

BOOK TABLE.

[Under this head we will be pleased to give editorial reviews of all books and tracts of interest that may be sent to this office.]

WINTER IN INDIA, by The Rt. Hon. W. E. Baxter, M. P.—This is the last, and the best, of a number of charming books of travel by the Hon. Mr. Baxter, who took many journeys in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. By the aid of this book we can accompany him through his winter tour in India. He introduces us to strange scenes, curious incidents peculiar alone to India, and obtains for us a vast fund of information and facts concerning a country which is likely to call upon itself more notice from the world than any other country on earth. Its great antiquity, its vast resources of wealth of various kinds, and its ancient lore, make it unrivaled. England and America, both their merchants and scholars, especially, must ever be deeply interested in India. Mr. Baxter tells his thrilling story in such a pure, simple style that readers of all ages will enjoy it. His position as an English statesman is a guarantee of the reliability of its every statement. Published in Funk & Wagnall's Standard Library. Price 15 cents.

What Woman Did For Woman.

Mrs. Maria Stewart Speaks.

Among hundreds of testimonials, we give the following letter:

Marion, La., July 3, 1883.

Dear Mrs. Dr. Smith:—I received the Remedies and Instructions, and I have followed your directions. I am glad to say that I am in better health to-day than I have been for ten years. My back is entirely well. I can now eat any kind of food I desire, without being troubled with indigestion. I feel so thankful to you and to Almighty God for my restored health. I regard the New Process Treatment the best in the world. If I could have my way, every afflicted woman in the country would apply to you. I believe I could have been in my grave ere this, if I had not been treated by you. Gratefully yours.

MRS. MARIA STEWART.

The above needs no comments. Mrs. Stewart is known in Denver, Col., and in Louisiana. She simply states what the New Process Treatment has done for her.

Mr. C. H. Nichols, of Warren Springs, Wyoming, has been cured of an ulcerated lime of ten years' standing. This was a very bad case.

Mr. B. F. George, of Denver, Col., has been restored to health, after being an invalid for 30 years.

Ladies, especially, are requested to write to Mrs. Nona Prewitt, Thompson Station, Ky., and learn of her remarkable restoration to health under the treatment of Mrs. Dr. Smith.

Many in Oregon, Washington Territory and California have been treated and cured by Mrs. Dr. Smith.

Long list of cured furnished on application. Unless surgery is required, the sick are treated at their homes by letter. Send for pamphlet and question list. Inclose stamp and address.

MRS. DR. AUGUSTA SMITH, Springfield, Mo.

A Clergyman's Sore Throat.

This disease, which has, during the past twenty or thirty years abridged or entirely closed the ministerial usefulness of so many clergymen, has rarely found successful treatment under any of the old systems of medicine. The following from Rev. J. B. Pradt, of Madison, Wisconsin (late Assistant State Superintendent of Wisconsin), shows how promptly, in his case, this disease yielded to the action of Compound Oxygen. He says: "I had been troubled many years with 'Clergyman's Sore Throat'; and after a severe attack of influenza, the upper part of the lungs was left very tender and irritable, and I was obliged to desist entirely from using my voice in public service. After a two month' trial of the Compound Oxygen, I found myself, to my surprise and gratification, able to go through full services again, not only without any trouble, but with little fatigue. Three months' use of the remedy restored my voice and lungs completely, and greatly improved my voice and lungs completely, and greatly improved my general health. I feel it my duty, therefore to bear testimony to its good effects. I have waited for time to test the permanence of the benefits received, and can say that during the past severe winter I have been entirely free from colds, and in better general health than for many years; am 65 years of age." Treatise on Compound Oxygen, its nature, action, and results, with reports of cases and full information sent free. Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1109 and 1111 Girard Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Mathews, 606 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

Not the measure of knowledge which a teacher possesses, but the measure of knowledge which a teacher can impart to another, is the true standard of a teacher's power. Not what he knows, but what he can cause another to know, measures his teaching ability. Questioning a scholar at the close of a lesson would show to an outsider how much of a teacher is over that scholar's class, a great deal better than questioning the teacher before the recitation.—*S. Trust him little who praises all, him less who censures all, and him least who is indifferent about all.—Lavater.

Cancers and Other Tumors are treated with unusual success by World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. Send stamp for pamphlet.

The place selected for the Long-fellow Memorial bust at Westminster Abbey is in Poet's Corner between the tombs of Chaucer and Dryden.—N. Y. Observer.

EARS FOR THE MILLION.

Foo Choo's Balsam of Shark's Oil

Positively Restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness Known.

This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small White Shark, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as Carcharodon Rondeletii. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous and many so seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for over 300 years no Deafness has existed among the Chinese people. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.

Hear What the Deaf Say:

It has performed a miracle in my case. I have no unearthly noises in my head and hear much better. I have been greatly benefited. My deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me. My hearing is much benefited. I have received untold benefit. My hearing is improving. It is giving good satisfaction. Have been greatly benefited, and am rejoiced that I saw the notice of it.

"Its" virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personally testify, both from experience and observation. Write at once to Haylock & Jenney, 7 Dey Street, New York, enclosing $1.00, and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like anybody else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so."—Editor of Mercantile Review.
