In there are the bad company, the vulgar talk, the idle game, the drink of poison fire, the beginning of the horrible, treacherous, deadly appetite, which will bind your soul with fetters of brass and hooks of steel. Don't go in.

A wretched man, far gone in the slavery of drink, drifted into a Methodist meeting. The convicting Spirit met and aroused him, and he arose to go forward with the penitents. But courage give way; he fell back and found himself on the street, and on the steps of a dram-shop. There was a desperate struggle for a moment, then exclaiming: "God, help me!" he tore himself away, and went back to find the Lord and a redeemed life.

That saloon is a net laid to catch your unwary soul; it leads to the castle of Giant Despair, out of which you will never come again into the sweet sunlight. God is looking down from heaven; your soul is hanging in the balance. For the sake of the dear ones you will ruin, the life you will blast, the heaven you will lose—don't go in.—India Watchman.

Temperance.

—Abolish the bar-rooms and save the children.

—Your boys are watching to see which side you will take in this great temperance conflict.

—Close up the saloons and thus remove temptation to drunkenness and crime from the children, should be the motto of every parent.

—If you cast your influence now in favor of licensing bar-rooms it will not be a matter of surprise if your boys patronize them when you are dead and gone. Thus, your example to-day will influence your boy for weal or woe, long after you have passed away.

—Praying for the suppression of intemperance, and voting for individuals who not only advocate free whisky, but get drunk themselves, would be considered by some as inconsistent and hypocritical.—Mirror.

—It is the mission of the government to prevent as well as to punish crime. Let the State begin at the front door where the man goes in innocent, and not at the back door where he comes out guilty.

—This is the struggle for life and death in which there is no neutral ground; every man and woman must be either for or against the great enemy of all righteousness—the traffic in intoxicating drinks.—N. Y. Witness.

—Shut your grog shops, open your schools, and God knows what flashing jewels you may dig out of the neglected ores of the unwrought mine of the poorer classes.—Joseph Cook.

—O, think of a business that has poor heart-broken wives coming to its counters to beg assassins to spare their husbands!

—Few people realize the progress that is being made in this country in the temperance cause. Dr. Daniel Dorchester shows by facts in The Christian Advocate how strong is the drift towards prohibition. He cites, first the long record for prohibition of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, the shorter record of Kansas, and the recent prohibition victory in Iowa. Probably not less than ten other States, he adds, are moving for a constitutional amendment similar to that lately adopted by Iowa. Under "local option" prohibition obtains in quite a number of town and cities in New Jersey; in Logan county, Media, and other places in Pennsylvania; in nearly all of the rural districts of South Carolina; in forty-two counties, besides church and school neighborhoods in Georgia, equal in all to one-half the area of the State; in ten to fifteen counties and numerous districts in Alabama; in large districts in Mississippi; in many parishes in Louisiana; in about one-half the State, under the "Four Mile Law," in Tennessee; in large sections in Arkansas; in several counties in Texas. The votes given in various State legislatures in 1881, cited by Dr. Dorchester also, are significant. In Wisconsin the vote in the House stood 51 yeas to 39 nays. In that State in 1878, 15,000 people petitioned for prohibition; in 1879, 40,000; in 1880, 100,000; and a still larger number in 1881. In Pennsylvania the vote in the House was 109 to 59, the measure failing in the Senate. In Michigan the House voted 63 to 33, the Senate 21 to 10, the necessary two-thirds being wanting by only one vote in the House and by three votes in the Senate. In Nebraska the record was 49 to 28; in Ohio, in the House 77 to 16; in the Senate 20 to 11 (lost four votes); in Illinois, House 56 to 51, Senate 16 to 21; in Nebraska, 49 to 28; in West Virginia, 40 to 20 in the House; in Arkansas, House 66 to 17; in Texas, House 51 to 34, Senate 23 to 7. Here are a large number of majorities that bid fair before long to increase to the requisite two-thirds. The temperance skies evidently are brightening.—S. S. Times.

Agitation.

What the temperance cause most needs now is agitation; but with the agitation needs to go that old adage, "Be sure you are right, then go ahead." When taking a step in this cause or any other be sure of the ground you are treading; look at the matter from all sides, and when the right is known do not falter. It is only by successive steps that any good has ever been accomplished. No knowledge was ever gained but by repeated attempts. When any right undertaking is attempted, go through with it whether the world smile or frown. Be not easily discouraged. Form habits of perseverance. Yield not to sloth and sleep and fickleness. To resist all these will not be easy; but you will feel that you have done right when your work is done. God does not direct all our paths at once, but he orders one step at a time. Little by little we climb the ladder of life. If we ever reach the top round, called success, we must do every undertaking well, let nothing ever hinder from grasping each successive round whose surname is Present Opportunity, whatever their given names may be, or whether they belong to the numerous families of Smith and Jones or produce the life of a Washington or a Garfield. Whatever you do, do nobly, with earnest heart and true; never doubting that He who enables you to cast the seed will surely send the harvest.—Lodge Visitor.

5c. S. S. LIBRARIES.

The enormous expense of the Sunday-school library a thing of the past. $2 to $3 now buys a Sunday school library which before cost $40 or $65. The largest and best of Library Books over 1,000 volumes—original prices varying from 6c. to $1.50; the whole fifty-two books originally costing $7.45, averaging $1.10 each. Volume from No. 52 to No. 104, written expressly for us, by the best Sunday-school writers. Above lot partly new and partly reprints. In printing so cheaply we do not sacrifice durability or quality. In point of fact, our cheap books will outlast the expensive ones. Being wire-stitched, the leaves can not come out unless torn out. The limp covers preserve the books better than the heavy board covers of the ordinary books. Being flexible they can be bent back, folded over, or even rolled without injury, making them almost indestructible. Every book thoroughly sound and evangelical, but nothing sectarian or partisan. Each book numbered and containing descriptive catalogue of the whole.
