Delbert Fredricks

May 28, 1929 – Feb. 27, 2017
 The City of Dallas Fire & EMS Department lost a 65-year Veteran Volunteer Fire-fighter last night when Battalion Chief Delbert Fredricks, age 87, died at his home on Feb. 27.

He was born on May 28, 1929, in Sioux Falls, S.D., the son of Edward and Lottie Fredricks.

The family moved to Dallas in the spring of 1941. Delbert graduated from Dallas High School in 1947.

He married Agnes Smith on Nov. 8, 1952, in Salem. Delbert worked with his father at Dallas Auto Parts for many years.

He retired from Carquest as an auto parts counter-man in March of 2003. Delbert was a longtime active member of the Dallas First Christian Church.

BC Fredricks started with the Dallas Fire Department in June 1951.

Throughout his time of service at the Department, he attained the rank of fire-fighter, engineer, captain and finally battalion chief.

He has responded to thousands of calls for service including large commercial fires, large-scale wild-land fires, motor vehicle accidents and medical aid calls.

Chief Fredricks had completed 65 years of consecutive service and was halfway to 66 years of volunteer service.

In the past years, he has been on Special Services, writing the monthly Fire Department newsletter titled "Just Rambling."

Fredricks' more than six decades of volunteer service to the community have been recognized by the Oregon Fire Chiefs Association which bestowed their Award of Excellence on him, Governor Kitzhaber, and the Dallas Area Chamber of Commerce which recognized him as Citizen of the Year. He was also a national finalist in the Energizer Battery - Energizer Bunny® Keep Going® spirit award.

Our Department, families, community and volunteer fire agencies in the Polk County area have lost a longtime friend, dedicated community volunteer, fire-fighting advocate and great historian.

He is survived by his wife, Agnes, daughters, Candace Lowry, Cheryl Klee and Colleen Pinner, along with 10 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, and his sister, Dorothy Lossett.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 4 at the Dallas Fire Department 915 SE Shelton St.

Visitation was on Friday at the Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center.

Interment will be in Dallas Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Dallas Fire Department in care of Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center who is caring for the family.

Juanita Vivian Rocha

July 13, 1932 – Feb. 22, 2017

On Nov. 27, 1948, she married Jose Cardoza Rocha (Joe) in Phoenix, Ariz., and they resided in Artesia, Calif., where they had two children, Kathleen and Danny.

In 1969, they moved to Falls City, and later to Dallas, where she lived until her death.

Juanita enjoyed sewing and crocheting.

She loved participating in farmers markets and craft fairs.

She also enjoyed traveling and was fortunate to have visited friends and family all throughout the United States.

She was a Jehovah Witness and a member at the Dallas Kingdom Hall, where she enjoyed participating in her many church activities.

She was also a proud member of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe in Eagle Butte South Dakota.

She is survived by her daughter, Kathleen (husband, Alan) Black; son, Danny (wife, Doris) Rocha; brothers, Art Schweitzer and Russell Schweitzer; and sisters, Darlene Morison and Gretchen Cotta; along with four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Juanita was preceded in death by her husband Joe Rocha; brother, Clarence Schweitzer; and grandson, Brian Rocha.

A graveside service was held on Saturday, March 4, 2017, at 11 a.m. at Dallas Cemetery in Dallas.

Donelson Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.

Shelia Marie Hansen

Sept. 5, 1952 – Feb. 20, 2017
 Shelia Marie Hansen, 64, a resident of Dallas, died Monday, Feb. 20, 2017, at her home.

She was born on Sept. 5, 1952, in Phoenix, Ariz., the daughter of Raymond and June Lobos Baker Lockwood.

She graduated from Siletz High School.

In 1973, she married Daniel K. Hansen in Vancouver, Wash. He preceded her in death on May 9, 1999.

From 1982 to 1999, when she retired, she worked as a supervisor at Praegitzer Industries.

She continued her education by taking classes from Chemeketa Community College for her work at Praegitzer's. Shelia lived in Dallas for more than 50 years.

She loved her grandkids. She enjoyed going out to Spirit Mountain, playing lottery games, painting murals at her home and painting yard figurines.

Shelia loved to decorate her home for each of the holidays especially Christmas. She always loved it when it snowed.

She is survived by her son Shelby (Aimee) Hansen, of Bend; grandchildren: Alaina, Baylie, Kelci, Aaron and Kasimara. Also surviving are brothers Montie and Wade Lockwood and a sister Nancy Schroeder and best friend Mary Biggs. She was preceded in death by five siblings.

Private family services were held. The Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center is caring for the family. To leave a message or memory for the family please go to www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Rockney Alan Blacklaw

April 8, 1959 – Feb. 25, 2017
 On Feb. 25, 2017, Rocky lost a long battle to cancer. Born in Lebanon in 1959, he went to high school in Dallas.

Rocky is survived by his longtime partner Marsha Richardson; son Brock Black-law; daughter Brittany Blacklaw; stepson Sean Richardson; mother Marcia (Davis)

Skelton; stepfather Ned Skelton; brother Todd Blacklaw; sister Nicole Weaver; stepsister Kim Skelton; four grandchildren: Easton, Kora, Taylor and Braedon; and several nieces and nephews.

Rocky is preceded in death by his father, Ron Blacklaw, of Lebanon.

Rocky spent most of his career in designing and engineering of hitching and coupling for the commercial trucking industry.

He was instrumental in helping write the safety standards for the commercial trucking industry.

Everything and anything Rocky ever built, designed, created was done to perfection.

He was a wizard at fabrication and working with metals; there was nothing he could not create.

He loved to travel and spend time in the summer with his grandkids on the water.

He will be missed beyond words and will forever leave an empty spot in our hearts. Rocky never liked attention being focused on him; therefore, at his request there will be no service.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the Make A Wish Foundation of Oregon.
