

BOOK TABLE.

[Under this head we will be pleased to give editorial reviews of all books and tracts of interest that may be sent to this office.]

BY-WAYS OF LITERATURE, by David H. Wheeler, LL.D., (Late Editor of the New York Methodist,) President of Allegheny College.—A series of Essays on things old and new, in the customs, Education, character, literature and language of the English-speaking people of the last fourteen centuries. In tracing these changes, Dr. Wheeler has brought out in a pleasant manner—not in the didactic style of a text-book—many amusing and trite incidents which cannot fail to enlist hearty interest. He gives us what general history leaves unnoticed—a clear portrait of the thought of old-time English people. Their ways of thinking are brought in contrast with "Modern" ideas, and the dissimilarity is at once striking, curious and complete. This is a most interesting and instructive book. Published in FUNK & WAGNALLS' STANDARD LIBRARY, No. 100. PRICE, 25 CENTS.

Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont has a very entertaining paper in the November Wide Awake, entitled "My Arizona Class," in which she gives an account of her work in the Prescott School, at the time when General Fremont was Governor of Arizona.

Elizabeth Stuart Phelps is busy completing her serial for Wide Awake. It is called "A Brave Girl," and the opening scenes are at Smith College.

Mrs. Kate Gannett Wells has written a short serial story for Wide Awake, entitled "His Three Trials."

The concluding chapters of "Buttered Crusts," Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney's serial, appear in the November Wide Awake.

The fascination of old-fashioned things is emphasized in the presentation of the subject made by Luthera Whitney, with the aid of Mr. Bodfish's capital illustrations, in the holiday book, "Old-Time Days and Ways," just published by D. Lothrop & Co. It will be read with delight by old and young.

"Twenty-Six Hours a Day," a book published by D. Lothrop & Co., from papers which originally appeared in Scribner's Monthly, with its puzzling title, bids fair to attract even more attention than when it appeared in serial form. Its original treatment of home questions entitles it to the renewed attention accorded it.

The charming "Family Flight" books hitherto noticed, by Edward Everett Hale and Miss Susan Hale, have a companion volume which reproduces all the excellences of the preceding ones, in "A Family Flight through Spain," an elegantly illustrated and most entertaining book.

The thousands of friends made by the late Dr. Manning of the Old South Church, Boston, during his long ministry, in all parts of the country, will welcome the last, and perhaps best, work of his pen, in the volume, "Not of Man, but of God," just published by D. Lothrop & Co.

The second volume of the "Chautauqua Young Folks' Annual," an admirable book for the young folks of the Chautauqua family, and all others, has been published by D. Lothrop & Co.

THE PULPIT TREASURY, for November is on our table. A portrait of Rev. Jos. Cook, and a comprehensive and appreciative sketch of his life and work with a characteristic sermon delivered at the dedication of the New England Congregational Church, Saratoga Springs is a prominent feature of this number. D. L. Moody's opening sermon at the late Convention in Chicago, a Thanksgiving sermon by Dr. J. T. Duryea and another by Dr. T. De Witt Talmage are the sermons given in full. Leading Thoughts of Sermons are from these by Principal Rainy, of Edinburg, Pres. Beach of Middleton, Pres. Patton, of Washington. Dr. John Hall commences a series of articles on Side Lines of Ministerial Labor. Prof. Riddle has a second article on Training in Textual Criticism, Prof. Tillett a second article on The Sins of the Intellect. Other articles in the various departments are by Drs. Flagg, Allen Tucker, MacArthur, Vincent, Porter, Cuyler and Revs. Dunn, Dickson, Spurgeon. Cox and Wallace. The variety and ability displayed in this magazine invest it with surpassing excellence, and make it indispensable to the Preacher, Sunday School teacher and Christian worker. $2.50 per year. 25 cents single copy. Clergymen, $2.00. E. B. Treat, 757 Broadway, New York.

To Consumptives.

Reader, can you believe that the creator afflicts one-third of mankind with a disease for which there is no remedy? Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured hundreds of cases of consumption, and men are living to-day healthy, robust men—whom physicians pronounced incurable, because one lung was almost gone. Send two stamps for Dr. Pierce's pamphlet on Consumption and Kindred Affections. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Earnestness commands the respect of mankind. A wavering, vacillating, dead-and-alive Christian does not get the respect of the Church or the world.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the best successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
