

Run: Costly mistakes hurt Mountaineers

Sophomore quarterback Jeremy Labrado is a big reason why Cook remains optimistic.

Labrado rushed for 128 yards and three touchdowns, while throwing for 150 yards.

Running back Zach Weems also ran for 72 yards and two touchdowns, but after building a 26-16 lead in the third quarter, Siletz Valley scored 20 unanswered points to lead 36-26 late in the fourth.

"We're not applying what we're doing in practices onto the field 100 percent," Cook said. "Maybe we're not quite lining up in the spacing that we show. If we execute and do what we're supposed to do, that's not a game. That's where we have to get to."

Breakdowns on defense allowed several big plays, including a touchdown on the last play of the first half and stalled offensive drives early in the fourth quarter.

"We're so close," Labrado said. "We just made a couple of mistakes here and there. I know we can do it. We have everything in place. The mistakes just kill us."

Perhaps more important than the strength conditioning is that Cook has lit a competitive fire in his players.

"Even when we're down, we come back and fight," Labrado said. "There's no doubt in my mind that we're going to give 100 percent and play every play like it's our last."

J. Labrado

from expecting a loss to feeling like they belong on the field with anyone.

"We won't let them (give up)," Cook said. "We're going to compete from start to finish. They used to compare themselves to opponents. You can't do that. Everyone puts their britches on one leg at a time. Now, they're starting to compete from the start."

While the wins have yet to follow, opponents' perception of the Mountaineers is starting to change.

"It ain't no easy out against Falls City," Cook said. "Anyone we play will tell you."

That includes Siletz Valley senior defensive lineman Tye Rilatos who addressed the Mountaineers during their team meeting after the game with a simple message: Falls City was among Siletz's toughest opponents.

"That speaks volume to have an opponent come up like that," Cook said. "That holds way more weight than from coaches."

In Cook's eyes, Falls City has made some important strides this season. Translating that to consistent success on game nights could be a longer journey than expected.

"This might be one of those later success stories," Cook said. "I hope not for these seniors and these kids in the program."

PERRYDALE ROUNDUP

Pirates defeat lone, improve to 6-0 overall

Itemizer-Observer staff report

IONE — Perrydale's football team cruised to a 62-20 victory over lone on Thursday to remain undefeated. The Pirates (6-0 overall, 4-0 Special District 4) led 56-12 at halftime.

Junior Haylen Janesofsky scored six touchdowns, while Brant Barnes scored twice. Janesofsky, Barnes and Kirk Fairchild each returned an interception for a touchdown.

Quarterback Daniel Domes threw for 228 yards and three touchdowns. Bailey and Barnes combined for 228 yards on the ground as they filled in for Keenan Bailey, who suffered a minor ankle injury in the first quarter. Barnes and Alex Hawes had 12 and 8 tackles, respectively, to lead the team on defense.

Domes

"The offensive line of Fairchild, Jacob Pope, Hunter Sagmoen and Spencer Bibler again did a great job opening holes and protecting the passer," Perrydale coach Chris Gubrud said. "Overall we played well but still need to do a better job tackling in space and preventing the big play."

Perrydale hosts Sherman on Oct. 23 at 7 p.m.

VOLLEYBALL WINS THREE OF FOUR: Perrydale's volleyball team won three of four matches last week. The Pirates defeated Crosshill Christian 25-22, 25-23, 19-25, 19-25, 15-12 on Oct. 6 and Falls City 25-16, 25-6, 25-13 on Thursday. Perrydale lost to North Douglas 25-14, 25-20, 22-25, 25-17 before defeating Damascus Christian 25-11, 25-16, 25-11 on Friday. The Pirates played Country Christian Tuesday after press time. Perrydale closes out its regular season at Jewell on Thursday before hosting C.S. Lewis Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. The Pirates entered the week with a 10-1 record in Casco League play. The top three teams in the league qualify for the 24 team bracket.

WOU ROUNDUP

Football upsets North Alabama

Itemizer-Observer staff report

MONMOUTH — Western Oregon's football team earned its biggest win of the season so far, defeating North Alabama 24-22 on Saturday.

Quarterback Phillip Fenuimai entered the game for the Wolves in the third quarter after starter David Sowards was injured. Fenuimai gained 117 yards of total offense, including hitting tight end Andy Avgi for an 8-yard touchdown pass to put WOU up 24-16 with 4:35 left in the game. Fenuimai also scored on a 13-yard run.

The Wolves host Central Washington Saturday at 1 p.m.

SOCCER DROPS TWO: Western Oregon's soccer squad lost a pair of Great Northwest Athletic Conference, falling to Concordia 2-0 on Oct. 6 and Seattle Pacific 3-1 on Saturday. Savannah Rogan scored the Wolves' lone goal against the Falcons on Saturday. WOU could not overcome a hat trick from SPU's Hannah Huesers, as Western Oregon fell to 5-5-overall and 1-4-1 GNAC. The Wolves play at Saint Martin's on Thursday and Concordia on Saturday.

VOLLEYBALL FALLS: Western Oregon's volleyball lost a pair of conference matches, falling in straight sets to Simon Fraser on Thursday and Western Washington on Saturday. The Clan defeated WOU 25-20, 26-24, 25-17. The Vikings earned a 25-19, 25-19, 25-20 win. Paige Kelsey recorded 10 kills and Christie Colasurdo had 21 digs to lead the Wolves. WOU hosted Concordia Tuesday after press time. Western Oregon plays at Montana State Billings on Thursday.

RIBICH LEADS CROSS-COUNTRY: Western Oregon's cross-country team competed at the Western Washington Invitational on Saturday. The men's team placed 9th, while the women's squad finished 11th. Sophomore David Ribich finished 13th overall in the 10,000-meter men's race in 32 minutes, 2 seconds. Nicole Maurmann finished with a time of 23:12, taking 38th overall.

WOU will compete in the GNAC Championship in Bellingham, Wash. on Oct. 24.

Itemizer-Observer

Athlete of the Week

Haylen Janesofsky
Perrydale High

Janesofsky, a junior, was a touchdown machine for Perrydale's football team on Thursday. The running back/cornerback scored six touchdowns during a 62-20 win over lone.

Krista Omlid
Central High

Omlid, a sophomore, was a key factor for Central's volleyball squad. Omlid led the Panthers with 22 kills during Central's 25-15, 25-22, 17-25, 16-25, 15-5 victory over Crescent Valley on Oct. 7.
