Bond would give twice as much

When I was a kid, we had it all. Our kids need more than they have now. Bond 27-120 does not cost us $4 million.

We are responsible for $2 million.

The state will match it, if we pass the bond.

It is waiting. I live on a small, fixed income. The bond will cost $12.84/month for a home valued at $200,000.

So, it is not that much considering it is for education.

Please pass bond 27-120. Our schools cannot afford to start from scratch.

Laura Christensen
Falls City

Bond good for kids, community

Vote yes on Measure 27-120. Keep classes small, feed kids nutritiously and provide a seismically safe building for residents.

For between $6 and $15 per month, you will help keep our small school small.

Elementary class sizes range from 20-30 students each. The district has grown by nearly 25 percent since 2014.

At the elementary, mixed-grade rooms divide teachers' attention among more students.

You will feed local kids nutritious meals for breakfast, lunch, supper and a snack every school day.

We need a functioning kitchen.

Your yes vote provides a safe gathering place in case of a seismic emergency.

Amara Houghtaling
Falls City

Yes on bond for much-needed fixes

Citizens of Falls City: Do you want our school district to plan ahead for a growing student population, state mandates and aging buildings? A yes vote on 27-120 does just that.

Stop putting Band-Aids on the challenges our district faces and plan for the future.

Matching funding is available, and if we don't use it, some other community will be given a very precious gift.

Vote yes on 27-120 to receive money that the entire state of Oregon is gifting to Falls City.

Vote yes to plan for the future of our district and community.

Vote yes for kids.

Roxi Barnhart
Falls City

Watch surroundings behind the wheel

Have you forgotten your driver safety skills?

Your vehicle's backup lights lit up my white (and) reflective jacket, my reflective ankle ribbon, my reflective shoes and my dog's reflective jacket as we stood on the sidewalk watching you barrel out of your driveway.

Did you see me? Heck no, you didn't even look.

Are you wanting to start your day off with a vehicular accident?

Just a reminder to all of you that fall into this category.

Ann Richmond
Dallas

Invest in next gen, yes on FC bond

I would like to encourage everyone to please vote yes on Falls City School District 27-120.

As a long-time active community member, I believe it is every generation's responsibility to invest in the next generation.

This could be time and/or money.

The state of Oregon has recognized that there is a need in the Falls City School District and has committed to supporting our district with matching funds.

The passing of ballot measure 27-120 will help our school district to provide more opportunities for students in years to come. Thank you.

Bob Young
Falls City

Support bond, keep state dollars

Falls City, please do not pass up this opportunity again.

A no vote gives $2 million to another community.

Do not believe claims that Falls City residents are paying $4 million for this bond.

Two million dollars has already been generated through revenue sources from all over the state.

It is a gift to us from all of Oregon if we agree that our students deserve thriving schools.

Our aging buildings, lack of space, and growing student population require action.

Take action now while we have this $2 million gift at our fingertips.

Yes on 27-120.

Thompson holds line on taxes

It must be election season, because there Mike Nearman goes trying to trick voters on the issue of taxes.

Nearman has been falsely attacking Jim Thompson, trying to paint him as a tax-and-spend liberal.

The truth is Jim was a deciding vote on the biggest small business tax cut in history — a tax break that Nearman himself voted to eliminate.

We can trust Jim Thompson to hold the line on spending and taxes.

He opposes Measure 97, and he's always been a careful watchdog on our tax dollars.

Join me in voting for Jim Thompson.

Evans protects vets, women rights

Paul Evans deserves to be re-elected to HD 20.

He has worked hard to secure services and benefits for veterans.

In addition, he has made it a priority to stand up for women, students, farmers, and small businesses.

Paul has the experience to get things done, and he knows how to work with both Democrats and Republicans.

I am proud of what he has accomplished, and I know that he will continue to work for the people in HD 20 and for all Oregonians.

Please re-elect Paul Evans for HD 20.

Falls City needs bond for facilities

Yes on 27-120 provides our growing, aging school district with needed space for classrooms, enrichment activities, community space, and a functioning kitchen. A gym is only one aspect of the proposal.

Please review preliminary plans, tour facilities, and volunteer.

Get to know staff and students. Attend board meetings, share your ideas, and listen to the district's vision.

The district welcomes constructive feedback. Please help us receive the $2 million ODE matching grant by voting yes for $2 million bond.

This is not a $4 million bond; vote yes and support needed educational upgrades for our students; empower our future with your support.

'Dupes' man disagrees

The following caption appeared the USA Today for Oct. 16: Wall Street, lawyers dominate Clintons fundraising."

The "dupes" man has not lately bestowed his solicitude on us Tea Party "Dupes" of Wall Street.
