

BOOK TABLE.

[Under this head we will be pleased to give editorial reviews of all books and tracts of interest that may be sent to this office.]

OUR CHRISTMAS IN A PALACE, by Edward Everett Hale.—This is a new Christmas story now in press. In it Mr. Hale will tell us of a party of passengers traveling in the far West; each bound probably to the Christmas hearth of some good friend. While en route they become snow-bound in the Rocky Mountains and have to spend their Christmas in a Palace Car. Making the best of their situation, each contributes to the enjoyment of the occasion, bringing from their trunks such entertainment as they have, while the strangeness of the situation and the hilarity of the party dispel every thought of loneliness. We bespeak for the readers of this book an enjoyable feast. The book will be issued in ample time for the "Holiday Season." To be published by FUNK & WAGNALLS, 10 and 12 Dey Street, New York. 12mo, about 300 pages. Price, cloth, $1.00. Ready Nov. 10.

A POPULAR LIFE OF MARTIN LUTHER, based upon Kostlin's Life of Luther.—As prepared by Prof. W. Rein, Seminary Director at Eisenach, in Germany, translated and edited by the Rev. G. F. Behringer, Brooklyn, N. Y. The memorial celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of Luther's birth is exciting a world-wide interest. Aside from all religious questions, the great Reformer occupies a conspicuous place in history, and as a historical character alone his life is worthy of study. To present an attractive and popular record of the man, which shall at the same time be scholarly and reliable, is the aim of this volume. It retains all that is interesting in the two volumes (not the condensed work issued in one volume in Germany and announced for publication in this country) of Kostlin's extensive work, omitting abstruse and technical points of purely theological interest, and yet presenting the salient features of its subject in so attractive a manner that the interest never flags. We greatly err if it will not prove the best popular life of the great reformer ever printed in the English language. It will be printed in GUNK & WAGNALLS' STANDARD LIBRARY, No. 101. Price 25 cents in paper; cloth, $1.00. Ready Nov. 2.

ILLUSTRATIONS AND MEDITATIONS, by Charles H. Spurgeon.—This is a book of much quaintness and rare interest. From the twenty-two volumes of the staunch Paritan, Thomas Manton, the renowned editor has culled a collection of figures and metaphors rich in thought and fertile in illustration. The terse sentences and pithy phrases of the old writer have a freshness about them that is morally invigorating. Mr. Spurgeon has added to each saying brief remarks of his own, lending additional interest to the original selections. An Index of texts and another of subjects accompanies the volume and will be helpful to public speakers and writers. FUNK & WAGNALLS, New York.

OBITUARY.

Eugene, Ore., Sept. 20, 1883.

Dear Bro. Floyd:

This is to give notice of the death of our venerable and beloved brother, Frederick Fisher. He was born January 5, 1796, and died September 27, 1883. One by one they pass away. He obeyed the Lord in 1840, and has lived a consistent Christian ever since. He always filled his place in the house of the Lord, and when age and infirmity prevented him he was greatly missed.

Father Fisher leaves two sons and one daughter to mourn his absence. They are all members of the Church of Christ. When on his death bed he said he had no fears before him, and he desired to go. O, that we may all live so that we may desire to depart and be with the Lord.

Died, near Pine City, Sept. 23, 1883, John Milton Rigs, aged 23 years. He was the oldest child of Sister Richardson. His death occurred as follows: On September 19th the erysipelous broke out on his face from a boil that had made its appearance a few days previous. His friends did not think of anything serious until Saturday the 22nd, when the doctor was called and pronounced it almost a hopeless case; and Sunday night, at 11 P. M. his spirit left his body and took its flight to eternity. And on Sept. 24th, at 4 P. M., we laid his body away where it will remain until the resurrection morn. He was to have been married in a few weeks to an excellent young lady who with his mother, two brothers and two sisters, deeply mourn his loss. He was an excellent young man and has a host of friends whose sympathies are with those that mourn their lost loved one.

Your brother,

T. J. CANNON.

When you have a cough or cold ask for Ammen's Cough Syrup. It will surely cure you.

CAMPO, San Diego Co., Cal., May 16th, 1882.—Mr. Robt. S. Ammer, San Jose: Please find enclosed twenty dollars (20), for which send us Ammen's Cough Syrup—$10 worth of 50-cent bottles and $10 in $1 size. Send by express to San Diego, Cal. It has a good start in this neighborhood. It gives good satisfaction and is a good medicine. If anything is the matter with the throat or lungs, it gives immediate relief. Send immediately, for we are entirely out.

GASKILL BROS.

[The above is the third order received from Messrs. Gaskill Bros. during the Winter and Spring of 1881-82, and not one dollar has been spent in advertising in their county. It proves that a good, honest remedy like Ammen's Cough Syrup will win its own way to public favor, and those who buy continue to use it and recommend it to their friends].

Intense Suffering Relieved.

A gentleman in Magnolia, Miss., whose wife had been a fearful sufferer from Neuralgia, made a trial of Compound Oxygen in her case. After six weeks he made this report: "Since my wife commenced the use of Compound Oxygen, she has not had an attack of headache. She was threatened once or twice, but it passed off; and she tells me to-day that her head feels more natural now than it has since she commenced to suffer with neuralgia. We feel happy that we were induced to try your treatment, and think that it has saved my wife from the grave or the asylum, to one of which she would certainly have gone had relief not been found." Our treatise on Compound Oxygen, its nature, action, and results, with reports of cases and full information, sent free. DRs. STARKEY & PALEN, 1109 & 1111 Girard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

All orders for Compound Oxygen Home Treatment directed to H. E. Matthews, 606 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, will be filled on the same terms as if sent directly to us in Philadelphia.

As the sun does not wait for prayers and incantations before he rises, but straightway shines forth, and is hailed of all, so do not wait to do good for applause and noise and praise, but do it of your own desire; and, like the sun, you will be loved.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is everywhere acknowledged to be the standard remedy for female complaints and weaknesses. It is sold by druggists.
