

The doubts of God's goodness, whence are they? Rarely from the weary and over-burdened, from those broken in the practical service of grief and toil; but from theoretic students at ease in their closets of meditation, treated themselves most gently by that legislation of the universe which they criticise with a melancholy so profound.—Martineau.

$2,500 versus $1.50.

"I spent $2,500. with other doctors," writes Mr. J. W. Thornton, of Claiborn, Miss., "Samaritan Nervine however alone cured my son of fits." This is on a par with hundreds of others, speedy but thorough.

To spend too much time in studies is sloth; to use them too much for ornament is affectation; to make judgment wholly by their rules is the humor of the scholar. They perfect nature, and are perfected by experience.—Bacon.

Advice To Mothers.

MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once: it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cts. a bottle. 13-20-ly

"Mother," cries Harry, excitedly. "Roy set his trap in the woods and caught a mouse; and oh, there were tons and tons of gnawings!"

Young and middle-aged men, suffering from nervous debility and kindred affections, as loss of memory and hypochondria, should inclose three stamps for Part VII of World's Dispensary Dime Series of pamphlets. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo N. Y.

The Persian proverb "Woe unto that nation where the young have the vices of age, and the aged retain the follies of youth," might be remembered profitably by this particular nation.

Ammen's Cough Syrup never fails to cure if used in time and according to directions.

Why does not the proprietor of Ammen's Cough Syrup publish testimonials from those who have been cured or relieved by his medicine? The answer is, the greater the humbug the more testimonials they publish. Ammen's Cough Syrup is no humbug, and to prove that and let it stand on its own merits, a 15-cent sample bottle is prepared, which is certainly more convincing than a testimonial from a stranger. Large bottles, $1.00. Ask your druggist for it.

An old bachelor says: "It is all nonsense to pretend that love is blind. I never knew a man in love that did not see ten times as much in his sweetheart as I could."

Indulgence and Excesses.

Whether over eating or drinking are made harmless by using Hop Bitters freely, giving elegant appetite and enjoyment by using them before and removing all dullness, pains and distress afterwards, leaving the head clear, nerves steady, and all the feelings buoyant, elastic and more happy than before. The pleasing effects of a Christian or sumptuous dinner continuing days afterwards.

Eminent Testimony.
N. Y. Witness, Aug. 15, 1880.

"I find that in addition to the pure spirits contained in their composition, they contain the extracts of hops and other well-known and highly approved medicinal roots, leaves and tinctures in quantities sufficient to render the article what the makers claim it to be, to-wit, a medicinal preparation and not a beverage—unfit and unsafe to be used except as a medicine."

"From a careful analysis of their formula—which was attested under oath—I find that in every wine-glassful of Hop Bitters, the active medicinal properties aside from the distilled spirits are equal to a full dose for an adult, which fact in my opinion, subjects it to an internal revenue tax as a medicinal bitter."

GREEN B. RAUM, U. S. Com. In. Rev.

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water. All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave.

J. W. MOREY, Buffalo, Oct. 1, '81.

Poverty and Suffering.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by my family and large bills for doctoring. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost, I know it."

EXPLANATORY NOTES

—ON THE—

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS.

This volume of comments and suggestions upon the Sunday School Lessons for 1884 is now ready. It has been carefully prepared by Dr. E. W. Herndon, the editor of the Christian Quarterly Review, a scholar whose concise methods of thought enable him to express what is needed in the fewest words. The Scripture readings are given in both the common version and the Revision in parallel columns, so that a glance will show the difference. The history of each lesson is concisely presented; the Lesson Notes are clear, plain, pointed, and free from useless verbiage and speculation, and the Application at the close will help the teacher in bringing all home to the heart of the pupil. It will be found that the geography, biography, and history required to a correct understanding is unusually full. A pronouncing dictionary adds much to its value.

The volume contains about two hundred broad pages, giving about four pages to each lesson. It is printed on clear, bold type, and substantially bound. Though a costly book, in order to place it in the hands of every teacher in every school we place it at lower rates than such a volume has ever been sold.

Price, Single Copy, Post-paid, 60 cents.

Where one dozen are ordered, or one ordered for every teacher in the school, whether more or less than a dozen, the price will be 50 cents.

Where as many as twenty are ordered at 50 cents each, an extra copy will be given.
