Fire: Monday proves busy

While on scene at the Perrydale fire, three medical calls came in. Welsh said Salem ambulance crews had to be called in to cover stations while emergency responders were stretched thin.
Later in the evening, someone called to report another fire on Clow Corner Road. Lucky for fire crews, it turned out to be a legal bonfire and no response was needed.
"It was a very busy night," Welsh said.

OBITUARIES

Terry Robert Bunnell 'Ted'

April 9, 1954 – May 21, 2017
Terry Robert Bunnell, a resident of Dallas, died on May 21, 2017, in Portland. He was 63 years of age.
Terry "Ted" was born on April 9, 1954, in Coos Bay and was the son of Bernard and Roberta (Salter) Bunnell.
He attended school at Milo Academy in Canyonville and moved to California for a short time.
In 1979, Ted moved to Dallas, where he worked for Willamette Industries, which later became Weyerhaeuser.
He retired in 2008 when the mill closed. He was also a caregiver for his dad, Bernard.
Ted enjoyed spending time with family and friends, boating and fishing on the Oregon Coast.
He had a big heart and would take the time to help his neighbors and to make sure they had what they needed.
Ted is survived by his three children, Levi Bunnell, Luke Bunnell and McKenzie Nena; his mother, Roberta Bunnell-Clow; brothers, Larry Bunnell and Lee Bunnell; and his sister, Lynne Irwin; along with six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
A celebration of Ted's life was on Sunday, June 4, 2017, from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Dallas City Park.
Contributions may be made in memory of Ted to the Tuality Healthcare Foundation. Donelson Funeral Chapel is handling the arrangements.

Flossie Mary (Goertz) Kliever

April 8, 1923 – May 29, 2017
Flossie Mary (Goertz) Kliever, a resident of Dallas Retirement Village, passed away peacefully on May 29, 2017, with her sons at her bedside.
Flossie was born on April 8, 1923, in Dallas, to parents Nick and Margaret (Wiens) Goertz.
She attended Dallas schools and graduated from Dallas High School in 1941. She was preceded in death by her parents; nine siblings; her husband Abe Kliever; and their first baby Leslie James Kliever.
Flossie and Abe were married on Feb. 2, 1943.
Abe worked for Willamette Industries as a grader until his retirement. Abe passed away in 1997. Flossie worked as a homemaker raising four energetic boys; she also worked for Agri-Pac in Salem for many years.
She was an active member of the Mennonite Brethren Church. She had a strong and loving commitment to God and the church as well as her family and many friends.
Flossie loved camping with the family during the summer vacations when her children were young; she passed on that love of the outdoors to her sons and grandchildren.
After retirement, she and Abe traveled to Illinois several times to visit family. They also visited Washington, D.C., and Hawaii.

Flossie was born on April 8, 1923, in Dallas, to parents Nick and Margaret (Wiens) Goertz.

Flossie is survived by her sons and their spouses: Phil Kliever, Ken (Sheri) Kliever, Steve (Sharon) Kliever, and Mark (Renee) Kliever; with seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Her eighth great-grandchild was born earlier this month.
Services will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 10, in the Dallas Mortuary Tribute Center.
Private interment will be in the Dallas Cemetery. www.dallastrIBUTE.com.

Obituary Information

Obituaries cost $8 per 25 words (column inch) and photos and flags for veterans are included. Death and service notices run free of charge.

Obituary information must be submitted by 4 p.m. on the Monday before publication to be included in the newspaper.

Most funeral homes handle obituary information and provide it to the newspaper. However, information can also be submitted directly from family members. When submitted by family members or friends, obituaries must be prepaid.

Color and black-and-white photos can be submitted, but photos will only be published in black and white. The Itemizer-Observer uses a flag logo in the obituaries of people who served in the armed forces.

Death notices — like all information submitted to the news department — are subject to editing for style, content and length.

Information can be brought or mailed to the Itemizer-Observer, 147 SE Court St., Dallas, OR 97338, or emailed to ionews@polkio.com.
