

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Monmouth and Vicinity.

Please remember the entertainment in the college chapel to-night.

Bro. A. W. Lucas has returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where he had gone seeking health. He called on us, and reports his health greatly improved. He also brought some money for the HERALD.

Tuition Reduced.

The rates of (including Janitor's fee) Tuition in the Normal school and in Christian College will be reduced $1.00 per term and will here after be as follows: Normal or Collegiate $10; Sub-Normal or Preparatory 7.50.

D. T. STANLEY.

President.

Pacific Coast.

On the 24th it was 29 degrees below zero at Baker city.

The O. R. & N. Co., has a force of men at work in Pyles canyon.

A gang of Chinamen have been put to work on the Oregon Pacific railroad.

There were 169 scholars in attendance the past term at the Lafayette public school.

Ten families are expected to arrive in Jackson county from Texas in a few weeks.

The want of more houses is experienced at Salem, and property has an upward tendency.

The Germans near Cornelius have just completed a fine church, and on Sunday, Jan. 21st, they dedicated the same.

Lewis D. Patrick, son of the editor of the Tacoma News, died at that place last Wednesday.

Wm. Pratt, employed at a sawmill near Corvallis, was seriously injured last Wednesday by being struck on the head by a block.

Wheat is 93 to 94 cents per bushel at Eugene City.

Real estate at Old Tacoma is being held at a high figure.

The car shops at New Tacoma are making on the average of one car a day. They are immediately sent East of the mountains.

E. A. Estes, of Drain station, broke his right arm last week while attempting to jump-off the freight train.

Track laying on the Baker City branch is progressing rapidly on account of the mild weather.

Wheat is reported to be worth $1 per bushel at Pataha City, W. T.

The railroad company is preparing to build another large wharf at Seattle.

Bricks are in demand on the Sound and are said to be worth $18 per thousand.

Mrs. H. C. Brown, of Dayton, W. T., is said to have fallen heir to $20,000 by the death of a relation.

All the towns on the Sound are booming, and property is advancing. Olympia, which has long been on a stand, has taken a start.

Two cases of smallpox broke out in Weston, Oregon. They have been removed to an isolated house. Both were strangers in the city. The parties afflicted came up on the train with Thompson, the man who recently died at the pest house in Walla Walla.

Fifteen is the number known to have been killed in the Tehachipi disaster, and on further investigation the list increased. Grave fears are entertained of Ex-Governor Downey and the recovery of Stephen Coffyn, of Santa Ana.

Henry G. Langly, one of the oldest pioneers and veteran compiler of Pacific Coast directories, died on the 29th in San Francisco.

An old teamster named Jerry Lewis was drowned on the 27th in the creek beyond Fifteen Mile, in Wasco county. Mr. Lewis got off the wagon and attempted to cut the horses loose, when it is supposed one of them kicked him in the head, knocking him senseless, and he fell into the water and was drowned.

The Salem mills were shut down on Monday on account of high water.

It is expected that the new mills at Salem will be ready in about two months.

As the East bound train was pulling out of the depot at Los Angeles Cal., on the 29th Henry Campbell fell from the cars across the track and was instantly killed. His body was cut in two and his right arm cut off. He was about 45 years of age and by occupation a laborer.

Mumps and diphtheria are prevalent at Olympia.

Sellers are refusing 80 cents for wheat at Walla Walla.

The steamship Tacoma, of the Pacific Coast Improvement company, arrived at Tacoma last Tuesday. She is the largest steamer that ever entered the Sound.

Henry Rupp, a boy twelve years old, while playing in the brewery at Steilacoom a few days ago, was caught in the machinery and crushed to death.

Efforts are being made to divide Union county, giving Wallowa valley a separate county by itself.

A Mrs. J. T. Sullivan died suddenly at The Dalles, from the over indulgence in whisky.

The father and mother of Chas. F. Greer, who was drowned in Three Mile creek, Wasco county, while skating last Sunday, reside in San Romon, California.

The high water in December destroyed about six miles of the old Blalock Flume, now the property of the Oregon Improvement Company.

On the 29th, Frank Dodge, a house-mover residing at the corner of Eighth and Mission streets, San Francisco was killed instantly at Hathaway's wharf. He was engaged in moving a boiler from the Review point warehouse to the barge Champion, when one of the levers broke and the boiler fell on his breast crushing him to death.

Eastern.

Hon. James Patrick, Sr., the oldest journalist in Ohio, died on the 26th, at New Philadelphia, aged 91.

Seven thousand men are now at work on the British Columbia division of the C. P. R. R.

The extreme cold has produced widespread destitution among the poor around Lynchburg, Va., especially among the negroes.

One hundred and fifty families at Columbus, O., are in destitute circumstances, owing to the closing down of the Columbus mill last Christmas.

It is now known that among the passengers of the lost steamer Cimbria was Miss Dora Hennings, known to the lyric stage as Mille. Dorina, who was returning to her home in Cleveland from a course of musical studies in Europe.

All the business houses of Milwaukee were closed on the occasion of the obsequies over the charred remains of the forty-six victims of the Newhall house calamity.

The body of A. Lagard, a workman, was found in the woods near Raumbam, Mass., on the 25th, frozen stiff. Both feet were tied with a rope to a sapling. Under the corpse was found a revolver.

A collision of freight trains on the Vermont Central, on the 27th, exploded a cargo of kerosene oil, burning adjacent storehouses and many loaded freight cars. The loss is over $200,000.

At Nashville, Ill., on the 23d, a fire destroyed a block of business houses and the court house. The records were saved.

J. A. McVeagh, the comedian, fell from the top of the stairs at his residence in New York on the 23d, receiving injuries from which he died.

The liabilities of the grocery house of Boris, Fay & Conkey, of Chicago, are placed at $800,000.

The weather was terribly cold in the Eastern States on the 23d, extending from Texas to New York.

In tearing up the floor of a mail car at Wilmington, Delaware, thirty-seven letters were found, posted in 1871.

On the 23d, at Brainard, Minn., the Northern Pacific hospital and Old Colony Reception house were barned. Thirty-six patients, many of them bed-ridden, were removed, two of them in a dying condition.

The Marquis of Lorne was dined by the President on the 27th.

Mrs. Blecker, of the Tom Thumb Company, died of her injuries, received in the Newhall disaster.

Henry T. Morgan, the well known banker and broker, died at New York on the 27th in a carriage, while returning from Wall street to his home.

The coroner of Milwaukee is investigating the Newhall disaster. No evidence of importance has been given so far.

The first mail steamer for Brazil left New York on the 27th.

On the 23d a fire at Washington, Ark., destroyed $50,000 worth of property.

A bill has been introduced to give a pension to the widow of DeLong of $150 per month.

Grand Father Roessly, aged 93, born in Germany, died on the 25th in Fairfield county, Ohio. He fought under Bonaparte at Waterloo.

A smallpox panic prevails at Brainerd and Aiken, Minn., because of a rush of frightened lumbermen to these towns. Both cities have placed armed guards on the thoroughfares.

A terrific wind storm at Denver, Col., destroyed a number of houses on the 29th.

The river steamers Suiac and Grace collided in a fog on the 30th. The latter sunk. R. S. Ward, a passenger was drowned. All the other passengers esaped serious injury.

The worst storm of the season set in at St. Paul, Minn., on the 30th. Farther west the storm did not prevail. It seems to have come from north of the British line, sweeping diagonally to the southwest. No incoming passenger trains arrived during the day and but few were sent out.

Foreign.

Violent storms raged in Hungary, Friday, in the district of Oraniza, and houses were destroyed.

A heavy gale prevailed on the 26th particularly at South Park and Liverpool, causing much damage to shipping also to houses. A schooner was lost with all hands at Yormouth. At Oldham two persons were killed and six injured by the gale.

Admiral Jauregnaberry, Minister of Marine, has resigned.

The Kingston, Jamaica, fire relief fund, sends thanks to the United States for contributions.

A secret revolutionary press has been discovered in Odessa. Several Nihilists have been arrested.

The steamer wrecked near Swansea, Wales, was the Agnes Jack, from Sardinia, with lead. Witnesses of the disaster saw the crew of twelve men swept from a mast. The steamer was out of the reach of rockets and unapproachable by boats. All hands perished, including the Captain.

Two leading Nihilists prisoners, a man and a woman, confined in the fortress of Peter and Paul have become insane.

The British bark Royal Tar, from Philadelphia for Liverpool, has been driven into Penarth road with decks swept and other damage done.

The heaviest floods in the British lake districts for twenty years, now prevail. Lakes Derwentwater and Bassenthwaite now join, and a portion of Kiswick is submerged.

Ten bodies were washed ashore near Penarth from an unknown steamer supposed to have foundered with all hands, twenty in number, near Port Hawl Hessel.

The British steamer Black Watch has sunk off Mumble's Head and twenty-six persons are drowned.

An Imperial concession has been granted to a firm of English contractors, for a railway by which all Vienna railways will be united by branch lines and a circular railway. A ministerial announcement says these words are rendered necessary both by public convenience and the state of the labor market.

Business Locals.

If you want to get a picture copied or enlarged or a lot of fine views of Oregon and Columbia river scenery, or a dozen first-class photographs any size, go to L. G. Davidson, the busiest and most successful photographer in Portland.

NEW MUSIC.—Send stamp to Wiley B. Allen, most popular music dealer, Portland, Or., for complete catalogue and sample copy "Musical Pastime." All orders by mail filled promptly.

The Household Sewing Machine took the first premium at the great Manchester (England) Exposition for the best family Sewing Machine. John B. Garrison, general agent, 167 3rd, St. Portland, Oregon.