Report from Centerville.

CENTERVILLE, OR.,
Dec. 7, 1883.

Bro. Floyd:

I returned last week from a meeting held at the head of Eight-mile, in the eastern part of this county. Three persons were baptized and an organization composed of thirteen members effected. On last Sunday, at this place, Bro. Jas. W. Webb, of Lompoc, Cal., preached a most excellent discourse, at the close of which one person made the good confession, and the same day was baptized. We also had two additions to the church by letter.

Fraternally,
R. H. MOSS.

To the Churches of Linn County

Dear Brethren:

The time for our semi-annual co-operation meeting is near at hand (Jan. 16, 1884), and, according to your wishes a programme has been made out and sent to the HERALD for publication, so you will see when and where the meeting is to be, and who will be there to take part in the proceedings. Now let each church see that delegates be chosen by the first Sunday in January, and send them with written credentials. Also let every church take up a collection especially for the county work before that meeting, and send it up by the delegates.

And to those brethren whose names appear on the programme we will say, we could not very well consult each of you in regard to a subject, so we selected such subjects as we thought profitable for the meeting and assigned to brethren that we thought would respond cheerfully. Brethren, we want you there and do not disappoint us. We are hoping and praying for a grand meeting, a real soul feast.

Come let us reason and rejoice together.

Missionary Meeting at Scio.

SCIO, OR., Dec. 5, 1883.

Dear Bro. Floyd:

I wish to announce through the HERALD that on last Lord's day evening, according to previous arrangements, Sister E. J. Barker, Vice-President of the W. C. M. S. of Oregon, was with us for the purpose of organizing an Auxiliary Society at Scio. At 7 P. M. a large audience (one of the largest we ever have seen in Scio) collected at the Christian church.

Meeting came to order and R. H. Ashby acted as Secretary for the evening. After reading the last chapter of Matthew Bro. W. W. Richardson lead in an earnest prayer for the success of the mission work; after which Bro. D. M. Doty made some pertinent remarks on missionary work from the two last verses of the chapter read.

After this he introduced Sister E. J. Barker, who then addressed the audience on "Woman Mission Work in Oregon." Her address was to the point and full of the spirit of Jesus, and was well received by the people. After her address, the Constitution of the W. C. M. S. was read and an auxiliary organized of ten members with the following officers: President, Sister N. Gill; Vice-President, Sister V. Johnson; Cor. Sec., N. C. Doty; Rec. Sec., Sister T. Ashby; Treasurer, Sister H. A. Johnson.

After the organization the society took up a collection, resulting in $3.60. Sisters N. Biggar and F. Reynolds have been appointed as soliciting committee. The society starts out with favorable prospects for good, and we hope to be able to contribute something each quarter to the general fund, so that by the end of this year's work of the W. C. M. S. we may be able to commence sending the bread of life to the perishing.

MRS. N. C. DOTY, Cor. Sec.
