

To be nameless in worthy deeds exceeds an infamous history. The Canaanitish woman lives more happily without a name than Herodias with one; and who would not rather have been the penitent thief than Pilate?—Sir Thomas Brown.

Hysteria and Nervous Prostration.

We give our readers an extract from a cheerful letter, written by Mrs. Eliza Beth Smith, of Richmond, Ind., who says: "Samaritan Nervine cured me of hysteria and nervous prostration." Comment is useless.

Seek to love nothing out of God. God remakes a broken heart and filleth it with love. He can not fill a divided heart. Bring all things, as thou mayst, nigh to God; let them not bring thee away from him.—Dr. Pusey.

Advice To Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once: it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cts. a bottle. 13-20-ly

Many will find gifts at their Father's table at the great marriage feast of the Lamb which they never knew they were to have, and some which they fancied were lost irrevocably on earth.—Kingston.

Ammen's Cough Syrup never fails to cure if used in time and according to directions.

Stockton, Cal., Dec. 30, 1881.—I sell Ammen's Cough Syrup, feeling confident your reputation as an apothecary would prevent your putting any trash on the market, and the price being about the same as the best class of remedies. I have no object in discriminating against it, so I wish you success

There is not a more repulsive sight than an old man who will not forsake the world, which has already forsaken him.

The world-wide reputation of Ayer's Hair Vigor is due to its healthy action on the hair and scalp, through which it restores gray hair to its original color and imparts a gloss and freshness which makes it so much desired by all classes and conditions of people.

We cannot love by law, for law knows no love, and love knows no law but obedience to the supreme will.

If your lungs are almost wasted by consumption Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" will not cure you, yet as a remedy for severe coughs and all curable bronchial, throat, and lung affections, it is unsurpassed. AYER'S Hair Vigor restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

—ON THE—

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS.

This volume of comments and suggestions upon the Sunday School Lessons for 1884 is now ready. It has been carefully prepared by Dr. E. W. Herndon, the editor of the Christian Quarterly Review, a scholar whose concise methods of thought enable him to express what is needed in the fewest words. The Scripture readings are given in both the common version and the Revision in parallel columns, so that a glance will show the difference. The history of each lesson is concisely presented; the Lesson Notes are clear, plain, pointed, and free from useless verbiage and speculation, and the Application at the close will help the teacher in bringing all home to the heart of the pupil. It will be found that the geography, biography, and history required to a correct understanding is unusually full. A pronouncing dictionary adds much to its value.

The volume contains about two hundred broad pages, giving about four pages to each lesson. It is printed on clear, bold type, and substantially bound. Though a costly book, in order to place it in the hands of every teacher in every school we place it at lower rates than such a volume has ever been sold.

Price, Single Copy, Post-paid, 60 cents.

Where one dozen are ordered, or one ordered for every teacher in the school, whether more or less than a dozen, the price will be 50 cents.

Where as many as twenty are ordered at 50 cents each, an extra copy will be given.
