PREP SOFTBALL ROUNDUP

Panthers fall to second in conference

Central suffers first two losses of season against Dallas and Crescent Valley

Central junior Kylie Nash prepares for a pitch against South Albany on April 15.

Itemizer-Observer staff report
INDEPENDENCE — It was feast or famine at the plate for Central's softball team. The Panthers scored a combined 28 runs in a pair of wins, but just five in two losses.
Central opened its week with a 10-0 win over South Albany on April 15.
But a 5-4 defeat to Dallas on Friday and a 3-1 setback to Crescent Valley gave the Panthers their first losses of the season.
Central recovered by winning 18-2 at Woodburn on Monday.
Pitcher Erin Cole earned wins against South Albany and Woodburn. Ryanne Huffman and Kaitlyn Noon led the Panthers at the plate against the Rebels, each recording a double.

The Panthers (10-2 overall, 6-2 Mid-Willamette Conference) entered the week in second place, one game behind league-leading Silverton.
Central faced Crescent Valley Tuesday after press time.
The Panthers play at Lebanon Wednesday (today) before hosting Silverton Friday at 4 p.m.
DALLAS SCORES 27: The Dallas softball team saw its three-game win streak snapped, falling to Silverton 6-3 on Monday. The Dragons rolled to a 27-1 win against Woodburn on April 15, followed by a 10-2 win at Crescent Valley on Thursday. Perhaps the team's biggest win was a 5-4 triumph over Central, the Panthers' first loss of the season. Makena Linn hit a home run against Central, while Yasmine El-Hato added two hits. Pitcher Erin Taylor earned the victory, throwing for six strikeouts to earn the complete game victory. Dallas entered the week in fourth place in the Mid-Willamette Conference. The Dragons played a doubleheader at South Albany Tuesday after press time. Dallas plays at Corvallis Wednesday (today) before hosting Crescent Valley on Friday.

PIRATES DOWN PIONEERS: Perrydale's softball squad earned a Tri-River Conference victory, defeating Western Mennonite 7-2 on April 15. No details were provided. Perrydale played at Regis Tuesday after press time. The Pirates play at Central Linn Wednesday (today) before hosting Siletz Valley on Friday and Kennedy on Monday. First pitch for all games is scheduled for 4:30 p.m.

Rising: Amador finding his role

The Panthers gave up 7.4 runs per game in 2014. Central is giving up 3.8 runs per game so far this season.
But after a 6-0 start in league play, the Panthers suffered their first series loss, dropping two of three against Silverton last week. The Silver Foxes won 12-2 on Thursday and 7-5 on Friday. Central earned an 8-7 win on Friday.
"I thought we didn't play our best baseball this whole series, but we were able to salvage a series by not getting swept," Panthers coach Zach Miller said.
Central entered the week in second place in the MWC, two games behind Corvallis, one game ahead of Dallas and two games ahead of Crescent Valley.
The Panthers were scheduled to begin a series against the Raiders on Tuesday after press time.
"We have to have a short memory with this series and move on to Crescent Valley,

Up Next

• Central hosts Crescent Valley Wednesday (today) at 4:30 p.m. The Panthers play at CV on Friday.

another well-coached team, and they will challenge us," Miller said. "Our goal each week is to win a series, and our guys know what needs to be done."
As the Panthers prepare for their final three series of the regular season, Amador said Central is ready to take its game to new heights.
And, a season after Amador fell short of his own lofty goals, he hopes to continue to be an integral part of the team's success and make his first varsity season one to remember.
"I think we have a good chance of making a run this season," Amador said. "It would be great to make state. We haven't done it in years, and I think we have enough potential to make a run."

PREP TENNIS ROUNDUP

Dallas girls squad making progress

Itemizer-Observer staff report
DALLAS — The Dallas girls' tennis team is making strides, despite dropping two of three league matches. Dallas lost to Crescent Valley 8-0 on April 15 and Silverton 6-2 on Monday. Dallas defeated Lebanon 5-3 on Thursday.
Savanna Poston, Emma Noack and the doubles pairs of Dana Taylor and Adelaine Gillette, Megan Floyd and Megan Ronco and Molly Peffley and Morgan Bateman earned victories against the Warriors.

The Dragons host Woodburn Wednesday (today) at 4 p.m. before playing at Central on Monday.
CENTRAL BOYS DOWN SOUTH ALBANY: Central's boys tennis team swept the singles matches en route to earning a 6-2 win over South Albany on Friday. The Panthers lost to Corvallis 7-1 on Thursday and Woodburn 6-2 on Monday. Central hosts South Albany Wednesday (today) before playing at Dallas on Friday and hosting Crescent Valley on Monday.

DALLAS BOYS DROP TWO: Dallas' boys tennis team lost a pair of Mid-Willamette Conference matches, falling to Lebanon 5-3 on Thursday and Corvallis 8-0 on Friday. The Dragons' match against Silverton on Monday did not return results before press time. The Dragons play at Woodburn Wednesday (today) before hosting Central on Friday and South Albany on Monday. Play begins at 4 p.m.

CENTRAL GIRLS WINS ON TIEBREAKER: Central's girls tennis team defeated South Albany 4-4 (83 games to 70) on Friday. Renee Bruning and Danielle Chance earned singles points for the Panthers, who lost to Corvallis 8-0 on Thursday. Results from Monday were not reported. Central plays at South Albany Wednesday (today) before hosting Dallas Friday at 4 p.m. The Panthers return to the road to play at Crescent Valley on Monday.

Vault: Senior sets new bests

Remington, who began track and field in middle school, is a relative newcomer to the world of pole vaulting.
It wasn't until her sophomore season that she gave it a try.
"I really like pole vault because it's such a rush, and I like to push myself," she said. "It can be scary, and I've definitely fallen a few times. You just have to get up and try again."

For Remington, who also played volleyball in high school and has participated in softball in the past, track provides a unique experience, one that she enjoys being a part of.
"You get out of it what you put into it," she said. "In a team sport, sometimes you get one or two players who don't work as hard or not everyone is on the same page. In track, if you don't want to be there, you won't perform well. You have to push yourself to do better. You have to rely on yourself. It's a nice break to be outside and do a more individual sport."

As Remington looks to prepare for a final push toward state, she's hoping years of dedication and hard work pays off in a big way.
"I would be very excited," Remington said. "To go to the state meet and compete would mean be so much fun for me."

PREP BASEBALL ROUNDUP

Panthers lose two of three to Silver Foxes

Central remains in sole possession of second place in the Mid-Willamette Conference

Itemizer-Observer staff report
INDEPENDENCE — Central's baseball team fell out of a first-place tie in the Mid-Willamette Conference after losing two of three to Silverton. The Panthers lost 12-2 on Thursday before splitting a doubleheader on Friday, winning 8-7 before falling 7-5.

Fleming

In the Panthers' lone win, Kyle Fleming hit a walk off RBI single. Freshman pitcher Peter Mendazona earned the victory in his first start.
"We had some missed opportunities, but the guys rallied and stayed with it," Central coach Zach Miller said.
The Panthers entered the week in sole possession of second place in the MWC. Central was scheduled to face Crescent Valley Tuesday after press time. Central hosts the Raiders Wednesday (today) at 4:30 p.m. before closing out the three-game series at Crescent Valley on Friday.

"Getting the kids to understand these new series format is we don't have to sweep," Miller said. "It's getting them to understand that, let's win a series two out of three, and we can't get swept. We have to get one or two, and if we get three wins in a week, it is an added bonus."

DALLAS DROPS TWO: The Dallas baseball team lost two of three to Crescent Valley in a key Mid-Willamette Conference clash. The Dragons opened the series with a 5-4 win on April 14 before falling 8-6 on April 15 and 10-3 on Friday. Dallas entered the week in third place in the MWC with a 6-3 league record, one game ahead of the Raiders and Silverton. Pitcher Tucker Weaver earned a complete game win over the Raiders as Tanner and Treve Earhart each hit a double to lead Dallas. The Dragons were scheduled to start a three-game series against the Silver Foxes Tuesday after press time. Dallas hosts Silverton Wednesday (today) at 4:30 p.m. before playing the series finale at Silverton on Friday.

PIRATES WIN TWO OF THREE: The Perrydale baseball team won two of three Tri-River Conference games. The Pirates defeated rival St. Paul 7-4 on April 5 before defeating East Linn Christian 7-2 on Friday. Regis snapped Perrydale's two-game win streak on Monday, downing the Pirates 8-3. Troy

Trembly

Santiam Wednesday (today) at 4:30 p.m. before hosting Siletz Valley on Friday and Kennedy on Monday. First pitch is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. for both games.
