Freshmen step up for Dallas

Dragons place second at Brunner Invitational

Itemizer-Observer staff report
DALLAS — Some new faces broke through for the Dallas wrestling team on Saturday during the Dragons' lone home tournament of the season.

Freshmen Noah Sickles (113 pounds) and Treve Earhart (152) placed first at the Brunner Invitational.

"It was a big weekend for our two emerging freshmen," Dallas coach Tony Olliff said. "They both had big wins in the finals of the Brunner Invitational."

Matt Hofenbredl (138) also placed first, while Ryan Bibler (106), Nolan Miller (120), Jeff Dunagan (160) and Tyson Janssen (170) finished second.

"It was nice to have (Matt) Hofenbredl back in the lineup," Olliff said. "We are always a better team when he wrestles."

The Dragons began the week by winning three Mid-Willamette Conference dual meets to start the league season on Friday. The Dragons defeated Lebanon 57-15, Central 54-25 and Corvallis 66-15.

"I was really impressed with Central's upper weights, winning the last five straight against us," Olliff said. "I thought our boys did a real good job getting pins where they could.

Those six-point wins really add up."

Dallas hosts Woodburn Wednesday (today) at 6 p.m. for another league dual meet. The Dragons then travel to Portland to take part in the Parkrose Tournament on Saturday.

CENTRAL SWEEPS HOME DUALS: The Central wrestling team went 3-0 at the Central Four-way on Saturday. The Panthers defeated Amity 66-12, Banks 51-15 and Siuslaw 57-16. Christopher Chavez (132 pounds), Collin Swinehart (145), Gabriel Arreguin (160), Tanner Swinehart (170), David Negrete (182), Riley Olson (195) and Marlon Tuipulotu (285) went undefeated during the dual matches. Central opened its week going 1-2 during three Mid-Willamette Conference dual meets Friday at Dallas. The Panthers defeated Corvallis 41-30 and lost to Dallas 54-25 and Lebanon 44-24. Central travels to South Albany Wednesday (today) for another league dual meet at 7 p.m.

Ford has big day for Dallas

Itemizer-Observer staff report
DALLAS — Dallas' boys and girls swim teams lost a nonleague dual meet to Blanchet on Thursday at the Dallas Aquatic Center.

The girls squad lost 48-43, while the boys fell 59-34.

Sophomore Jolie-Rae Ford finished first in the 200-yard individual medley in 2 minutes, 21.31 seconds, and the 100 freestyle (56.59). She was part of the winning 200- and 400-freestyle relay teams.

Elizabeth Dressel won the 100 butterfly (1:10.01) and the 100 backstroke (1:08.63), while Sarah Bonnet took first in the 500 freestyle (7:10.64).

Jesse Genualdi won the 100 freestyle in 1:03.71 to help lead the boys team. Lucas Diaz finished first in the 50 freestyle in 24.58 and Ryan Kennedy won the 500 freestyle (6:09.11).

The Dragons hosted Crescent Valley for a Mid-Willamette Conference meet Tuesday after press time.

CENTRAL BOYS PLACE SIXTH AT INVITATIONAL: Central's boys swim team placed sixth out of 10 teams at the Clemens Invitational at Philomath on Saturday. Daniel Glade finished third in the 200-yard individual medley in 2 minutes, 27.81 seconds, while Nathan Glade took third in the 100 backstroke (1:09.04). The girls team placed eighth at the Clemens Invitational. The Panthers' 200-yard relay team of Annie Taylor, Katie Miller, Sabrina Cedillo and Kate Taylor took second at the 10-team event. The relay team finished in a time of 2:20.22. Central opened the week falling to South Albany on Jan. 6. The girls lost 91-77, while the boys fell 127-40. Julissa Amador won the 100 freestyle (1:04.81), Cedillo placed first in the 100 butterfly (1:27.47) and Miller finished first in the 50 freestyle (59.16) for the girls. Daniel Glade placed second in the 200 individual medley (2:31.07) to lead the boys. The boys and girls squads placed third at the Newport Quad on Thursday. Daniel Glade took second in the 200 and 500 freestyle. Central traveled to Corvallis Tuesday after press time.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Dallas youth wins equestrian title

DALLAS — David Silver of Dallas has been awarded the American Morgan Horse Association's Gold Medal in Reining Seat Equitation.

Silver, 17, a senior at Perrydale High School, defeated other top performers from across the country to earn the association's highest equitation honor during the 2014 Grand National & World Championship Morgan Horse Show in Oklahoma City.

He qualified for the 2014 Grand National with a first-place finish in the Reining Seat on the Flat Silver Medal class at the Far West Regional Morgan Horse Show, held last summer in Redmond.

"I set my goal last year after finishing second in the medal and it's a really great feeling for it to have all come together this year," Silver said.

Silver also placed first in the Grand National Reining Green Horse Finals.

(A full feature story profiling Silver will appear in a future issue of the Itemizer-Observer.)

Mountaineers down Mohawk

Itemizer-Observer staff report

FALLS CITY — Falls City broke a six-game losing streak on Saturday after defeating Mohawk 46-30 win.

Jesse Sickles scored a game-high 16 points, while Tristan Yeager added 15 points.

"It was a barometer for us," Falls City coach Jim Owre said. "We saw how much we improved and we're showing the things that we need to show."

The Mountaineers (2-9 overall) began the week by falling to C. S. Lewis 47-35 on Jan. 6 and Crosshill Christian 69-34 on Friday. Falls City plays at Livingstone Academy on Thursday before hosting Jewell Tuesday at 7 p.m.

CENTRAL DEFEATS ST. HELENS: Central's boys basketball team ended its non-league season on a high, defeating St. Helens 55-46 on Friday. Tyler Fleming scored a team-high 13 points, while Kaj Bansen added 12 points. Bansen and Alec Barba scored eight points each in the third quarter, helping the Panthers erase a seven-point halftime deficit. Central opens Mid-Willamette Conference play by hosting South Albany Wednesday (today) at 7 p.m. The Panthers play at Dallas Friday at 7 p.m.

PIRATES DROP LEAGUE GAMES: Perrydale dropped a pair of Tri-River Conference contests last week, falling to Central Linn 60-52 on Jan. 6 and Regis 41-32 on Friday. Chad Price led the Pirates against Central Linn, scoring 23 points, while Haylen Janesofsky added 17 points. Price also led Perrydale against Regis with 14 points. "You hold a team to 41 points and I think you hope to win more games," Pirates coach Mike Lowry said. The Pirates played at East Linn Christian Tuesday after press time. Perrydale travels to Friday Western Mennonite on Friday.
