

Business: Lawson proposes a possible compromise

Committee Chairwoman Kelly Gabliks said she's supportive of the purpose behind the business registration.

"This is not a license; this is not trying to be a moneymaker," she said. "The idea is once you came to town, the first place you would go is the city to register the business so we could make sure that you had all the information you needed."

She said new business owners would receive information on city zoning and sign code, future changes being considered, and information on facade grants and loans.

The city could also collect contact information and find out whether hazardous materials are stored at businesses.

Questions arose about whether the same information is gathered by the state through business licenses or if fire department had the staff to collect contact and fire safety information. City officials said the answer is no on both counts.

Committee member Jackie Lawson offered a compromise: making the registration mandatory for new businesses but voluntary for those already open.

"That way we have something versus nothing," she said.

She said paying $10 per year — the renewal fee — and have advertising online through the registration would be appealing to businesses.

And with the change it becomes the business owner's choice to participate.

"I think you would have much better buy-in if it became a choice," Lawson said. "You would find that most people would want to participate versus being told they have to. I would say that is probably your biggest obstacle."

City Attorney Lane Shetterly said he would draft a new business registration ordinance reflecting those changes for the committee to review at its next meeting in March.

POLICE REPORT

Information for the police report comes from law enforcement agencies. Not all calls for service are included. The status of incidents reported may change after further investigation. Individuals arrested or suspected of crimes are considered innocent until proven guilty.

OBITUARIES

Roland Gerald McCormick

Feb. 20, 1934 – Dec. 24, 2016

Roland Gerald McCormick was born in Edmonton, Alberta, on Feb. 20, 1934. In 1947, his family moved to Dallas, where he attended Dallas High School. He earned a teaching degree from the Oregon College of Education, and in 1955, married his high school sweetheart Joyce Bartel.

After he served overseas in the Navy, Roland and Joyce settled in Albany, where Roland taught at Lafayette Elementary. His career as a beloved teacher spanned 33 years, several schools, and nearly 1,000 students. Specializing in fifth grade, he cared deeply for each student, inspiring and challenging them. He also earned his Master's in education from OSU.

In 1965, Roland, Joyce, and their children moved to New Hampshire and then Woodstock, Vt. In 1974, Roland and Joyce fulfilled a lifelong dream: purchasing land and building a house outside Independence. After retirement, they traveled frequently across the globe, and last July, celebrated 61 years of marriage.

Roland was a devoted husband, a loving father and grandfather, an avid reader and scholar, and a talented musician with a rich baritone voice who loved singing hymns with his family and in church. Above all, he was a committed Christ follower who shared the love of Jesus with everyone he encountered. After 82 years on earth, this chapter of Roland's life has ended, but we know that Christmas Eve 2016 marked the day his true story with Jesus began. He leaves behind a family who misses him greatly: his wife, three siblings, three children, and six grandchildren.

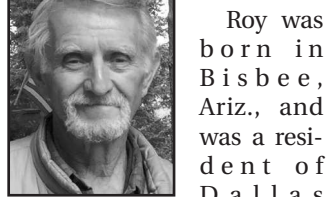

Roland supported younger generations worldwide. If you would like, consider making a donation or sponsoring a child through World Vision in his memory. A service to remember and celebrate Roland's life will be held on Feb. 11 at 2 p.m. at Riverside Baptist Church, 1300 NW Springhill Drive, Albany, 97321. ## Roy W. Debnam Jr.

July 9, 1939 – Jan. 22, 2017

Roy Weldon Debnam Jr., age 77, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, Jan. 22, 2017, due to respiratory failure and Alzheimer's Disease complications.

Roy was born in Bisbee, Ariz., and was a resident of Dallas from 1979 until his death. He passed very peacefully and was surrounded by his family.

Roy was an extremely kind and loving man who loved Jesus and only wanted to share His love. He made friends easily and, as a result, was loved by many. He will be missed.

Roy is survived by his six children, Robert Debnam (Portland), Rick Debnam (Salem), Kim Debnam-Freeman (Dallas), Jill Debnam-Van Laanen (Salem), Grant Debnam (Clarks Summit, Penn.), and Becca Debnam-Heeren (Lake Stevens, Wash.). He is also survived by his siblings, Ann Debnam-Hanneman (Gates), Wayland Debnam (Sterling, Ark.), and Shirley Debnam-West (Cornville, Ariz.).

Memorial Service will be held sometime this summer. Please see Roy's Facebook page for updates.

Dan John 'Ol' Papa' Salsi

June 4, 1932 – Jan. 24, 2017

Dan John "Ol' Papa" Salsi was born in Modesto, Calif.,

to Pasquale and Anna Maria. He was the youngest of seven siblings, all of whom preceded him in death. The son of a wine maker, he grew up on a vineyard in Modesto, where he developed his love for gardening. He was most proud of the garlic he grew and loved sharing the seeds.

He attended Shiloh Grammar School, Modesto High School, then entered the Navy. After his time in the Navy, he returned to the family farm, where he married Margaret and began to raise their five children.

They later divorced. He then married Anna, and they moved to Oregon.

He worked at Truitt Brothers as a maintenance mechanic until his retirement in 1994. After retirement, he was known to many as the face of Monmouth Mini Storage, where he loved meeting new faces and chatting with those in town. An avid hunter and fisherman, he was a member of the NRA and the Elks Lodge. He passed on this love to his family.

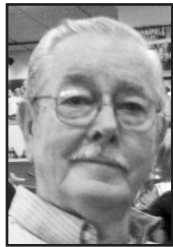

He is survived by his children Danny (Jeanette), Parry (Debbie), Robert (Ruth), Suzie Heide (Tracy), Maria (Alycia); numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He finally went to climb ol' Jacob's Ladder in his home surrounded by his loving family.

At his request, no services will be held. We would like to thank Willamette Valley Hospice for the kindness and care they gave to our dad and our family. Farnstrom Mortuary is caring for the family. Memories and condolences at FarnstromMortuary.com.

Donald Glenn Perry

June 25, 1936 – Jan. 28, 2017

Donald Glenn Perry, 80, of Dallas, died Saturday, Jan. 28, 2017, at the Dallas Retirement Village with Edith Perry, his wife of 56 years, at his side. Don had suffered from Lewy Body Dementia and the effects of the disease for the last few years of his life.

He was born on June 25, 1936, in Portland to William and Emily Perry, and had three siblings, Richard, Douglas, and Caroline.

He was married to Edith (McColm) Perry on July 30, 1960, in Yamhill.

In 1961, he graduated from Linfield College with a Bachelor of Arts in music, and a Masters of Education, beginning his teaching career at the Academy Junior High School in Dallas.

In his 30 years of teaching general music and choir, he was privileged to see as many as three generations pass through his classroom, encompassing graduating classes from 1965 through 2001.

He lived the last 44 years of his life in a house he built during the summer break of 1972, when he and Mel Whitley cooperatively helped each other build their respective houses.

His interests included traveling, family, gardening, singing, classical music, leading the church choir, and studying maps.

He was a member of Dallas First Christian Church for 56 years, where he was an Elder, Trustee, and Choir director for many of those years.

In his singing career, he sang with the Portland Symphonic choir, Masterworks chorale, and Rickreall Christmas Pageant among others.

He is survived by his wife, Edith Perry, of Dallas; daughter, Melody Perry (Mike), of Mesa, Ariz.; son, Byron Perry (Linda), of Dallas; granddaughter, Alisha Prewitt (Richard), of Salem; grandson, William Perry, of Klamath Falls; and brother, Richard Perry, of Roseburg.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Douglas Perry, of Yuma, Ariz.; and sister, Caroline Heintz, of Monroe.

A memorial service will be held at Dallas First Christian Church (1079 SE Jefferson St., Dallas) on Saturday, Feb. 4, 2017, at 11 a.m. All friends and family are welcome.

There will be a reception following the service. Bring your funny stories to share and enjoy a nice selection of Tony Bennet, Frank Sinatra, and Elvis Presley (he still needs exercise so we'll have him rolling in his grave).
