

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Portland.

There are many cases of scarlet fever in this city.

The first station on the O. R. & N. Co.'s road, about eight miles out of East Portland, has been named "Clarite."

The company engaged in the construction of the military telegraph line between Astoria and Cape Hancock have finished the land line to Fort Stevens.

There is some talk that the track on Fourth street will be taken from there and put down on Eighth, and that street widened.

A railing is being put up around the vacant lot on First and D streets, affording protection to people in the night time.

The First street railway now runs four cars, all of the new pattern, with platforms at each end, and this number, it is understood, will be kept up during the winter.

Instead of sending coal oil on special boats up the Columbia river, the O. R. & N. C. will hereafter dispatch a special train for the upper Columbia on Thursday of each week for the conveyance of this class of merchandise.

C. A. Landengerger, editor of the Deutsche Zeitung, is building a block of four stores, eighty feet front by sixty feet deep, on the southwest corner of Third and B streets. The upper floors will be occupied as dwellings.

Monmouth and Vicinity.

The Band of Hope will give an entertainment in the College chapel, at Monmouth, on Saturday, Dec. 8, 1882. Commencing at 6.30 p. m. Come one, come all. Admittance 25 cents. Children 10 cents.

The train has changed time, going north at 6:19 a. m., and south at 5:21 p. m., much to the inconvenience of the public and the disgust of the train men.

The grandees of the railroad company will be up over the line to day. We wish they had to go through on regular train time and learn a lesson.

Eld. Floyd's have moved into a house at the S. E. corner of the public square where they will remain till the house across the street from the HERALD office is put in repair.

All the school adjourned yesterday for thanksgiving—the first holiday of the session.

The thanksgiving exercises were held in the College. A fair audience was in attendance and the exercises were made interesting by devotional exercises and short addresses, interspersed by excellent music by the College.

MARRIED.—At the home of the bride's parents, in Monmouth, Nov. 29th, by Pres't. D. T. Stanley. Mr. Ed. Ford, of Airlie and Miss Georgia A. Percival, of Monmouth.

An oyster supper and sociable for the benefit of the organ fund will be given at the College to-night, (Thursday).

Mr. Burford's little child has had scarlet fever but is now well and the contagion has not spread.

A pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Wolverton at their home in town last Saturday evening, by their children and a few invited friends, it being the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The evening was pleasantly spent and among the beautiful things to remember were some beautiful presents of silverware from children to parents.

Pacific Coast.

Pataha City is growing very rapidly. The officers at Seattle are raiding the opium dens.

The N. P. company is getting its snow plows ready for use.

Baled hay is worth $20 per ton at Walla Walla.

Scarlet fever is raging in Colis valley, Douglas county.

Flour is worth $16 a barrel in Boise City, and still on the raise.

Moscow grist and saw mills are running to their full capacity.

Beef is being shipped from British Columbia to Puget Sound.

The A. O. U. W. Association of Walla Walla, proposes to erect a fine hall.

The pottery works at Oregon City have resumed operations.

A hop raiser sold his years' crop at Seattle Tuesday for $25,000 cash.

Mayor Livermore, of Pendleton, has voted the $1000 whisky license ordinances.

The Eugene court house has been repainted and materially improved in appearance.

Typhoid fever prevails to an alarming extent on Mill creek bottom near Aumsville.

Plans for a new church edifice at La Center have been made and work will commence soon.

Small-pox is prevailing at Missoula, and the citizens are disinfecting the town by burning the old shanties.

The Olympia land office continues to be crowded with newly arrived settlers, seeking desirable places for establishing and building up homes.

Whitman county cast the largest vote of any county in Washington Territory, 2225; Spokane next, 1982; Walla Walla next, 1818; Pierce next, 1237; Columbia next, 1125, and Garfield next, 967.

Reynolds, who was tried for the murder of Allen at Walla Walla, in which case the jury failed to agree, plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter, the court sentencing him to one year in the penitentiary.

The wife of J. T. Haff, formerly of Oregon City and Forest Grove, died at Los Angeles on the 7th inst.

The charcoal sheds of the Oswego iron works are filled with 1,000,000 bushels of coal ready for the season's run.

A new saw mill is in course of construction on Rogue river, about ten miles from its mouth.

The tuition received thus far at Pacific University, Forest Grove, shows a larger number of students than ever before in the fall term.

There has been used in blasting on the Blue mountains this season, 10,000 kegs of powder and 500 tons of giant powder. Ten miles of the road will average $55,000 a mile.

A large number of men are engaged getting out hop poles in the vicinity of New Castle and Squak, King county.

In San Francisco, on the 22d, Joseph Gassman, proprietor of the Gassman house, No. 428 Broadway street, committed suicide by blowing out his brains with a pistol.

Eastern.

At Pensacola the yellow fever is over and business is resumed.

Fire in the parlor of the Lotus Club, New York, damaged paintings $10,000.

A brief funeral service over the body of Thurlow Weed was held Saturday at Albany, N. Y.

The wholesale price of coffees in New York are much lower than have been known since the panic of 1857.

At Sioux City a fire gutted the large brewery of Frog & Co. The loss is considerable, chiefly on machinery.

Three men have been arrested and bailed at Richmond, Va., on a charge of violating the election laws by procuring illegal votes.

Bitner & Simonton's paper mills at Lancaster, Pa., is burned; loss, $100,000; insurance, $20,000. A bridge adjoining also burned; loss, $20,000.

Gen Thomas Reynolds, of Madison, Wis., has been held in $3000 bail by the U. S. court for signing names of dead men to pension papers and drawing money thereon.

The cornerstone of the Baltimore postoffice, which is to cost nearly $5,000,000, was laid Tuesday by Grand Master Tyson with a golden trowel.

Track on the main line of the Northern Pacific is now laid to Merrill, Montana, 23 miles westward from the late terminus at Park City, and 963 miles from St. Paul. Work on this end of the line is advancing steadily.

Mrs. Melville, wife of Engineer Melville, left the insane asylum at Norristown, Pa., Friday evening for home, having regained her health completely.

A fire at Fort Worth, Texas, destroyed the city flouring mills and several adjoining residences, involving a loss of $50,000; insurance $18,000.

The temperance people of Boston have formed an anti-license league.

Malignant diphtheria is prevailing to an alarming extent in the manufacturing suburb of Frankfort, Pa.

General James D. Fessenden, dropped dead Saturday morning at Portland, Maine.

129,000,000 feet of logs passed through the boom on the St. John's river this season.

Isaac R. Butts, the oldest Boston printer and publisher, died Sunday night, aged 86.

The St. Louis limited express train was thrown from the track about 30 miles east of Columbus, Ohio, but no lives were lost, notwithstanding all the cars and engine went down an embankment 30 feet high.

A brick building at Cold Spring, N. Y., belonging to Mr. Bailey, burned; loss, $60,000.

Johnston Staffila, a laborer, was torn to pieces at Springfield, Tenn., by a circular saw.

At Hastings, Minn., on the 24th, Engineer Vanderwith was killed by a railroad accident.

Jas. Ruddy's house at Providence, Penn., burned, and Mrs. Rubby perished in the flames.

Malignant diphtheria has appeared in Millerton, N. Y. Schools are closed and families are leaving.

Six of the victims of the Providence, R. I., fire have died.

A young woman named Lucy Tutaine and her two sons have been arrested at San Gregorio Pass, Cal., for train wrecking. The boys confess the crime and say the object was robbery.

A fire at Morris, Minn., destroyed a large portion of the business portion of that place; loss estimated at $100,000 to $150,000.

Giuseppe Peltata, at New York, killed his wife and then himself in a quarrel about money matters.

Owing to the prevalence of diphtheria, and other contagious diseases, public funerals are forbidden by the board of health of Boston.

Burglars blew open the safe of Milton postoffice, Wis., and secured $2000 in money and a quantity of jewelry and other valuables. No clue.

Noah Mitchell, manufacturer of jewelry at No. 594 Broadway, N. Y., has failed; liabilities, upwards of $100,000; his assets will realize 40 to 50 per cent.

While J. Baker and W. Ransom were repairing a leach tub in a paper mill at Hart, Ind., both were precipitated into the boiling liquid by the breaking of a board, and were so badly scalded the flesh dropped off in places. Neither can live.

Foreign.

Carmel Caraguel, French journalist, is dead.

The condition of the archbishop of Canterbury is unimproved.

The porte is trying to ascertain the views of Germany on the Egyptian and Tunis questions.

A German colonel, Mokeln Bey, has been appointed commander of police at Alexandria.

Sol Eille, the French traveler, has taken possession of Tajovrin, on the gulf of Aden, ceded to him by the local sultan.

The empress of Germany is now well enough to leave Baden.

Admiral Seymour and Gen. Wolseley have been gazetted peers.

Rumors of a ministerial crisis in France are unfounded.

Business Locals.

If you want to get a picture copied or enlarged or a lot of fine views of Oregon and Columbia river scenery, or a dozen first-class photographs any size, go to I. G. Davidson, the busiest and most successful photographer in Portland.

Jno. A. MacDonald, of the Salem Marble and Granite Works, Commercial Street, south of the post office, manufactures all kinds of monuments: Italian marble a speciality. Prices reduced one-half.

NEW MUSIC.—Send stamp to Wiley B. Allen, most popular music dealer, Portland, Or., for complete catalogue and sample copy "Musical Pastime." All orders by mail filled promptly.

The Household Sewing Machine took the first premium at the great Manchester (England) Exposition for the best family Sewing Machine. John B. Garrison, general agent, 167 3rd St., Portland, Oregon.