

OBITUARIES

John J. Morris

Jan. 9, 1925 – Jan. 22, 2017
John J. Morris, of Dallas, moved to his heavenly home on Jan. 22 at the age of 92. John was born in Canby on Jan. 9, 1925, to Glen E. and Elva (Schultz) Morris.

John worked in the Lumber Industry and began his career in 1947 first in Molalla, and then Valsetz, before working with Willamette Industries in Dallas as a Lumber Grader for over 40-some years.

He married Miriam Rempel in Dallas on Feb. 11, 1949, and together raised three children.

John was a very active person and loved to hunt, fish, travel and camp, but mostly he loved to volunteer and help anyone who needed it.

At one time, he participated in helping out at the senior center, working as a tour guide at Willamette Industries, and even helped build Grace Mennonite Church, which is now Grace Community, without expecting any compensation.

John was an active member of Evangelical Bible Church in Dallas and a lifetime member of local union 2714.

John is survived by his wife Miriam; children Bob Morris, Roger Morris and Chris Rupp; sister Marge Rabe; three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. He was very proud to be an identical twin to his brother Jonas Morris, who preceded him in death, along with his other siblings Frank Morris and Lola Sebern.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 26, 2017, at the Chapel of Dallas Retirement Village. A visitation will be Wednesday, Jan. 25, 2017, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center, who is also caring for the family.

Online condolences can be made at: www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Patrick Lee Woodward

July 8, 1943 – Jan. 18, 2017
Pat Woodward, 73, of Salem, died peacefully at home after a lengthy illness.

He was born in Tillamook to Virgil and Anne Woodward, and was the oldest of six siblings. He attended school in Salem and graduated from South Salem High School in 1961.

Pat married Cathie Gibbons in November 1975 at Roberts Community Church in Salem. They were married 41 years, and adopted seven children from India. They raised their family in a house they built mere steps away from Pat's childhood home.

He started working for Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway in 1964, which later merged into Burlington Northern Railway. Pat advanced from laborer to machine operator to foreman — and finally track inspector before retiring in 2004. He also served for eight years in the Oregon National Guard.

Pat loved working on automobiles and owned an engine and machine repair shop for many years. He had a knack for fixing just about any vehicle in front of him. His father used to say, "If it has a piston, Pat can make it run."

His love for cars extended to drag racing, and he won many races during the 1960s in the Willamette Valley. Pat also enjoyed hunting, reloading ammunition, his dachshunds, and spending winters in Arizona.

Pat is survived by his wife Cathie; sons Raju, Josha, and Mani; daughters Geeta, Aneasha, and Anamika; brothers Michael and Gary; sisters Jeri Ann, Joanne, and Annette. He was preceded in death by his daughter Anjali.

His family wishes to thank Willamette Valley Hospice for their care and support, and requests that any donations be made to Willamette Valley Hospice.

A service will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, Jan. 27, at Farnstrom Mortuary in Independence.

Robert 'Bobby' Joseph Young

April 16, 1980 – Jan. 15, 2017
Robert "Bobby" Joseph Young, 36, died on Jan. 15 from complications from Type 1 diabetes.

Bobby is survived by his parents, Bob and Pam Young. His sons, Dylan and Lopaka. His sisters, Jennifer, Tiffany and Sophia. He is survived by Aunt Donna Walton, Uncle Paul Smith, and many nieces and nephews whom he dearly loved, Vanessa, Jocely, Gracie, Faith, Zach, Wyatt and Ian.

Bobby worked with his dad in the construction business, mainly roofing.

His heart was serving others; his hobbies were collecting sports cards and tattooing. Bobby graduated from Falls City High School and has been a part of the community and made friends with everyone he met. He will be missed.

Dani Jo Wagner

Oct. 30, 1962 – Jan. 15, 2017
Dani Jo Wagner, a resident of Falls City, died on Sunday, Jan. 15. She was born on Oct. 30, 1962, in Dallas, the daughter of Danny and Betty Jones Scott.

Dani Jo graduated from Dallas High School in 1980. Dani Jo married Karl "Corky" Wagner on Nov. 1, 1980, in Dallas. They lived in Dallas for two years and then settled in Falls City. She worked at Agripac for several years. Dani Jo later worked at Ugo's Pizza and Not So Famous Pizza in Dallas for many years.

Dani Jo enjoyed elk and deer hunting, along with fishing. She also enjoyed riding dirt bikes, three-wheelers, and quads. She liked going to Sand Lake with her family. She enjoyed sewing, baking and cooking. Dani Jo enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, Corky; daughter, Stefani (Micah); grandchildren, Karli-Jean, Kassidi, Kaidyn, Kynli, Kamdyn, Tianna, Charles and Logan; and daughter, Kori (Matt); grandchildren, Rylie, Kolbie, and Skyler; son, K.C. (Danielle); grandchild, Christofer; parents, Danny and Betty Scott; brother, Don (Bev) Scott.

Funeral Services will be on Friday, Jan. 27, at 11 a.m. at Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center. A reception will follow at the Falls City Fire Department. Private interment will be in the Upper Falls City Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Falls City Fire Department or Willamette Valley Hospice in care of Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center, who is caring for the family.

Lenora Marie Lanig (Short)

June 7, 1944 – Dec. 24, 2016

Please join us for a celebration of life on Saturday, Feb. 18, at the American Legion of Lebanon, 480 S. Main St., Lebanon 97355, from 3 to 5 p.m. Bring your favorite photo for her memory board. For further information on activities about or after the celebration of life, contact C. Lanig, 541-936-2443.

A devoted wife and mother, Lenora (Bubbles) is survived by her Loving Husband of 56 years, Jerry Lanig Sr.; her children, Jerry Lanig Jr., Tirzha Masten (Lanig), Scott Lanig, eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Beloved grandmother and great-grandmother Lenora attended Dallas High School and settled with her husband Jerry in Albany.

She was an avid reader, involved in women's clubs, PTA, Scouts and much more. She was an assistant speech therapist and loved to bowl. She was league secretary on both Friday and Sunday nights at ABC lanes in Albany for many years. Family was everything to Len, she made a beautiful home, loved camping, arrowhead hunting, music, dancing and playing cards. She surrounded herself with friends who loved to laugh. After her children were grown, she opened Grandma's Day Care, where she cared for and raised the next generation of children. This endeavor was near and dear to her heart.

She retired in 1999 and moved to Lebanon, where she continued to camp along the Oregon coast, Bend and La Pine were favorite spots. She loved to socialize and play cards with her best friends Steve and Penny Schuld, of Lacombe.

Her passing was too soon; we all share the pain of her absence. We Love You.

Krista K. (Hergenrether) Ray

Dec. 1, 1972 – Jan. 21, 2017

Krista K. (Hergenrether) Ray, 44, of West Salem, formerly of Dallas, passed away peacefully at home on Jan. 21, 2017. Krista was born Dec. 1, 1972, in Medford.

Growing up in the Medford area, Krista was active in Job's Daughters, 4-H, Junior Comets, and Rotary Exchange. Krista spent her senior year of high school as an exchange student in the Netherlands. She graduated from Crater High School in Central Point in June of 1991. After graduation, she attended the University of Oregon, earning her Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology with a minor in special education. Upon graduation from the University of Oregon, Krista worked for the State of Oregon in the Social Services Office, first in Roseburg, and later in the Medford and White City offices.

In 1996, she married her high-school sweetheart, Tim Ray, also of Medford. In 2002, Krista and Tim welcomed their first child, a son, Tyler. In 2005, Krista and her family moved to Dallas, where their daughter, Kendall, was born. Krista was a devoted and loving mother to Tyler and Kendall, as well as many other children and families in her life. She volunteered in the Dallas schools, helping start the Lion's Den program at Lyle Elementary while being an educational assistant. She was an active member of the Grace Community Church while living in Dallas. In 2014, Krista moved to Columbus, Ohio, for two years before returning to West Salem in 2016.

Her family was the joy of her life and Krista spent many hours watching her children play soccer and t-ball. She was an active photographer and scrapbooker, making many albums and memories for her family. Krista also was an FFA mom to many of Tim's students. Krista was first diagnosed with breast cancer in the summer of 2008. Through hard work, fantastic doctors, and very aggressive treatments, she conquered cancer and went into remission for several years. In the fall of 2013, the cancer returned. Doctors in both Oregon and Ohio worked very hard to control and contain the cancer. Krista remained determined and continued to fight with all her might. Unfortunately, the cancer was too aggressive and eventually exhausted medical options.

Krista is survived by her husband Tim Ray and their two children Ty and Kendall of West Salem; her parents, Richard and Lorena Hergenrether; her sister Kimberly; and her nephews Loren and Noah, of Grants Pass; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and nephews.

A celebration of Krista's life will be held on Saturday, Jan. 28 at 1 p.m. at Grace Community Church in Dallas. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to any cancer research or cancer support group in the name of Krista Ray in care of Bollman Funeral Home, 694 Main St., Dallas, OR 97338, who is caring for the family.
