We are glad to hear from our Pioneers weekly. Hope Bro. Lucas will keep us well posted, as to the amount of dancing and card playing the gray-haired Pioneers do.

We acknowledge a call this week from Sister M. B. Riggs. She called to pay her church dues. This is a noble mission, and it would not offend us in the least if a few others would call on the same business.

Bro. P. R. Burnett preached at Farmington, Or., last Lord's day. He reports one addition. Also that he got the brethren to promise to meet every Lord's day and keep house for the Lord. This is a move in the right direction.

LETTER FROM OUR PIONEERS.

MONMOUTH, ILL., Oct. 28, 1883.
Galesburg I found to be a prosperous R. R., center and containing quite a number of Colleges, hence the name College City is applied. The Christian church is small and have a very inferior building compared with others in the city. We had the pleasure of hearing Bro. Kelsay to day at this place, on the subject of "not only believing, but doing." I am persuaded that one of the greatest hindrances to the churches here, is keeping all members in the church whoever become members, regardless of their after life; hence there are defenders of dancing, card playing, etc., notwithstanding we are commanded to "be not conformed to this world," those being worldly institutions. Therefore those indulging, certainly conform to this world; and here let me express my astonishment that old professors on the train coming over would sit down and play cards along with men of doubtful character for hours with just as nimble fingers as the saloon bummer. We have visited our old homestead and seen the changes wrought in about 32 years. My brother, J. C. Lucas, owning the pleasant old home of Mrs. L—, he having amassed a fine fortune, and yet seems alive to the Master's cause. Since our arrival the weather has been very much as Oregon winter weather, yet the blue grass is nice and green, the introduction of which has made Illinois a fine stock country.

I have been laboring under a severe cold for more than a week, and was sorry we could not attend the general Convention on account of it.

I will write a few lines each week so my children and all other friends may know of our moves. A. W. LUCAS.

Advice To Mothers.

MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once: it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cts. a bottle. 13-20-ly

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882.
MESSRS. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen:
Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.
Yours respectfully,
Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
