BIG TOP COMES TO TOWN

Circus set to wow crowds in Falls City on May 27

By Jolene Guzman

FALLS CITY — Ready to see something spectacular? Falls City has a circus coming to town, complete with a traditional big top.

The show will be May 27, so get ready for thrilling trapeze and tight rope performances, a “wild and crazy” unicycle troupe and the performing “Jungle Cats.”

A fundraiser for the Falls City Arts Council and Falls City Parent Group, Culpepper & Merriweather Circus will feature two performances at 5 and 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday at the former mill lot across from the post office, 123 Parry Road, Falls City.

This is the second time Culpepper & Merriweather has visited Falls City, making its first stop in May 2013.

Prices for advance tickets are $10 for adults and $6 for children ages 2 to 12, children younger than 2 are free.

Advance tickets are available at Falls City City Hall 299 Mill St.; the Boondocks, 318 N. Main St., Falls City; Dallas City Cleaners, 144 SW Washington St., Dallas; and Petals & Vines, 410 E. Main St., Monmouth.

On show day, tickets will be $13 for adults and $7 for children.

The box office and midway, featuring pony rides, an inflatable slide and refreshments, opens at 4 p.m. circus day.

Curious how an empty lot can be transformed into a circus?

Stop by the mill lot at 9:30 a.m. on performance day to see the raising of the big top, take a free tour of the circus grounds and learn about Culpepper & Merriweather's history, performers and the animals featured in the show.

A trapeze performer with Culpepper & Merriweather Circus wows the crowd in Falls City in 2013. The circus is back in town for a pair of shows on Wednesday.
