

Showdown: Country Christian beats Pirates on Dec. 19

Perrydale has won its last six Casco League contests. Several players have showed significant improvement during that stretch, including freshman Shylar Halverson, who has earned a role as a starter and allowed the Pirates to play at a quicker pace right from the opening tip. The emergence of several inexperienced players helped Perrydale improve to 9-1 in league play, good for second place. "You see the younger girls feeling better about themselves, so they started to play even better (during games)," senior Telaney Newton said. "The younger girls learned our system and we've thrown in some new things on defense. It's coming together." Newton and Anna McGill continue to be leaders on the court on offense, but they remain overwhelmingly responsible for scoring and making the offense function at a high level. "We need to get our younger girls to shoot more," Telaney Newton said. "They can do it. We see it in practice. It's the whole confidence thing. They need to believe in themselves." Newton and McGill have taken it upon themselves to help foster that belief through positive reinforcement during games and practices. "If I were a freshman, I would be scared to go out there and they do it without batting an eyelash," Telaney Newton said. A big test is coming looms for the Pirates. Beating some of the league's worst teams in Jewell and C.S. Lewis is one thing. It's the games against the teams at the top which entered the week ranked No. 1 in Class 1A and undefeated in league play, handed the Pirates their lone league loss on Dec. 19. Country Christian presents a daunting challenge. The team has scored 53 or more points in all but one of its games and has scored 60 or more points in all but three, but the Pirates hope to show they're ready to join the league's elite teams. "We're fine tuning," Terry Newton said. "We went from being a bigger, slower team to a smaller, faster team. Against St. Paul, that's as big of a team we'll see all year. We held our own. The score was deceiving. It was a fantastic effort." The Pirates will likely need an even better effort against Country Christian, but no matter what the outcome, Terry Newton said this experience will only serve to make them stronger. "This has been a growth process," he said. "I think coaches will say we don't want to have Perrydale at the end, because they know we'll be playing well at the end of the season."

WESTERN OREGON ROUNDUP

Men's basketball moves into top spot in conference standings

Itemizer-Observer staff report MONMOUTH — Facing two of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference's top teams, Western Oregon's men's basketball squad moved into first place after defeating Alaska Anchorage and Alaska Fairbanks last week. The Wolves started by downing Alaska Anchorage 76-66 on Thursday in a showdown between the conference's top two teams. Andy Avgi scored a game-high 31 points in the victory. Jordan Willey added 17 points, including nine in the second half. Julian Nichols had nine points, 12 rebounds, seven assists and one steal as the Wolves handed Alaska Anchorage its first conference loss of the season. W O U held off a furious rally by Alaska Fairbanks to hold on for a 64-59 win on Saturday. The Wolves led by 16 with just under 16 minutes to play before Alaska Fairbanks cut the lead to three on five different occasions. Avgi had 24 points and eight rebounds, while Willey added 17 points and eight boards.

WOU (16-2 overall, 9-1 GNAC) hosts Northwest Nazarene Thursday at 7 p.m. and Central Washington Saturday at 4 p.m. WOMEN'S BASKETBALL FALLS TO 3-15: Western Oregon women's basketball team lost a pair of conference contests, falling to Central Washington 52-37 on Thursday and Northwest Nazarene 63-51 on Saturday evening. Jordan Mottershaw led the Wolves with 11 points against Central Washington. Natalie DeLongo scored 10 points to lead WOU against Northwest Nazarene. Western Oregon has lost six of its last seven games. The Wolves (3-15 overall, 2-8 GNAC) play at Western Washington on Thursday and at Simon Fraser on Saturday.
