

Washington Irving once said to a lady: "Don't be anxious about the education of your daughters; they will do very well; don't teach them so many things; teach them one thing." "What is that, Mr. Irving?" "Teach them," he said, "to be easily pleased."

Young and middleaged men suffering from nervous debility, premature old age, loss of memory, and kindred symptoms, should send three stamps for Part VII of pamphlets issued by World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Out of the soil in which deciduous leaves are buried, the young tree shoots vigorously, and strikes its roots deep down into the realms of decay and death. Upon the life of the vegetable world the myriad forms of higher life sustain themselves—still the same law, the sacrifice of life for life.—F. W. Robertson.

Advice To Mothers.

Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once: it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cts. a bottle. 13-20-ly

We do not go to heaven, but heaven comes to us. They whose inner eye is opened to see heaven, and they who see it, are in it; and the air to them is thick with angels, like the background of Raphael's "Mother in Glory."—F. Hedge.

Beautiful Women are made pallid and unattractive by functional irregularities, disorders and weakness that are perfectly cured by following the suggestions given in an illustrated treatise (with colored plates) sent for three letter postage stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo N. Y.

There is no vacant place in the universe so suggestive as the empty grave of Jesus.—J. M. Pendleton.

Ammen's Cough Syrup cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and consumption.

We think it unnecessary to go to a doctor and pay him to prescribe for a common cold. At the same time it is of the utmost importance to pay attention to it and get relief—or evil consequences may follow. We use Ammen's Cough Syrup. It has never failed yet to do all that is claimed for it, and we take pleasure in recommending it to our readers. If you have not tried this medicine, go to your druggist and ask to see a large bottle and read the label.

A great many people in this world praise goodness, then do as they have a mind to. They follow the advice of George Herbert to "Praise the sea, but keep on land."

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."

A. J. CRANE."

Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."

JOSEPH WALDEN."

Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."

E. BRADON."

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

—ON THE—

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS.

This volume of comments and suggestions upon the Sunday School Lessons for 1884 is now ready. It has been carefully prepared by Dr. E. W. Herndon, the editor of the Christian Quarterly Review, a scholar whose concise methods of thought enable him to express what is needed in the fewest words. The Scripture readings are given in both the common version and the Revision in parallel columns, so that a glance will show the difference. The history of each lesson is concisely presented; the Lesson Notes are clear, plain, pointed, and free from useless verbiage and speculation, and the Application at the close will help the teacher in bringing all home to the heart of the pupil. It will be found that the geography, biography, and history required to a correct understanding is unusually full. A pronouncing dictionary adds much to its value.

The volume contains about two hundred broad pages, giving about four pages to each lesson. It is printed on clear, bold type, and substantially bound. Though a costly book, in order to place it in the hands of every teacher in every school we place it at lower rates than such a volume has ever been sold.

Price, Single Copy, Post-paid, 60 cents.

Where one dozen are ordered, or one ordered for every teacher in the school, whether more or less than a dozen, the price will be 50 cents.

Where as many as twenty are ordered at 50 cents each, an extra copy will be given.
