Three youth arrested for 27 car break-ins

MONMOUTH — Lock your cars and don't leave anything of value in the vehicle, especially out in the open.

That's the message from Monmouth Police Department after officers arrested three juveniles for a string of 27 thefts from cars that happened between Feb. 19 and 21.

Because of their age, the suspects' names will not be released, said Sgt. Kim Dorn.

"Many of these thefts were unreported, but two of the juveniles told Detective Kevin Renfro where they had broken into cars," she said. "A good amount of the property was recovered, including items such as iPods, laptops and air soft guns. Most of the vehicles were not locked."

Most of the thefts occurred on the east side of Pacific Avenue, both in the northeast and southeast section of Monmouth, Dorn said.

To avoid being a victim of theft, it is important to lock your doors and not leave valuable items in plain sight. Also, park in well-lit areas, if possible. Avoid concealment from larger vehicles, fences or foliage.

Dorn said when shopping, place items in your trunk when you return to your vehicle and not at your next stop.

"Be alert and aware of your surroundings and people in your neighborhood," Dorn said. "If there is suspicious activity or person, let the police know."

If your vehicle is damaged or broken in to — even if you forgot to lock it up — report it to the local police department or sheriff's office.

"We encourage people to make a report even if nothing is missing," Dorn said.
