

OBITUARY.

Died, on the 27th day of July, 1883, near Hillsboro, of scarlet fever, little Nathaniel, son of N. C. and Catharine Richardson, at the age of 9 years and 9 months. Of such he said "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." So the youngest and tenderest of the household is gone on before, not dead, a tender scion transplanted to Eden's fair bowers, there to bloom for eternity.

MARRIED.

At the home of the bride's parents, in Scio, Oregon, August 14, 1883, at 8 o'clock, P. M., Miss Lizzie Johnson to Mr. J. H. Daniels, of Albany, by D. M. Doty.

Sister Lizzie was the oldest daughter of Bro. and Sister Charles Johnson. She goes with her husband to live at Albany, where he is engaged in selling music instruments. We commend Sister Lizzie to the church and good people of Albany as a Christian lady. We throw our slipper after them.

A Rapid Decline Arrested.

Mrs. Anna G. Fourqurean, of San Marco, Texas, wife of a well-known and influential citizen of that place, writing under date of May 21, 1881, says: "In the Spring of 1878, a deep cold settled on my lungs; I had a dreadful cough accompanied by daily fevers, sleepless nights, indigestion, loss of flesh and strength, mental depression, and hemorrhages from the lungs. This state continued for eighteen months, notwithstanding I had the treatment of good physicians. By this time I had lost all vitality, spent most of the time in bed, coughed continually, raising a large quantity of deep yellow mucus, and after a little sleep in the latter part of the night, I would awaken drenched by night sweats, and so prostrated that I could not raise myself in bed until I had taken a little brandy. I began to lose hopes of life. My husband and my neighbors thought I could not possibly live. About this time your 'Compound Oxygen Treatment' was brought to our notice. My husband immediately sent for it; I stopped the use of all medicines and began the 'Treatment' I was too weak at first to take it for as long a time as two minutes; but gradually the inhalations increased in length and strength, and would leave such a delightful sense of relief to my lungs that I loved to inhale. My fevers grew lighter each day until I had none. Two weeks from the beginning of the treatment I began to feel like a new person; could talk well; found myself singing while at my work; indeed I scarcely recognized my own self; my flesh increased, and I felt and looked younger. I used the 'Treatment' four months faithfully; after that irregularly for several months; and at the end of twelve months from the time I began it, I had no cough, no sign of lung disease; in other words, I was well. It is more than a year since I left off taking the Oxygen, and I have had no return of the disease." Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen its nature, action, and results, with reports of cases, and full information sent free. DRs. STARKEY & PALEN, 1109 & 1111 Girard Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

All orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Mathews, 606 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

BOOK TABLE.

[Under this head we will be pleased to give editorial reviews of all books and tracts of interest that may be sent to this office.]

The North American Review for September is an admirably constituted number, whether we regard the timeliness and importance of the subjects presented, or the eminent competence of the authors chosen for the discussion. First comes "State Regulation of Corporate Profits," by Chief-Justice T. M. Cooley, of Michigan, showing how far, by wise legislation and by applying in the spirit of enlightened jurisprudence the principles of the common law, the harrowing exactions of corporate companies and monopolies in general may be restrained and the interests of the people effectually conserved. John A. Kasson, M. C., writes on "Municipal Reform," and offers suggestions for the abatement of the evils of misgovernment in our great municipalities that will command the earnest interest of all good citizens without respect to party. Richard Grant White treats of "Class Distinctions in the United States," a subject that is destined to occupy more and more the attention of the American people as great fortunes increase. "Shooting at Sight" is the subject of some pertinent reflections by James Jackson, Chief-Justice of the State of Georgia. In "Facts about the Caucus and the Primary," George Walton Green unveils the tricks practiced by political managers in large cities. The well-known English essayist, W. H. Mallock, contributes "Conversations with a Solitary," in which he sets forth with much ingenuity the arguments adverse to popular government. The Rev. Dr. D. S. Phelan contributes an article sparkling with epigrams, on the "Limitations of Freethinking." Finally, Grant Allen, the most charming of all living writers on natural history, discourses on "An American Wild Flower." Published at 30 Lafayette Place, New York, and for sale by booksellers generally.

"Golden Medical Discovery" (words registered as a trade-mark) cures all humors from the pimple or eruption to great virulent eating ulcers.

"It is remarkable with what Christian fortitude and resignation we can bear the sufferings of others."—Dean Swift.

Epilepsy of Nine Years.

"I thank the giver of all good gifts," writes J. N. Marshall, of Granby, Newton Co., Mo., "for giving me Samarian Nerveine. It cured my daughter's epileptic fits, of 9 years standing." Get at druggists. $1.50.

This powder never varies. A marvel purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can not be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 12-8-1y 106 Wall St., New York.

EARS FOR THE MILLION.

Foo Choo's Balsam of Shark's Oil

Positively Restores the Hearing, and is the Only Absolute Cure for Deafness Known.

This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small White Shark, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as Carcharodon Rondeletii. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures were so numerous and many so seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for over 300 years no Deafness has existed among the Chinese people. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.

Hear What the Deaf Say:

It has performed a miracle in my case. I have no unearthly noises in my head and hear much better.

I have been greatly benefited. My deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me.

My hearing is much benefited. I have received untold benefit.

My hearing is improving.

It is giving good satisfaction.

I have been greatly benefited, and am rejoiced that I saw the notice of it.

"Its virtues are unquestionable and its curative character absolute, as the writer can personally testify, both from experience and observation. Write at once to Haylock & Jenney, 7 Dey Street, New York, enclosing $1.00, and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like anybody else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so."—Editor of Mercantile Review.
