Itemizer-Observer staff report

McMINNVILLE — Dallas' girls tennis team opened a new season with an 8-0 loss to McMinnville on Monday afternoon.

"We played well against them, even though the score doesn't reflect it," Dragons coach Jordan Sollman said. "They were conference champions last year and returned a lot (this season)." Marissa Brewen and Savannah Poston played in the top two singles spots for Dallas, while Abigail Garner and Amelia Poston played in the Dragons No. 1 doubles slot. Dallas lost all matches in straight sets.

The Dragons return to the court on Thursday, when Dallas hosts North Marion in its home-opener. Play begins at 4 p.m.

DALLAS BOYS SWEPT: The Dallas boys tennis team hosted McMinnville on Monday, falling 8-0. Freshman Ryan Bibler played in the Dragons' top singles spot, while Joe Gillette and Caedom Blair played in Dallas' No. 1 doubles position. The Dragons dropped all matches in straight sets. Dallas travels to face North Marion on Thursday.
