

CHRISTIAN HERALD.

W. Cowles 1884

DEVOTED TO THE RESTORATION OF APOSTOLIC CHRISTIANITY.

VOL. XIII.

MONMOUTH, OREGON; FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1883.

NO. 28.

CHRISTIAN HERALD.

J. F. FLOYD,

Editor and Publisher, Monmouth, Or.

Subscription Price:

One Copy, one year..... $2 00
One Copy, six months..... 1 00

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Prices will be given on application.

[Entered at the Post-office at Monmouth, as second class mail matter.]

Please Notice.

We are not responsible for the opinions and sentiments expressed by our contributors, but for our own writing alone. Hence our readers must judge for themselves. We intend to give space for the free expression of opinion, within the limits of sound discretion, and the good of the cause; but not be held as indorsing what others may write.

All matter intended for publication in this paper should be written:

1. On one side of the sheet only.
2. In a plain legible hand.
3. Let there be plenty of space between the lines.
4. Write with a pen instead of a pencil, so that it may not be defaced in transit.
5. Write brief articles.
6. Expect no attention to articles, notices, or queries not accompanied by your name.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Our new house of worship in Seattle will soon be near enough completed for the brethren to occupy with their meetings.

Read Bro. McKinney's article this week on prayer meetings. He makes some splendid points which should be heeded by many churches.

It appears from the reports of the annual and cooperative meetings we have so far printed, that the brethren in Washington Territory are fully alive to the interest of the cause in that field. We have a noble band of brethren in the Territory, and we are glad to know they are pushing forward the work.

We ask attention to the official statement of the Executive Committee in reference to the case of Bro. Norton. We are sorry that any trouble among our missionaries to India should have ever arisen, or that it was necessary to make it public; but as Bro. Norton has now been released from all obligation to the brethren, it is to be hoped that all things are working together for good to those who love God and the cause of missions.

The other members of the company seem to be doing faithful work for the Lord.

Those who have bought Bro. Higbee's Card Tracts from us and promised to pay for them, should remit to us at once as Bro. Higbee is now calling for money to meet the expenses of publication. Remember all we get goes to the fund. It is simply a matter of accomodation and interest in the cause that leads us to handle these tracts. We now have on hand a good supply. We would also be glad to receive donations to the Tract Fund. This is a work that should be liberally sustained by the brethren.

In a private note from Bro. R. Graham, President of the College of the Bible, Lexington, Ky., he says: "The session just closed has been one of the most pleasant and prosperous in both institutions we have ever had. The University has got through all its troubles, and the omens are good for years of great prosperity and usefulness." When we look back over the happy and useful days spent under the special training of such men as Graham, Milligan and McGarvey we take special pride in noting these facts respecting our Alma mater next to the church of Christ. We hope to have something more to say on this point next week.

The third number of Vol. 2, of the Christian Quarterly Review, edited by Bro. E. W. Herndon, Columbia, Mo., is on our table filled with productions from some of our ablest pens. The following is the table of contents:

Studying the Scriptures, by D. R. Dungan, Davenport, Iowa; The Equation of Life and Keys of the Kingdom, by G. R. Hand, Richmond, Mo.; The two Principles of the Atonement, by Dr. H. Christopher, St. Joseph, Mo.; The Forces in the Church, by W. C. Rogers, Cameron, Mo.; Conscience, by J. W. Rust, Pres. of Bethel Female College, Hopkinsville, Ky.; The Identity of the Messiah, by Dr. A. M. Collins, Marion, Iowa; The Restoration in the 19th Century of the Faith and Practice of the Primitive Church, by J. W. Butler, Abingdon, Ill.; Some Popular Objections to "The Disciples" Answered, by O. A. Carr, Columbia, Mo.; The Divine Government, by A. B. Jones, Liberty, Mo.; Miscellaneous Emendations of English Translations of the Sacred Text, by B. U. Watkins, Cameron, Mo.; Book Notices; Among Our Exchanges.

We would be glad to see this Review in the hands of the brethren generally. Price, $2.00 per year. Single numbers, each 50 cts.

The following note to us fully explains itself:

CINCINNATI, June 26, 1883.

Dear Bro. Floyd:

If you wish you may state in an editorial note that a new mission will soon be established on the Isthmus of Panama under the superintendency of W. K. Azbill. The Canal Co. furnish a chapel, a school and a hospital. In addition to this they pay part of the salary of the missionary. The Foreign Board has selected W. H. Williams of Golden, Colorado, to take charge of the work there under the general direction of Bro. Azbill. We assured him of a salary of $2,000 per annum, but probably $1,000 will be raised on the ground. Our work is growing constantly. We need a corresponding growth in receipts. Unless our brethren do better than they have been doing, we will fall behind what we did last year. This will never do. We must increase our amount yet more and more.

Sincerely,

A. McLEAN.

We are much interested in Bro. Azbill's work in Jamaica, and also in this new mission. We know him to be one of our true and tried men of God, and while he has certainly selected a difficult field of operation in some respects, principally among the laborers of the Panama Canal, yet our confidence in his ability and good judgment will lead us to advocate any reasonable measures he may inaugurate for the spread of the gospel of Christ. We are in favor of giving the new mission a fair trial. Those who can and wish to assist will please send their name to Bro. McLean, Cincinnati, Ohio.

TO OUR TRIAL SUBSCRIBERS.

We have quite a number of trial, or three month subscribers whose time will be out with next week's issue. We think these subscribers have had sufficient time to test the value of the CHRISTIAN HERALD and to fully decide whether or not they wish to become permanent subscribers. We will be glad if not one will think of giving up the HERALD after reading it for three months. Please remember that we let you have the paper three months for the small sum of 25 cents, only one half its regular price, in order that you might simply give it a fair trial and to thus increase our circulation so as to place the HERALD on a firmer financial basis. Of course, if you do not continue your subscription, we will be loser in thus accomodating you. The brethren everywhere, so far as we can learn, are highly pleased with our feeble effort to give them a religious paper, and it is in no spirit of boasting when we state, that in the estimation of those who are fully capable to judge, the HERALD is taking its place in the front rank of our religious journalism. So it is now in the power of the brethren to make the HERALD not only one of our best and ablest papers, but to make it a fixture on this Coast. When it is remembered that in order to reach this end we are actually giving our labor on the paper to the brotherhood for the present, it behooves every brother and sister to rally to our assistance. Our list is now larger than it has ever been since the paper was established, and is steadily increasing. Give us one more hard pull and one thousand new subscribers and we will give you a paper in