OBITUARIES

Constance Adele Satterfield

Aug. 23, 1955 – May 2, 2017
Constance Adele Satterfield, of Dallas, died in Salem on May 2, 2017, at the age of 61.

She was born in Portland on Aug. 23, 1955, to Graham and Helen Ainslee.

Constance enjoyed gardening, art, music, food and fashion.

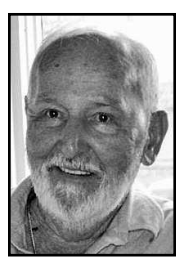

She is survived by her children, Sean, Poppy and Felicia Mitchell; and six grandchildren.

A private service will be held at a later date.

Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center is caring for the family. To send an online condolence, go to: www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Robert Kelly Atkinson

Aug. 4, 1926 – April 18, 2017
Robert Kelly Atkinson was born in Seattle and grew up in Bellingham and Kirkland, Wash.

Guard.

He saw action in the Pacific Theater aboard LST 18, taking part in 10 invasions in New Guinea and the Philippines. Throughout his life, he was quietly proud of serving his country when it needed him most.

After the war, Bob became a carpenter and spent several years working in Alaska.

He met Ardith Betts in their hometown of Kirkland in 1954, and they married the following year.

Together Bob and Ardith raised their five children, living first in Bellevue, Wash., and then building their own home on Rose Hill in Kirkland.

He loved the outdoors, and shared that enthusiasm and sense of adventure with his family through their many camping, hiking, and fishing trips.

In 1989, Bob and Ardith retired and bought acreage on Fruit Farm Road in Independence, where they built another home.

Bob loved working in the yard there and doing woodworking and other crafts in his shop. Their home was the site of memorable gatherings for years as the family grew.

Bob spent his last days at the home he loved, with Ardith and his family near him.

Bob is survived by his wife Ardith and their five children: Theresa (Jeff), Mary, Tim (Amanda), Kelly (Gina), and Katie (Rick).

His 12 grandchildren will miss their Papa and will keep his stories and memory alive for a growing generation (presently eight) of great-grandchildren.

A memorial Mass will be held on Saturday, May 20, at St. Philip Catholic Church in Dallas at 11 a.m., preceded by a rosary at 10:30. A reception will follow the Mass in the parish hall.

Special thanks to Debbie Reid, who helped provide loving care for Bob and help for Ardith, allowing them to be together at home in the final year of Bob's life. Thanks also to the staff at Willamette Hospice for their support and guidance.

Remembrances in Bob's name can be made to the Oregon chapter of the Alzheimer's Association.

Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center is caring for the family. To share an online condolence, go to: www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Rodger Matthies

March 25, 1949 – May 01, 2017
Rodger Fred Matthies passed away at home in Dallas on May 1, 2017, at the age of 68.

Rodger was born in Portland to Fred Matthies and Dorothy Buss, the third oldest of four children.

He spent most of his life in Portland. Rodger attended St. Ignatius grade school and Benson High School.

After high school, he had a long and enjoyable career managing the warehouse for Payless Drugs.

Rodger married Susan Neal in 1969, and they were married for 48 years. Together they raised two children, Michael and Paula.

Rodger loved spending time with his family.

He enjoyed hosting family gatherings.

He coached baseball and softball when his children were young. He fixed up old houses as a hobby. In later years, he enjoyed camping at Oregon parks, walking, and a good game of cribbage.

Rodger and Susan recently retired to Dallas. They also became "snowbirds," spending winters in Arizona and summers in Oregon.

Rodger is survived by his wife Susan; their two children and their spouses, Michael and Dawn Matthies, Paula and Russell Port; two granddaughters, Rebecca and Michelle Matthies; three sisters, Sr. Janice Matthies, Susan Hill and Rebecca Boyum; and many extended family members.

A gathering will be scheduled later in June to celebrate Rodger's life.

Remembrances in lieu of flowers may be sent to Hospice Care of Northwest, 2290 Commercial St. SE No. 108, Salem, OR 97302. www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Orville O. VanLaningham

June 8, 1926 – May 3, 2017
Orville VanLaningham, 90, passed away at his home Wednesday in Independence. Orville was born in Sidney, Ark., to William and Myrtel. He was the sixth of nine children.

His family moved from Harville, Mo., to Farmersville, Calif., when he was a young boy.

He proudly served his country in the United States Navy during World War II.

In 1944, he married the one and only love of his life, Joy Lawrence. They were married for 69 years before Joy's passing in 2014.

They had three children: Lee, Kay and Zane; eight grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

Orville worked as a machinist for Alcoa. He and Joy retired in 1988 and bought a 150-acre farm in Independence.

He raised cattle, horses and goats. He enjoyed team roping, coon hunting, and working on his farm.

He is survived by his daughter, Kay (Arlin) Bidwell, of Dallas; sister, Betty Davenport, of Farmersville; grandchildren, Sandy, Donna, Joey, Lizzy, Alison, Luke, Tiffany, and Jason.

Predeceased by Joy, Lee, and Zane VanLaningham.

In honor of Orville, there will be a viewing at Farnstrom Mortuary in Independence on Wednesday, May 10, from 2 to 5 p.m. with a graveside service Thursday, May 11, at 11 a.m. at Hilltop Cemetery in Independence. A celebration of life will follow at his home.

A special thanks to Lindsey Bernett and Willamette Valley Hospice for the loving care he received during his last days.

Carolyn M. Chapin

April 4, 1949 – April 29, 2017
Carolyn M. Chapin, a resident of Perrydale, died on Wednesday, April 26, from cancer.

She was born on April 4, 1949, in Corpus Christi, Texas, and was the daughter of Arthur and Mary Mathis.

Carolyn graduated from King High School in Corpus Christi in 1967.

Carolyn attended Trinity University in San Antonio, and then transferred to Willamette University in Salem and graduated in 1971.

Carolyn and Roy were married on Sept. 11, 1971, in the Dallas United Methodist Church.

She loved teaching, and taught Spanish as well as English as a second language at Amity High School for 15 years, and later at Perrydale High School for four years.

Carolyn grew up visiting her grandparents at the Mathis Family Ranch in Pipe Creek, Texas, and continued to enjoy traveling there to visit family.

Carolyn was a longtime member of the Dallas United Methodist Church and the Good Will Club in Perrydale. She was a longtime attendee of the Portland Metropolitan Opera and other musical events.

Carolyn loved gardening, tending to her 150 blueberry bushes and her flower garden.

She is survived by her parents, Arthur and Mary Mathis; husband Roy Chapin; daughters, Karen (Dan) Myers, Kathy (Rich) Slack; son, Mark (Carolyn Stock) Chapin; grandchildren Rachel Myers, Joshua and Olivia Slack, Zoe and Ella Chapin; brothers Allen (Deanna) Mathis, and James (Cindy) Mathis.

A celebration of Carolyn's life will be held in July at the Dallas United Methodist Church.

Memorial contributions may be made to the church, the Delbert Hunter Arboretum, the American Cancer Society, or a charity of choice in care of Bollman Funeral Home, Dallas, who is caring for the family.

A celebration of life will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at First Baptist Church, 1505 Monmouth St., Independence.

Edwin Leroy Hazen

Aug. 12, 1956 – April 20, 2017
Edwin Leroy Hazen a retired long-haul truck driver, passed away April 20, 2017, due to complications related to diabetes and an infection causing multiple organ failure, at age 60.

Leroy (Edwin) is survived by his two sons David Diaz, 36, (Fort Collins, Colo.), Michael Hazen, 27, (Salem), and daughter Kayla Desirey, 28, (Monmouth), as well as his best friend (Ex-wife) Artie Cabe; brothers: Irvin Hazen, 61, (Los Angeles), Jerry Hazen, 59, (Kalispell, Mont.), Chuck Hazen, 58, (Phoenix, Ore.), Jeff Hazen, 57, (Cheyenne, Wy.), and sisters: Shirley Birges, 65, (Tacoma, Wash.) and Rosina Douglas, 53, (Albuquerque, N.M.). He is predeceased by his mother Helen Alvena Mayer, father Edwin Lawrence Hazen and sister Terry, whom died at the age of 3 when her dress caught fire from a candle can.

Leroy was born Aug. 12, 1956, in Burley, Idaho. He was a devoted father, and for 17 years a devoted husband who worked long hours and made many personal sacrifices for the betterment of his family. It wasn't until after his first heart attack in which he rolled his semi-truck that he became unemployed. He worked a few odd jobs trying to remain gainfully employed but his physical limitations pushed him toward disability. Once deemed disabled, Leroy spent his days helping those who couldn't help themselves. He opened his home to strangers, fed the hungry, clothed the poor, and shared the Gospel with anyone that would listen. He was a devoted papa who loved spending time with his grandkids especially outdoors swimming or barbecuing. He was a man of God and he wanted everyone to come to know Christ. He had a unique way of accepting that in everything the lords will be done. He was an exceptional guitar and harmonica player and his music will linger on in the hearts of those that loved him for the rest of their days. He is a cherished man. He will not be forgotten.

There will be a celebration of life held in his honor Friday, May 12, at the heart to heart church located at 191 Monmouth Ave N., Monmouth. Dinner to follow.

Steven Douglas Hughes

April 14, 1935 – May 6, 2017
Steven Douglas Hughes, age 82, of Caledonia, Minn., passed away Sat. May 6, 2017, at Tweeten Health Services in Spring Grove, Minn.

He was born on April 14, 1935, in Dallas, to Verne and Ethel (Burg) Hughes.

Steven enlisted in the United States Army on April 20, 1955, and served from Aug. 25, 1955, to May 26, 1956.

Steven held a B.S. Degree from University of Maryland in 1975, a Bachelor of Arts from University of California at Berkeley in Native American Studies, and a Master of Arts from University of Dubuque in 1981, in Native American Religious and Spiritual Studies.

He was a member of Confederate Tribes of Grand Ronde, the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers, and Memorial Christian Church of Peoria.

On Aug. 29, 1992, he married Virginia Schroeder.

Survivors include his brother Larry (Karen) of Keizer; two nieces Alicia (Dan) Fisher and Stephanie Baca, both of Keizer; three stepsons Robert (Mary Kay) Schroeder, of Caledonia, Minn., Jeff (Sarah) Schroeder, of Delavan, Wis., and Scott (Cinda) Schroeder, of Eau Claire, Wis.; eight step-grandchildren; two grand-nieces; and one grand-nephew.

Doug had a huge love of books and was an avid reader, especially anything in regards to history, American Indian culture, and ancient coins and currency. He loved nothing more than to share his knowledge in these areas with friends, family and anyone willing to listen.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife Virginia.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, May 13, at 2 p.m. at Roble Funeral Home in Spring Grove.

A burial of remains will be at a later date.
