

I will tell you my rule: Talk about those subjects you have had long in your mind, and listen to what others say about subjects you have studied but recently. Knowledge and timber should't be much used till they are seasoned.—Oliver Wendell Homes.

Cured When Physicians Give up.

"Our family physician gave up our child to die," wrote Henry Knece, Esq., of Verilla, Warren Co., Tenn. "It had fits. Samaritan Nervine has cured the child." $1.50.

You cannot serve two masters, you must serve one or the other. If your work is first with you, and your fee second, work is your master, and the lord of work, who is God. But if your fee is first with you and your work second, fee is your master, and the lord of fee who is the devil.—John Ruskin.

For a cough or cold there is no remedy equal to Ammen's Cough Syrup.

When we see a medicine advertised to cure a half dozen or more classes of diseases, we conclude that it is a humbug. And having noticed that the proprietor of Ammen's Cough Syrup only advertises or claims it good for coughs, colds and lung complaints, we were induced to try it, and now take pleasure in recommending it to our readers.

Exaggerated speech makes one careless of the truth. The habit of using words without regard to their rightful meaning, often leads one to distort facts to misrepresent conversations, and to magnify statements in which the literal truth is important to be told. You can never trust the testimony of any one who in common conversation is indifferent to the import and regardless of the power of words.—Peabody.

Advice To Mothers.

Mrs WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once: it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cts. a bottle. 13-20-ly

Wondrous is the strength of cheerfulness, altogether past calculation its powers of endurance. Efforts, to be permanently useful, must be uniformly joyous—a spirit all sunshine, graceful from every gladness, beautiful because bright.—Carlyle.

A torpid liver, a stomach out of order, digestive apparatus weak, and the brain in consequence of these disorders, over sensitive to exertion or to any unusual circumstance, and the formula for a "crank" is complete. Ayer's Pills will rouse up the liver, regulate the functions of the stomach and bowels, the tired brain will be relieved, and the head resume its wonted level.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

—ON THE—

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS.

This volume of comments and suggestions upon the Sunday School Lessons for 1884 is now ready. It has been carefully prepared by Dr. E. W. Herndon, the editor of the Christian Quarterly Review, a scholar whose concise methods of thought enable him to express what is needed in the fewest words. The Scripture readings are given in both the common version and the Revision in parallel columns, so that a glance will show the difference. The history of each lesson is concisely presented; the Lesson Notes are clear, plain, pointed, and free from useless verbiage and speculation, and the Application at the close will help the teacher in bringing all home to the heart of the pupil. It will be found that the geography, biography, and history required to a correct understanding is unusually full. A pronouncing dictionary adds much to its value.

The volume contains about two hundred broad pages, giving about four pages to each lesson. It is printed on clear, bold type, and substantially bound. Though a costly book, in order to place it in the hands of every teacher in every school we place it at lower rates than such a volume has ever been sold.

Price, Single Copy, Post-paid, 60 cents.

Where one dozen are ordered, or one ordered for every teacher in the school, whether more or less than a dozen, the price will be 50 cents.

Where as many as twenty are ordered at 50 cents each, an extra copy will be given. Address,
