

OBITUARIES

Marge Lange

March 16, 1931 – Feb. 26, 2015

Marge Lange, 83, of Dallas died Thursday in Keizer following a three-year battle with the neurological disorder Progressive Supranuclear Palsy (PSP).

She was born to Gustav and Elizabeth Lachenmeier in Bismarck, N.D.

The family moved to Oregon in the late 1930s, living for a time in McMinnville and Newberg. Marge had lived most of her early life in Portland. She met the love of her life, Ken Lange, as a teenager at the Camp Arrahanna church camp. They dated for six years to complete school and Ken's Navy flight training. They were married at Trinity Baptist Church in December 1952 and were happily married for 62 years.

The couple enjoyed an adventurous life during Ken's 36 year Navy career and lived in many locations on the West Coast and East Coast of the United States before retiring to the Salt Creek area near Dallas.

Marge was very proud of being a Navy wife and had a "can do" independent attitude. Marge was an active volunteer at church and Navy base activities. When her own children reached adulthood, her love of children extended to others; she began working and subsequently became director of Teeny Weeny Daycare Center in Laurel, Md., a job she held for more than 10 years.

In 1988, Ken and Marge retired to Ken's "home place" in the Salt Creek community. Marge and Ken had an active retirement visiting and working with family and friends. They also enjoyed 25 years as snowbirds in Southern California, where she volunteered 15 years as an LPGA golf marshal. She loved getting autographs from famous individuals.

Most important to Marge was her love and devotion to family and her faith in Jesus Christ. She dearly loved her family and they brought her great joy. She was active in church throughout her life teaching children and, with a lovely soprano voice, singing in the choir. Marge was an excellent cook and avid recipe collector.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Emil, Rudy and Weston Lachenmeier.

Survivors include her husband, Ken; son, Rick Lange (Lynnette); daughters, Susan Thames (Dale), Debi Mynatt (John) and Terri Lange; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Memorial service is Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at Salt Creek Baptist Church.

Contributions are suggested to www.curepsp.org or www.camp-tapawingo.com. Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center handled arrangements. To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Margaret Mae McAbee

May 15, 1927 – Feb. 26, 2015

Margaret Mae McAbee, 87, of Grand Ronde died Thursday in Grand Ronde.

She was born to Paul B. and Elizabeth Leno Lafferty in Grand Ronde.

Margaret attended Chemawa Indian School in Salem and a vocational school in Eugene for home economics. For many years, she worked in food service and health care, and was a former employee of the Bonanza Restaurant in Grand Ronde. She also worked with her father training horses.

She enjoyed cooking, knitting, crocheting, beading, quilting, canning and horses. She loved feeding hundreds of birds at her home each day.

Margaret was a member of St. Michael Catholic Church in Grand Ronde.

She was preceded in death by four sisters and seven brothers.

Survivors include her daughters, Sharon Wattier and Marlene Groshong, both of Grand Ronde; sister, Juanita Lee; two grandsons; and one great-granddaughter.

Funeral Mass was Tuesday at St. Michael Catholic Church. Interment was at the Grand Ronde Tribal Cemetery.

Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center handled arrangements. To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Gene E. Cantrell

March 24, 1933 – March 1, 2015

Gene E. Cantrell, 81, of Dallas died Sunday in Dallas. He was born in Portland to Ray and Laura Smith Cantrell.

He was proud to have served in the U.S. Marine Corps and was stationed in Japan during the Korean War from April of 1952 to October of 1954.

Gene married Donna J. Martin in Clatskanie on June 30, 1956.

Gene was a hard worker and was self-employed as an excavator until his retirement in 2010. He had lived in Beaverton, then West Linn from 1963 to 1989, and then Tualatin until 2008, when they made Dallas their home.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Bob.

Survivors include his wife, Donna of Dallas; sons, Rodger of Milwaukie, Steven of Dallas, Mark of Philomath and Scott of Tualatin; daughter, Deborah Olson of Gresham; half-sister, Kathy Lee of Tigard; and 12 grandchildren.

Service is Saturday at 5 p.m. at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. Private family interment will be at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland.

To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Gloria Jean Kinney

Jan. 15, 1931 – Feb. 23, 2015

Gloria Jean Kinney, 84, of Dallas died Feb. 23.

Visitation is Wednesday (today) from 1 to 5 p.m. at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center.

Service is Thursday at 11:30 a.m. at Valley Life Center in Dallas. Interment is at Restlawn Memory Gardens, Salem.

To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Kenneth Wayne Erickson

Sept. 21, 1927 – Feb. 27, 2015

Kenneth Wayne Erickson, 87, of Salem died Feb. 27 in Salem.

He was born in Portland. Service is April 4 at 2 p.m. at Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Salem, 5090 Center St. NE.

Arrangements were handled by Restlawn Funeral Home of Salem.

Elsie Pearl Seals

June 13, 1918 – Feb. 9, 2015

Memorial service for Elsie Pearl Seals of Dallas is Saturday at 11 a.m. at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. Private interment will be at Dallas Cemetery.

To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Masako Wiseman

Sept. 5, 1925 – Feb. 22, 2015

Masako Wiseman, 89, of Dallas died Feb. 22.

She was born in Aichiken, Japan, to Takiniro and Kaki Kato.

She moved with her husband, Leonard, from Klamath Falls to live in Dallas in 1964.

She is survived by her husband, Leonard of Dallas.

Private interment will be at Willamette National Cemetery.

Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center handled arrangements. To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Audrey Louise Newell

Oct. 24, 1929 – Feb. 24, 2015

Audrey Louise Newell, 85, of Hoskins, near Kings Valley, died Feb. 24.

She was born in Joliet, Ill., to Art and Lucille Markgraf, five days before the big "Crash of '29."

As a young child, she along with her mother and baby twin sisters took a train to California to join her father, who found a job working on the dams. They settled in San Jose, Calif., where Audrey finished high school and started college at San Jose State.

Audrey headed to Magalia, Calif., to help her parents in a bar they had bought and it was there that she met a tall good looking cowboy who asked her to dance. The two danced together, and that was the beginning of a long, wonderful, happy life with Lucky Newell. They shared more than 64 years together as husband and wife.

Audrey and Lucky and their three daughters headed to Oregon, where they bought their first ranch in Airlie. Audrey found herself learning about ranch life, with all its trials and tribulations. She took care of the ranch pretty much on her own, as Lucky's job kept him on the road and he was only home on the weekends. Audrey and Lucky spent their last 45 years on a ranch in Hoskins. They lived in an old one-room schoolhouse, where she made a home filled with love and warmth. She could sew anything from wedding gowns to covers for the wagons, cook for hay crews and had a gift for any kind of craft.

They owned a team of horses and a wagon, and in the early 1990s started going on "wagon trains." In 1993, Lucky was asked to be the wagon master for the Sesquicentennial Polk County Wagon Train. Audrey picked up the lines and was the lead teamster on that train and many others since.

She was preceded in death by her great-grandchild, Dusty.

Survivors include her husband, Lucky Newell; daughters, Sandra "Sandi" Revell (John), Melinda Schoonover (Rick) and Debra Chambers (Rick); six grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

A potluck will be held to celebrate Audrey on Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Kings Valley Community Center.

Larry Darwin Hofenbredl

May 9, 1944 – Feb. 28, 2015

Larry Darwin Hofenbredl, 70, of Grand Ronde died Saturday in Portland.

He was born in McMinnville to John and Eileen Hofenbredl.

Larry attended Mountain Home School and later Willamina High School. He married Priscilla Holmes on Dec. 31, 1965, in McMinnville.

He worked for a shingle mill for a time and later planted trees with his brother, John. Larry and John started salvage logging for Miami.

Larry owned Hofenbredl Logging Co. and enjoyed working with his sons. He always enjoyed operating the loader. He was well versed in all aspects of logging. He enjoyed his daily work in the shop. He was always looking for the next project to tackle.

Larry always spent time with his children while they were growing up, many times taking them to the jobs and teaching them along the way.

Larry and Priscilla were absolutely dedicated to their children and grandchildren. He watched his children participate in logging competitions and motorcycle racing. They were faithful in attending their grandchildren's activities and were well known at all sporting events. They were just known as "Grandma and Grandpa Hof" and supported the whole team. They enjoyed following the grandkids, even if it meant driving to Illinois in a blizzard to watch wrestling or to Nevada to watch a volleyball match, or stopping in Idaho to see their grandchildren.

He enjoyed Spirit Mountain Casino and was an avid NASCAR fan.

Larry always had a smile on his face and was willing to help anyone out at any time, whether he knew you or not.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Ron; sister, Janice; son, Jay; and grandson, Travis Hofenbredl.

Survivors include his wife, Priscilla; daughters, Anna Huston and Julie Logan; sons, Larry Jr. (Barb), Kevin (Mart) and Lee Hofenbredl; brother, John Hofenbredl; 12 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

Visitation is Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. Celebration of life is Saturday at noon at the Dallas High School gymnasium. A fellowship reception will follow in the cafeteria. Interment will be at Green Crest Memorial Park in Sheridan.

Contributions are suggested to Dallas Mat Club, Dallas Booster Club, Willamina Booster Club or Sheridan Booster Club in care of the mortuary.

To send an online condolence: www.dallastrite.com.

Vernon Otis Pope

Feb. 4, 1920 – Feb. 13, 2015

Vernon Otis Pope, 95, of Aumsville died Feb. 13 in Salem.

He was born to Rollin Otis and Florence Etta (Cundy) Pope in a farmhouse six miles north of Artesian, S.D.

Following Vernon's graduation from Fedora High School in 1938, the family moved to Oregon in December of 1940. The Pope family resided in Salem, Independence and settled in Dallas, where they later established and ran Pope Dairy.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Chester Pope, and sisters, Carol Krause and Jean Gay.

Survivors include his wife, Elaine Pope of Aumsville; brother, Burton (Bonny) Pope of Dallas; sister, Beryl Garton of Boise, Idaho; son, Dennis (Gloria) Pope of Roseburg; daughters, Marilyn Pope of Aumsville and Shirley (Michael) White of Lebanon; three granddaughters; and one great-granddaughter.

Celebration of Vernon's life is Saturday at 2 p.m. at Bethel Baptist Church in Aumsville. His remains were interred at Aumsville Cemetery.

Contributions are suggested to Bethel Baptist Church or to the American Heart Association.

Weddle Funeral Services handled arrangements.

CROWN
MEMORIAL CENTERS
CREMATION & BURIAL
A New Tradition™

Salem
412 Lancaster Drive NE
Salem, OR 97301
(503) 581-6265

Low Cost
Cremation & Burial
Funerals & Memorials

Simple Direct Cremation $495
Simple Direct Burial $550
Traditional Funeral $1,975

Discount priced
Caskets, Urns and other Memorial items.

Privately owned
cremation facility.
Locally owned and operated by Oregon families.

www.ANewTradition.com

Custom Dentures Made In Our On-Site Lab
Licensed Denturist Corey Zimmerman

Valley Denture Center Since 1993

- New Dentures ■ Partial Dentures
- Relines (same day) ■ Flippers
- Repairs (while you wait)

Insurance accepted - Free consultations

503-623-8846
www.valleydenturecenter.net

322 Main Street Plaza, Suite 110, Rear Entrance, Dallas

Information for the police report comes from law enforcement agencies. Not all calls for service are included. The status of incidents reported may change after further investigation. Individuals arrested or suspected of crimes are considered innocent until proven guilty.

POLICE REPORT

DALLAS

Arrests/Citations

- Dashanae R. Brown, 18, of Dallas in the 200 block of Southeast Uglow Avenue on Feb. 24 on charges of second-degree criminal trespassing and physical harassment.
- Matthew L. Shilhanek, 39, of Monmouth in the 300 block of Southeast Clay Street on Thursday on charges of second-degree criminal trespassing and second-degree criminal mischief.
- Javier Tapia, 27, of Dallas on Southwest Church Street on Saturday on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicants and reckless driving.

INDEPENDENCE

Arrests/Citations

- Hector Migue Ascencio-Estrada, 30, of Independence at Monmouth and South Sixth streets on Feb. 21 for driving while suspended or revoked.
- Adrian James Ulery, 37, a transient at the corner of Main Street East and High Street North on Feb. 24 for second-degree disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Three hours later, he was also cited on a warrant for failure to appear.
- Earl Edward Jones, 54, of Independence in the 0-99 block of South Gun Club Road on Feb. 25 on a bench warrant for failure to appear.

- William Everado Gutierrez, 19, of Silverton and Blakey Austin Swearingen, 19, of Keizer at the corner of South Ninth and Monmouth streets on Saturday, both for minor in possession of alcohol.

MONMOUTH

Arrests/Citations

- Cameron Timothy Largusa, 22, of Monmouth in the 100 block of Main Street West on Feb. 22 for misdemeanor fourth-degree simple assault and second-degree disorderly conduct.
- Katie Marie Longshore, 36, of Monmouth at the corner of Gwinn Street West and Warren Street South on Feb. 24 for unlawful possession of methamphetamine and unlawful possession of cocaine.
- Kenneth Minor Longshore, 35, of Monmouth at the corner of Gwinn Street West and Warren Street South on Feb. 24 for unlawful possession of methamphetamine, unlawful possession of a weapon, carrying a concealed weapon and misdemeanor driving under the influence of intoxicants.
- Clarence Elisha Clay, 33, of Salem at the corner of Gwinn Street West and Warren Street South on Feb. 24 for unlawful possession of methamphetamine and unlawful possession of cocaine.

All cremations are NOT CREATED EQUAL.

With our on-site crematory, we can ensure families the utmost security and the most dignified cremation services possible.

DALLAS MORTUARY
TRIBUTE CENTER

FUNERALS . RECEPTIONS . CREMATION . MONUMENTS

287 SW Washington St. • Dallas

~ Polk County's ONLY Family Owned Funeral Homes ~

(503) 623-2325 • dallastrite.com

