Mosses, Grasses, Eggs, Ivory, Hair, &c.

Our representative lately learned the following from Mr. Carl Siegmund, Cor. Congress and Washington Sts.: My daughter suffered from Rheumatism to such an extent that it crippled her, rendering her unable to walk at all. We consulted many physicians and used all kinds of medicines, but in vain. At last St. Jacobs Oil effected the happiest results. It cured my daughter.—Ypsilanti (Mich.) Commercial.
